Three Oakville residents in NLL final

The National Lacrosse League final doesn't begin until this weekend, but it's already guaranteed at least one Oakville resident will earn the right to hoist the Champion's Cup above his head this spring.

The Calgary Roughnecks will take on the Rochester Knighthawks in the 2014 NLL championship series, which begins Saturday in Calgary and concludes with Game 2 May 31 in Rochester. If each team wins a game, a 10-minute tiebreaker will be played immediately following the conclusion of Game 2 to determine the league champion.

Brothers Dan and Paul Dawson are members of the Knighthawks, while Oakville Buzz product Dan MacRae plays for the Roughnecks.

Rochester, seeking an unprecedented third straight NLL crown, advanced to the final by defeating the Buffalo Bandits in the East Division final. Calgary upset the top-seeded Edmonton Rush — which features Oakville native Chris Corbeil — in the West championship series. Both division finals required sudden-death overtime to decide after the teams split the two games.

Dan Dawson ranked fifth in league scoring this season with 19 goals and 72 assists in 18 games. Paul, a defenceman, had two goals and three assists in 18 contests.

MacRae, who also plays on the back end, collected seven goals and eight assists in 16 games.

Corbeil enjoyed a high-scoring season for a defenceman, notching 17 goals and 10 assists in 18 games, as the Rush won its first 14 games before dropping two of its last four regular-season contests, then going 1-2 in the playoffs.

Buzz completes home-and-home sweep of Halton Hills

The Oakville Buzz's second meeting with the Halton Hills Bulldogs in less than a week wasn't nearly as close as the first.

Oakville muzzled the Bulldogs 11-3 Friday at Glen Abbey Recreation Centre, earning its second win over its Ontario Lacrosse Association junior B rivals in six days. The Buzz edged Halton Hills 9-8 in overtime May 10 in Georgetown.

Andrew Kew and Foster Cuomo continue to pace Oakville in scoring, each collecting three goals and two assists in Friday's contest. Jake Nyhuus added a goal and two helpers for the Buzz, which led 4-1 after one period and 8-2 through 40 minutes.

Eddie Renaud, Keyan McQueen, Robert Hudson and Justin Martin all had a goal and an assist, and Josh Falkenstern recorded the win in net.

The Buzz (5-2) will visit the 7-1 Green Gaels tonight (Thursday) in Bowmanville.
