SERVING ITS PURPOSE.

The success of the Cheese Board is already assured. The meeting to discuss the matter brought a great many cheese men together, and it also brought the cheese buyers face to face and in open competition. What was the result? That the meeting was placed in possession of the fullest and most reliable information about the markets which this paper could obtain for it, that the cheesemakers were as well posted as the cheese buyers, and that some men who had been offered for their lots 6½c. per lb., and came here with the determination to sell at 6½c. if prices went no higher, obtained 7½c. per lb. and left the city rejoicing. The advantage of the Cheese Board is demonstrated by another circumstance—that the rates paid for the 750 boxes which changed hands at the first meeting, were above those obtained at any market to the east and west of Kingston, and in any of the provinces; in truth they are higher than have since been offered by the agents of British firms in their visits to the factories. The second meeting on Saturday next promises to be attended by an increased number, and at that meeting steps will be taken to put the organization upon a sound and permanent basis. Our telegrams, which have been so complete and which until this season were not available, and our premises are at disposal of the board. The WHIG having helped to make the board what it is, desires to contribute to its complete success.

HALF TOLL USELESS.

The feeling of the merchants and shippers, in regard to the reduction of canal tolls, is not one of gratitude. The government acted reluctantly, and it made concessions which are not liberal and cannot serve any useful purpose. The Witness finds that the difference between the rates from Chicago to New York and from Chicago to Montreal is a cent and a quarter per bushel. The reduction decided upon by the government amounts to a quarter of a cent per bushel, and the forwarding companies have made a reduction equal to a quarter of a cent per bushel. If the Montreal wharfage dues are abolished the saving will amount to another quarter cent per bushel. These reductions amount in all to a total reduction of three-quarters of a cent per bushel. If the difference to be made up is a cent and a quarter then half a cent per bushel remains against the St. Lawrence route as against the New York route, and the prospects are that half a cent will form as effective a barrier to the flowing of trade by the St. Lawrence channel as a cent would. A barrier of half a cent will dam the trade, and one of a cent and a quarter could not do more. The reduction would, therefore, appear to be useless. It cannot revive shipping and at the end of the season Mr. Mial may have occasion to say that the tolls do not hinder trade, and that the government is not justified in throwing away its revenue. The half toll has been tried and found a failure; the remission of all the toll was demanded and nothing short of a free water way can attract traffic, dispelling the dullness which affects our shipping ports and all communities depending for success upon the prosperity of the marine.

AID TO COLLEGES.

At the meeting of the General Assembly, Montreal, a report was read shewing that the total receipts for the year, for college purposes, were. $10,830.78, appropriated as follows: Knox College, Toronto, $5,674.83; Presbyterian College, Montreal, $2,837.42; Queen's College, Kingston, $2,269.93; printing, stationery and postages, $48.60. The amount contributed by the churches had been falling off since 1882 in consequence, it was thought, of the belief that the colleges did not require so much as formerly. The report of the committee on consolidation of colleges and the college funds stated that the consolidation of the colleges was impracticable, and the further discussion of the subject unwise and likely to be of injury to the church. The committee, however, recommending the Assembly to refer the matter to the faculties with a request that they consider whether the efficiency of the colleges might in any wise be improved by an interchange of professional labours, and urged the faculties to continue their efforts to secure foundations for their respective colleges. With regard to the distribution of the fund the committee reported that it should be in direct proportion to the needs of the colleges, and that the Assembly should each year appoint a committee to determine those needs. For next year the needs of the colleges over and above their endowments are estimated at $3,250 for the Montreal College, $4,000 for Queen's College and $7,800 for Knox College. The report occasioned an animated discussion, the principal speaker against it being Mr. Charlton, M.P. He contended that college consolidation had not engaged the serious consideration which the subject suggested, that the people felt there were too many colleges, and that this, and this only, was the meaning of their refusal to contribute as liberally towards them as their requirements demanded. The seconder of Mr. Charlton's motion, remitting the question back to a committee for a whole years' thought, was Rev. Mr. McMullen, who while, favouring college consolidation, endorsed the refusal of Queen's to enter the provincial confederation, because "noting the tendencies of modern science, the church might one day have reason to rejoice that she retained a university under her own control." A great change may come over the spirit of the "Assemblymen" during a year, but it is hardly to be expected. Fewer colleges would, of course, necessitate a lighter tax upon the people, but the success of all the institutions has been such as to discourage the pulling up of any one by the roots unless such a proceeding is absolutely unavoidable.

