

Oakville's Andjelina Obad, 10, left, was so moved by the story of a girl she never met — Kristina Babaric who died at the age of 17 with cancer — she decided to do something special. As Kristina's favourite place on Earth was Camp Oochigeas, which is run by volunteers and available free exclusively to children with cancer, Obad created a Harry Potter painting in honour of Kristina to help decorate the camp. She is hoping to inspire others to help, too. Obad recently gave her painting, Reach for the Stars, to Kristina's sister, Antonia Babaric, who is participating in a run on May 11 in Toronto to help raise money for the camp. For more information about the camp or the run, visit www.ooch.org/tonababaric. | submitted photo
