He Has Not Assigned.

Mr. Gough says the report is not true and that he will take proceedings against the parties who circulated the rumor. The report orginated in Toronto and was telegraphed to Montreal. The WHIG clipped the item from the "Star."

The Minstrel Show.

Minstrel troupes have been a scarcity in Canada lately, but a good show is always welcome to Kingston. The German company, in the opera house, last night, was certainly worth seeing. The house was packed, and with the exception of a few vacant chairs in the parquet, there were no seats available. P. J. Kenyon, equilibrist, was good, and the comic doings of Edward Garvie were recognized. Billy Lyons, of Kingston, female impersonator, was heartily received.

Battalion Parade.

The different companies of the 14th batt. organized for battalion parade last night. The men were out in good force, and No. 1, although the smallest in numbers, was certainly one of the best drilled. In the absence of Capt. Carruthers, Lieut. Walkem was in command of "F" company, and from the perfect evolutions of the squad, looked as if he understood his drill. "C" company, Capt. White, was the largest on parade and also well drilled. Sergt.-Major Morgans drilled Capt. Kent's company and it was a treat to watch the manoeuvres of the men. Major Galloway conducted battalion parade. The selections by the band were enjoyed.

The Railway Committee.

At the railway committee yesterday afternoon Mayor Polson stated that it was his belief the Kingston, Smith's Falls & Ottawa railway would divert traffic from Kingston. Ald. Bowes thought so, too, and Ald. Skinner said it was the first time he had heard this opinion. The mayor referred to the Grand Junction railway at Belleville. The city had been fooled there. The trade was carried to other places. The company secured a bonus upon certain conditions and then went to the government and had the agreements nullified. Ald. McIntyre said the council had to carry out the will of the people. He thought it well to get all the railroads possible running into the city.