A STAND IN POLITICS.

NO PROGRESS MADE IN THE FORMATION OF A NEW GOVERNMENT.

Lord Randolph Churchill an Obstructionist—He and the Marquis Cannot Pull—The Delay Damaging to the Tory Prospects—A Bad Lookout.

London, June 15.—The clubs favor the theory advocated by Earl Spencer, that there is an absolute necessity for the continuance of the coercion policy in Ireland. On this point the Tories and a majority of the Liberals will agree, and on it they may combine against Radicals and Parnellites. If they do the Home Rulers will be in such a pitiable minority that their voice will count for nothing in Parliament. Sir Stafford Northcote has already been in consultation with the Irish executive officials concerning the bad state of affairs in Ireland, and it is understood that nearly every one has stated that no English Government could afford to be responsible for the government of Ireland during the coming winter without the continuance of the Crimes Act.

In court circles there is no concealment of rejoicing over the fall of the Liberal government. Mr. Gladstone, officials admit, was never in harmony with the Queen on any subject, and Her Majesty and the Premier generally disagreed in their discussions about England's foreign affairs.

Gladstone's intimation of his determination to retire from public life has for the present utterly disorganized the Liberal arrangements for the electoral struggle. Radical candidates are, however, plentiful. The Birmingham Liberal caucus has adopted in its programme for the campaign the proposals furnished by the recent party conference.

The Duke and Duchess of Connaught and suite have arrived. On hearing of Mr. Gladstone's downfall the entire party gave a loud hurrah. The Duke is reported to have exclaimed: "There will be much champagne drunk over this in India."

London, June 10.—The leaders of the Conservative party, including the members of the last Disraeli Cabinet, Colonel Stanley Harding Giffard excepted, met at noon to-day, at Lord Salisbury's residence. The names of the new Cabinet selected will be submitted to the Queen upon the arrival of Her Majesty at Windsor Castle.

Lord Randolph Churchill was invited to attend the meeting but failed. It is reported that Baron Worms has been chosen for Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs.

Churchill arrived just before the meeting dissolved, and Salisbury explained the results of his interview with the Queen and hoped he would have the assistance of his colleagues to form a Cabinet. The almost unanimous opinion expressed was in favour of the acceptance of office by the Conservatives.

The lobbies of the House of Commons presented a very animated appearance this afternoon. It is understood that Churchill and Salisbury differ in regard to the necessity for the re-enactment of coercion measures for Ireland.

EARL SALISBURY'S DIFFICULTIES.

London, June 2.—The real difficulty with which Lord Salisbury has had to contend in the formation of a cabinet, and which explains his apparent reluctance to assume the responsibility and his seemingly slow progress since he consented to the undertaking, is the unwillingness, if not downright refusal, of the Tory peers to place themselves in the position of forming a stop-gap government until the general elections. Not even the strength of their convictions, it appears, can induce them to step from the high pedestal of their dignity, to pocket their pride and obey the behests of their patriotism. To do this would be more of a concession to the "low Radicals" than they are willing to make.

AN INCIDENT OF INTEREST.

The British navy to-day received an import addition in the shape of the twin screw armour belted ram Benbow, which was launched to-day from the shipyard of the Thames Iron Works and Ship Building Company. The ceremony of christening was performed by Mrs. Gladstone. She is by far the most powerful iron clad afloat. Over 10,000 tons of metal have been used in her construction. She is built entirely of steel, is 338 feet long, 68 feet 6 inches beam, 37 feet deep, and has a displacement of 10,000 tons. The engines, 9,500 horse power, will, it is estimated, give her a speed of 17½ knots per hour.

