They Are all Safe.

Yesterday the friends of Charles Barber and William Francis were greatly excited to hear that the boys had gone out for an afternoon's fishing on Monday and had not been seen since. Grave rumors of drowning and other accidents were set afloat, and the near relatives of the youths rendered extremely anxious, so much so that at 4:30 p.m., yesterday, Mr. Barber, of the firm of Barber & Johnson, contractors, and father of Charles, left for Clayton to find out, if possible, where the missing boys were last seen. Shortly after his departure a telegram arrived from one of the boys, stating that they were at the Thousand Island Park and would be home to-day. Mr. Barber, at Clayton, was notified of this and all three will probably arrive this afternoon safe and sound.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

FIREMEN WERE VERY BUSY DURING THE NIGHT.

A Blaze on Barrie Street—A Call to Campbell's Mill—The Policemen Kept the Flames Under Control—The Damage is Considerable as it Was.

A thunder storm of much severity broke over the city shortly after midnight. It came up suddenly and did not last long, but the lightning was the cause of much damage.

At no place was more interest taken in the storm than at the fire station. The firemen in charge were up all the time, and the gongs kept continually ringing. The playing of the electricity on the fire alarm wires caused the disturbance. The storm had nearly spent itself when an alarm came in from box 25. This was at 3 a.m. The firemen turned out their apparatus and started for Barrie street. They found Mrs. Mulholland's house on fire and it was in bad shape. The kitchen was ablaze. The men worked hard and saved a great deal of the main building. The front wall is standing. The fire was supposed to have been caused by lightning. The house was insured for about $300.

The firemen were getting ready for the return trip when they were notified, by a messenger from Mr. Greet's house stating that policemen had telephoned that Campbell's flour mill was on fire. J. Lemon did not lose any time going back. On nearing the fire station they saw the flames darting through the top story of the mill. The police had discovered the blaze, and in the absence of the firemen got a hose attached to a hydrant and kept the flames under subjection until the arrival of the firemen. Then two more streams were added and in a very short time the fire was out. Had not the police taken the steps they did the fire might have been most disastrous.

The lightning started the fire by striking the cupola and running along the roof. It is supposed to have been conducted to the building by the electric light wires. The fire, fortunately, did not get into the heart of the mill. The firemen think the fire began before they went to Mrs. Mulholland's house.

The tops of all the elevators, a great deal of the machinery, bolting clothes, and flour and feed were destroyed. The property is protected by insurance in six insurance companies.

The property was insured as follows: Stock, Atlas, $1,000; machinery, Ætna, $2,000; Western, $3,460; Quebec, $1,300; British American, $1,500, and Phœnix, $1,500; total, $9,650.

CITY AND VICINITY.

The Work Goes Ahead.

The masons will have the foundation walls of the new police cells finished to-day, and will to-morrow commence building the brick walls inside the shambles.

Maybe Good Luck.

Last evening Mr. Sherlock, who keeps a music store on Princess street, had a strange visitor. A crow flew from the west and dropped on the floor of the store.

Making Improvements.

Very important improvements are being made in the interior of the house of industry. New baths have been added and more room made for the inmates of the Skinner wing. The attendance at the house at present is small.

Michael Made Known.

The secretary of the people's protective association is Michael Sullivan, carpenter, contractor, brother of ex-detective Sullivan. He believes that the financial management of the city affairs could be greatly improved upon.

A Great Success.

An excursion took place down the river on the steamer Hero, yesterday, under the auspices of the Independent Order of Foresters of Picton. It was a great success. Many of the excursionists put in the day in the city.

In Fine Condition.

Last evening, after a journey extending over two days, A. P. Rankin and G. W. Guillett, members of the Toronto bicycle club, arrived in the city. They say the roads between Toronto and Kingston are in splendid condition for wheeling.

Accused of Smuggling.

It is charged that Indians smuggle baskets from Canada to river points in the United States. The matter will be investigated. An Indian manufacturer at Fine View is complainant. It is said $4,000 worth of baskets are smuggled in from St. Francis.

She Has the Masonic Apron.

Mrs. Appleton, wife of Edward Appleton of the Kingston penitentiary, owns the first masonic apron worn by the late Sir John A. Macdonald. It was given to her by the deceased premier. She has been offered considerable for the treasure but she will not part with it.

All Were Charmed.

The Anglican churches at Stella, Bath, Napanee and Selby were filled with people during the confirmation services by the bishop of Toronto. His lordship was greatly pleased with the churches and clergy he met, and the latter were charmed with the bishop's cordiality.

The Boats Must Not Call.

On Sunday many steamers called at Thousand Island park and landed passengers and as a result the trustees are much annoyed. It is said the board has asked the government officials to protect the charter, which refuses boats the privilege of calling at the dock on Sunday.

The Memorial Monument.

