CROWNED WITH SUCCESS

OVER TEN THOUSAND PEOPLE ATTENDED OUR 3 BIG SALES DURING PAST WEEK.

Everyone Surprised, Everyone Astonished,

Everyone Amazed, Everyone Paralized,

To see our stores crowded with anxious buyers. Those that got waited upon went away rejoicing over the bargains they had secured. Those that were not as fortunate on the first visit came back and made themselves happy, not only by getting goods cheap, but satisfied that we are still on deck and ever ready to protect the interests of customers.

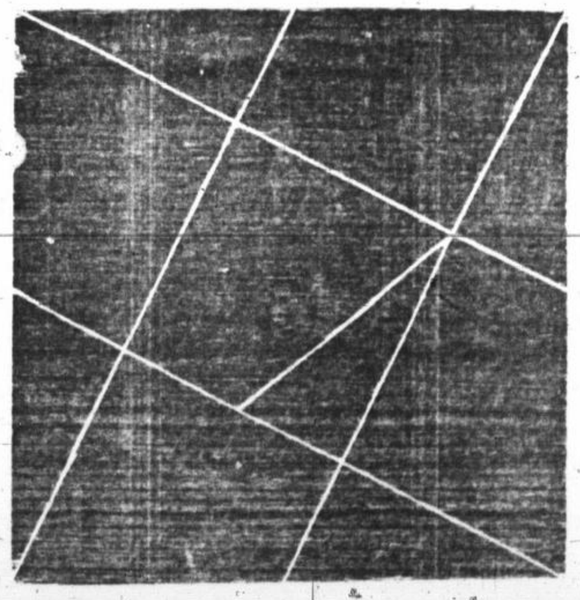
THE THREE BIG SALES ARE STILL GOING ON.

ANOTHER LARGE SHIPMENT OF DAMAGED GOODS!

Remember that we are the only ones that secured any of the damaged goods of McKay Bros., Hamilton. Cannot, for the want of space, give a detailed price list, but all are guaranteed still further reductions and better value than ever while this sale lasts. Ask those who have attended our sales of the bargains. Counters still packed with thousands of dollars worth of damaged goods and remnants. All at your own prices.

CHEAPEST DRY GOODS MERCHANTS IN THE WORLD!

300 Persian Lamb Caps sold last week at $1, worth $3; only 75 left. Come early and get one.



400 GREY BLANKETS sold at 50c each. Only one hundred left.

The first five that solved the above puzzle were: Miss Lizzie Anglin, Battersea; Miss Gracie Clinch, Miss Lizzie Kennedy, Kingston; Miss Frankie Scales, Hinchinbrooke; Mrs. A. Wilson, McDonald Corners.

IS THIS SALE GENUINE? ARE OUR GOODS CHEAP?

if not bring them back and your money will be refunded. Bear in mind that we spend a small fortune in advertising as we are obliged to, our business being different from any other store in Kingston. We handle bankrupt stocks, job lots, etc., which we have to quickly turn into cash. Advertising is the surest, quickest and best way of telling the people what we have to offer. When patronizers come we try to suit them; goods are shown with pleasure and we never refuse to take back anything that does not suit.

Avail yourself now or miss the chance of a century.

BIG SALE still going on in Kingston and will continue until the entire stock is sold.

This sale begins in Gananoque on SATURAAY, JANUARY 31st, when the people there and in the surrounding country will be given an opportunity of getting some wonderfully cheap goods.

Four big sales in all. Three going on in Kingston and one in Gananoque.

Remember the Farmers' True Friends and Benefactors of the Public.