LATE PRESS OPINIONS.

The Times say that until the Marquis of Salisbury has settled the rivalry in his own party it will be useless to try to obtain pledges from the Liberals that they will not obstruct. It is doubtful whether such pledges will be given. The result of the crisis may still be the return of the Liberals to office.

The News (Liberal) referring to yesterday's incident in the House of Commons, exults over the fresh proof of strife in the Conservative camp. The statement in the court circular does not imply that Lord Salisbury has been actually appointed Premier.

CHURCHILL AND SALISBURY TALK.

London, June 16.—Lord Churchill had a long conference to-day with Lord Salisbury. There is a great deal of speculation as to the result of this conference, but it is not known that they have arranged their differences in regard to legislation for Ireland, which is said to be their principal point of disagreement.

ORGANIZING FOR DISPLAY.

Dublin, June 16.—The Parnellites are organizing for the purpose of holding a monstrous demonstration to show their pleasure at the departure of Lord Lieutenant Speacer from Ireland on Saturday next.

POSTSCRIPT.

Salisbury will confer with the Queen again to-morrow. In the meantime nothing will be done regarding the Foreign, Colonel or Indian affairs without the Marquis having been first consulted.

The Queen left Balmoral castle at 2 o'clock this afternoon for Windsor, accompanied by Princess Beatrice.

The fear is expressed that the delay to form a Cabinet will damage the prospects of the Tory party in the general elections.

A CHALLENGE TO HANLAN.

Toronto, June 16.—Hanlan yesterday received a despatch from Teemer to meet him in Buffalo to-morrow night, at the Mansion House, to arrange the terms of a race between them. It is doubtful if Hanlan will be able to go there, but the meeting will take place this week. He is getting a new boat built for him by Warren Bros.

SCOTT ACT AMENDMENTS.

Ottawa, June 15.—In the House of Commons to-day, in reply to the enquiry of Mr. Jamieson, Sir John Macdonaly proposed that Thursday next be named for the consideration of the Senate amendments to the Scott Act Amendment Bill. The proposal was agreed to.

FINANCES OF FRANCE.

A Tremendous Floating Debt—A Suggestion in the Way of Liquidating it.

Paris, June 15.—At a meeting of the budget committee to-day Sadi Carnot, Minister of Finance, stated that the floating debt of France was 1,400,000,000 francs and that next year the deficit in the revenue is likely to be 300,000,000 francs. It might ultimately be necessary, and he advocated it as a temporary expedient, to vote a gradual issue of 320,000,000 francs in twenty-two ear treasury bonds.

Paris, June 16.—The Budget Committee adopted Sadi Carnot's proposal to issue treasury notes to the extent of 320,0000,000 francs to mature in 30 years.

EL MAHDI AND HIS PRISONERS.

There is no Freedom for the Captives—A Threat not to be Despised.

Dongola, June 15.—The Mahdi has written a letter, declining to release the Christian prisoners who have embraced the Islam faith. He says they are unwilling to leave him. The Mahdi exhorts Englishmen to turn Mohammedans or otherwise he will destroy them. A letter has reached Dongola, signed by 96 of the Mahdi's prisoners, including a Greek captain and Syrians, stating they are unwilling to leave the Mahdi and are not Christians. Lumpton Bey and Slatin Bey are among the signers.

EVENTS IN EUROPE.

MR. GLADSTONE STILL REMAINS THE IDOL OF THE PEOPLE.

Thousands Cheer Him as he Enters and Leaves Parliament—Scene in the House—The Cholera Scare Becomes More Apparent.