A mass meeting of the citizens of Lindsay was held last evening to consider the erection of a national monument, in memory of the late Sir John A. Macdonald, in this city. Secretary Kinghorn, of the Macdonald memorial committee, has issued circulars to the press in Canada, asking its co-operation.

Heard Blocks Away.

Some of the orators at the last council meeting spoke so loud that men standing on corners were attracted, and thinking aldermen were fighting, ran over to the hall to see the fun. They arrived in time to hear the discussion between Alds. Swift and Gaskin, when the former called the latter, "the great I am."

It Was Put on the Books.

It is generally understood in Kingston, and susceptible of proof, that one of the Messrs. Connolly hired the post office box in the name of Bancroft and paid for it. The clerk receiving the amount credited it on the books and the entry should still be there. It would be producable in any properly regulated business house. But that isn't the Kingston post office, especially when questions are being asked in parliament.

Military Matters.

"A" company, 14th batt., will hold its annual dinner at Old Sam's restaurant Thursday evening.

Gunners F. and B. Williams, of "A" battery, left to-day for fifteen days' pleasure seeking among the islands near Gananoque.

Bombardier Mackney and bandsman Wirts, the two crack cornetists of the battery band, played with the Picton band yesterday and returned home last night.

The System is Wrong.

The water works department are billing people indiscriminately for use of hose, anyone who has a lawn receiving an account whether he uses hose or not. This is an improper way of doing business and is a bad example for public officials to set. If the water works committee men were to do it in their own business it would soon be made warm for them. Why should citizens receive from a public official, entrenched in a little power, what they would not tolerate in a business house?

The Hotel Arrivals.

Arrivals at the British American Hotel—F. E. Leather, E. Martin, W.W. Robinson, Hamilton; P. Neil, New York; J. Armstrong, C. Runke, W. G. Hunt, C. H. Cochrane, W. A. Locke, D. A. Fleming, Jas. Lockii, Montreal; W. R. Aylsworth and wife, Deseronto; W. G. Colville, Port Hope; J. Millechamp, D. F. Cordingley, J. Scott, Miss Scott, Toronto; H. Doherty and wife, W. Doherty, Harriet Doherty, Paterson, N. J.; W. W. Hall and wife, Watertown; A. P. Rankin, F. W. Gullett, Toronto bicycle club; Jas Mustard, Mrs. J. Gilbert, Chicago; P. Murphy, Quebec.

Report of the Work.

Notice was taken of remarks made about the floral cross in Princess street Methodist church at the re-opening social last Friday. It might be well to mention the good things done and said. The church has a fine large green which was gay with flags and Chinese lanterns. After ice cream and cake were served the people repaired to the church which was well decorated with flowers and growing plants. Very interesting and profitable addresses were delivered by the chairman, A. Shaw; Revs. Short, Sanderson, Whiting and Dr. Griffith. The choir gave excellent music. About $50 were subscribed towards the improvements, and on the whole it was an evening of enjoyment not soon to be forgotten. The church with its new pews and other improvements within and without, situated very pleasantly in a large plot of ground, is one of the most desirable in the city.

An Officer Appointed.

At a meeting of the police commissioners, held yesterday afternoon, Leon Verbeck was appointed truant officer in pursuance of an act passed by the Ontario legislature. He will get $20 per month for this service, and will probably receive extra pay for doing sanitary inspection work. We strongly protest, on behalf of the citizens, knowing their feeling, against this continual increase of officials and expenses. The city is being recklessly loaded down. The police and detective force is already too large without the addition of an official who cannot possibly find occupation for his time and for whose appointment an excuse has to be made that he will do sanitary duty as well. It was a questionable act when the office of clerk of the market and harbor master was perpetuated by a new appointment. A man cannot, even in that dual position, be useful to the extent of his salary. These outlays will go on in the face of hard times, when citizens feel taxes a burden, till two resolute men like Ald. Gaskin and ex-Ald. Snook rise up and satisfy public clamor by a general reduction of salaries and office expenses.

THE ORANGE DISPLAY.

A FINE GATHERING AT MARLBANK ON MONDAY.

The Day's Proceedings Went Off Without a Hitch—Admirable Addresses Were Made by Many Persons—An Eloquent Speaker.

Whig's Correspondence.

The orange demonstration at Marlbank on Monday was the most largely attended and probably the most successful ever held in the northern part of the counties of Lennox and Addington. Probably between 4,000 and 5,000 were present and seventeen lodges in all were represented. Marlbank lies directly on the newly opened railway between Tamworth and Tweed and is now very accessible from points both ways. A special train ran out from Yarker for the accommodation of those desiring to attend. Large numbers got on at each station and before Marlbank was reached the cars were crowded much beyond their capacity for comfort. Some thousands drove in carriages from all directions, numbers of the lodges coming in procession, attended by their lodge bands and bearing fine banners and any amount of orange colors and regalia. Though the crowds were so great and motley everything passed off very quietly. There was a happy absence of much drinking or rowdyism, and what there was seemed to be among those entirely outside of the members of the order. A very large number of ladies were present and they seemed to enter very heartily into all the proceedings of the day.

