A Wynne for Flynn

Oakville's Kevin Flynn, the province's recent labour minister, saw his own hard work pay off as Oakville voters swept him to office for yet another term at Queen's Park. He was all smiles as he and his wife, Janice, arrived at his campaign headquarters, the Operating Engineers Banquet Hall on Speers Road, after taking an early lead in the polls. While Oakville remained Liberal red, it was part of a Liberal red tide that swept across all of Halton. For story on Oakville and Halton ridings, see p.3.