London, June 15.—There was a spasmodic renewal of political excitement this afternoon, caused by the reassembling of the House of Commons. The scenes last Friday were repeated, the Westminster district being again thronged with people waiting to catch glimpses of the prominent members. Strangely enough the defeated premier, whom the "wild mob's million feet" kicked out of office just a week ago on a question of ninepence a barrel on beer, is still and more than ever the idol of the mob. When he emerged from the House, looking pale and careworn, he was greeted with shouts of applause. A crowd of several hundred people ran after his carrage and cheered at intervals. Mr. Gladstone settled back in the cushions and stared straight ahead, but there was a complacent look in his face, which seemed to show that the applause of the common people in his hour of supposed defeat was music to his soul. Sir Stafford Northcote, who, as the coming Chancellor of the Exchequer, will have more to say about the beer tax than any other man in England, came out a few minutes later and drove off unnoticed.

THE RIFT IN THE LUTE.

An incident in the House of Commons this afternoon shows the want of harmony between some sections of the party. When Mr. Gladstone moved that the House take into consideration the amendments made to the redistribution bill by the Lords Sir Henry Drummond Wolff, the Conservative member for Portsmouth, moved the adjournment of the House. Sir C. Dilke said the Marquis of Salisbury had expressed a desire that the amendments should be considered, a desire which, under the existing circumstances, almost amounted to an agreement. Sir Stafford Northcote, the Conservative leader, at once corroborated the statement of Sir Charles Dilke; but Sir Henry Wolff pressed his motion, and was supported by Lord Randolph Churchill. The result was a division, when the amendment was rejected by 333 to 35. It is significant that Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, whose name has been mentioned as the coming leader in the place of Sir Stafford Northcote, and Mr. Sclater Booth, the Conservative member for North Hampshire, voted with the minority.

CHOLERA IN SPAIN.

Its Rapid Spread—Larger Number of Deaths—People Panic Stricken.

Madrid, June 16.—There were five new cases of cholera here yesterday, and one death. In the city of Valencia there were two fresh cases. In the province of Valencia there were forty-eight new cases and 27 deaths. The city of Murcia reports forty new cases and seven deaths, while in the other parts of the province there were twelve fresh cases and four deaths.

In the province of Castellon de la Plana yesterday there were 80 cases of cholera and 60 deaths; 30,000 people have fled from Murcia. In the city of Murcia alone yesterday, there were, according to latest returns, 64 fresh cases of cholera and 39 deaths.

In the province of Murcia, outside of the city, there were fifty cases and sixteen deaths. The Official Gazette confirms the statement that the cholera is raging in the provinces of Valencia, Castleton, DeLaplatn and Murcia and in the city of Madrid.

SULLIVAN AND BURKE.

The Little Irish Laddie is no Match for the Great Boston Bruiser—Sullivan Mad.

Fully 10,000 persons were attracted to the Chicago Driving Park, Saturday, to witness the glove encounter between John L. Sullivan and Jack Burke, the Irish lad. Sullivan weighed 237 and Burke about 162 pounds. The first round was opened with cautious sparring and several unsuccessful attempts by Burke to count with his left. Sullivan made a few fierce lunges, but fell short or to high. Burke tapped the champion's nose and brought a little blood. Burke fell twice to avoid punishment, and his effort to force the fighting proved futile, though he did locate one clean hit on the left side of the neck. In the second round Burke scored three clean hits, and his admirers were loud with applause. The third round gave Burke two clean hits, and he rubbed off the court plaster from the boils, whereat the boss bruiser puckered his lips in true bruiser fashion, and started to kill the Irish lad. He fought wild though, and time was called just as he was making ready to devour Burke as it were. In the fourth round Burke evinced a willingness to keep a modest distance from the slugger, but he dropped on his hands and knees several times to avoid a strike. Once Sullivan, after a clinch, pushed him away and threw him clean across the ring. Burke was weak and Sullivan in need of wind when the round closed. In the fifth and last bout Sullivan started in to knock his man out, but Burke was too quick for him. Burke was fighting for wind and Sullivan was fighting the wind when time was called. After some wrangling the referee decided in favor of Sullivan, and the spectators approved of the verdict by applauding the giant as he jumped off the platform and ran down the track to his dressing room. Burke is no match for Sullivan, as he is too light and can not hit hard enough, while Sullivan might fight fifty rounds with the cleverest sparrer of them all and not knock him out.

EVIDENCE AGAINST RIEL.