The lodges from the following localities were present: Marlbank, Tamworth, Napanee Mills, Roblin, Croydon, Camden East, Centreville, Forest Mills, Napanee, Moneymore, Enterprise, Lonsdale, Sharp's Corners, Lime Lake, Colebrook, Cloyne, Albert and Tweed.

There was a great mass meeting in the adjoining grove in the afternoon. The attendance was so large that it was not possible for near all the people to get within earshot of the platform. Excellent attention, however, was given by all those who could get conveniently near. Lachlan Magoun, C.D., of Napanee, presided, and the following gentlemen addressed the meeting: J. Reid, M.P.P., of Centreville; R. Gordon, Tweed; R. B. Northrup, the late conservative candidate of East Hastings, Belleville; W. M. White, Thomasburgh; Rev. Mr. Serson, Tamworth; Uriah Wilson, ex-M.P. of Napanee; John W. Brandon, Lime Lake; Rev. H. I. Allen, Enterprise; Richard Fraser, Tamworth.

An excellent choir from Roblin much enlivened the proceedings with appropriate music. All left at an early hour much pleased with the day's gathering. Mr. Northrup made the speech of the day. Though quite a young man he had evidently made good use of his opportunities. He is a smooth and eloquent speaker. There was, in his speech, a happy absence of the strong flavor of partyism, generally so apparent on the Orange platform.

The Day at Battersea.

Probably never before in the history of Orangeism have the adherents of William of Orange, in this place, so caught and shown the spirit of the cause as they did this year. L.O.L., No. 1,001, is composed of as fine a body of men, physically, as could well be picked up in one place, they being chiefly young men just in their prime, fine looking and of noble bearing. Since the last celebration a number of new members have been added to the ranks who scorned the old shabby regalia and moved for new uniforms, badges and tall hats. On Sunday morning they repaired to their lodge room, arrayed themselves in their new and becoming uniforms, and after being put through their facings by drill instructor John Gilbert, marched in double file to church, accompanied by the I.O.F's, who had been invited to join them. The edifice was crowded to overflowing, some not being able to find even standing room. Rev. Mr. Ebersole, by invitation, preached to them from the words: "This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief." I Tim. 1.-XIII.

Monday was celebrated in right royal style at a monster picnic in Ferguson's grove. The Orangemen had worked zealously on Saturday and put the grounds in splendid condition. Arches were also erected over Main street, leading to the grounds, at Isaac Lake's, S. Lake's and S. Ferguson's, while several smaller arches were erected in front of many of the private residences. The O.Y.B. band, of Kingston, arrived early in the day and, after serenading the villagers, marched up the road at the head of the procession to meet the various other lodges. About ten o'clock they returned and proceeded to the picnic ground. The music they rendered throughout the day was excellent and appreciated by the people. Shortly after dinner a large crowd had assembled and the picnic was in full operation. Swinging and other amusements were indulged in for a time, when T. Smith was elected to preside, and immediately called the speakers to the platform. For some time the Orange cause was most eloquently discussed by the following gentlemen: Mr. Jardine, C. S. VanLeuven, Revs. Messrs. Ebersole, Watts, Sproule and Laird.

Mr. Jardine, an old Orangeman, in the first speech of his life, gave some excellent advice to his younger brethren, while the addresses of the clerical brethren were listened to with interest. This part of the programme being through with the platform was cleared and R. Holder's orchestra (of Kingston) took their places, when dancing was commenced and kept up till ten o'clock. All were loud in praising the Orangemen for the good time afforded, and it is hoped they will repeat it next year. J. Lemmon conducted a refreshment stand and did an extensive business. The Kingston boys were quartered at the Balmoral, where the proprietor, S. Lake, entertained them sumptuously.

The Harvest Prospects.

A correspondent who has just made a trip along the line of the Kingston, Napanee and Western railway thus writes of the harvest prospects in that part of Lennox and Addington: On Monday farmers generally began cutting their hay, the timothy now being in bloom. The grass has grown much since the rains of two weeks ago, but the hay is still very light. There is probably not over one half of an average crop, and in some places not that. Near Newburgh a field of fall wheat was being cut on Monday, and it was a good sample. In nearly ever section the wheat fields are now "whitening unto the harvest" and they look well, though a good many fields show bare spots of the winter killing by the heavy sheets of ice last winter. There is not nearly as much barley growing as has been for years past, owing to the prospective effects of the McKinley act on the states market. A good deal of it is short, but it seems to be heading well. It is still green and growing. Peas are looking splendid and promise a very fine crop. In many places where the land is poor rye is growing. It is not fit for harvesting and is a fair crop. The probabilities are of as large a potato crop as the county has had at any time. Other vegetables and roots are also looking well. Berries and other small fruits are abundant, and the apple prospects are very good. On the whole the farmers are feeling much encouraged.