He is an Old Inspirer of Murder—Poundmaker's Tell Tale Srory.

Battleford, midnight, June 15.—In the investigation which has been going on here with reference to the murder of Bernard Fremont, the Swiss farmer killed early in the outbreak, two Indians have sworn that they were acting under Riel's instructions when the murder occurred.

On Saturday Poundmaker acknowledged the receipt of four letters from Riel, one of which he said he had left in his tent near his reserve. A party of police, taking with them Poundmaker's brother-in-law, the renegade white Jefferson were sent at once to look for it. They returned to-day, having found the letter were Poundmaker said he had left it. It is dated from Fish Creek, the day after Gen. Middleton's fight there, and states that Riel had killed 300 police. It then orders Poundmaker, if Battleford has not already been captured, to capture it at once, and kill all the white people.

Holloway's Pills

Teachings of Experience.—The united testimony of thousands, extending over more than forty years, most strongly recommends these Pills as the best purifiers, the mildest aperients, and the surest restoratives. They never prove delusive, or give merely temporary relief, but attack all ailments of the stomach, lungs, heart, head and bowels in the only safe and legitimate way, by depurating the blood, and so eradicating those impurities which are the source and constituent of almost every disease. Their medicinal efficacy is wonderful in renovating enfeebled constitutions. Their action embraces all that is desirable in a household medicine. They expel every noxious and effete matter; and thus the strength is nurtured and the energies stimulated.

Stock Market.

New York, June 16.—The exchange place party and the Soulter following express the opinion that the leaders of the different pools will favor a reaction before putting the list much higher. They intimate that N.W. has about reached the top price, since the stock is selling dividend off at as high a figure as on the day of the closing of the company's books, from 89½ to 93½. The Osborn-Chapin people were the principal buyers, although it is understood Messrs. Gould, Morgan & White were interested in the advance to the extent of 50,000 shares. The bulls still maintain their ability to hold the market, and claim that with the exception of a lot of short stock, pressed for sale by the room traders, there is nothing in the bear raids to warrant the belief that lower prices will prevail. Messrs. Oppenheim & Co., say that while their house had been very bearish during the past two years they recognize the fact that with money, at 1 p.c. per annum and the prospects of business generally improving towards the fall, there exists a more bullish feeling and outsiders are again picking up stocks which are being taken from the street.

Boston, June 16.—The earnings of the Atcheson, Topeka & Sante Fe RR. Co. shows an approximate gross decrease for May of $150,000. Thus far in June they are as bad as in May. The advance in St. Paul was started with London buying on account of higher prices abroad, but the story was circulated in the board towards the close of the day that Mr. Armour had formed a pool in Chicago for the purchase of 30,000 shares of the stock, and this report tended to put up the prices from 67½ to 68¼. At the close of business, however, it was ascertained that no new combination had been formed in the west, but that a prominent bear had covered up his shorts and was waiting for a higher market on which to put out new lines.

Cheese Market.

Liverpool, June 16, (3 30 p.m.)—Cheese in poor demand; prices ranging at same as our last quotation.

At Ingersoll six factories registered 1,184 boxes. Buyers without orders and market dull. The entire holdings of May, from 10,000 to 12,000 boxes, have been sold at prices varying from 6c to 6¾c. June cheese not ready for shipment. The make for the season is large, and the general quality reported good.

The Woodstock Review says the relations between the cheese buyers and the corporation of Ingersoll are decidedly strained. Indeed there is a very big row in progress. The cause is the action of the buyers in resolving to hold a market there, as in other places, bi-weekly only. Mayor Noxon came out with a letter in which he discussed the history and prospects of the Ingersoll market. He announced the intention of the town council to keep up the market every week. It was accordingly held on Thursday, but only about 1,000 boxes offered. One or two buyers were present, but no sales effected.

At the board of trade meeting in Ogdensburg on Saturday 3000 boxes of cheese were offered for sale and all were disposed of. The prices paid were 7½, 7 9-16 and 7⅞, 7½ being the ruling price. Mr. Millar, of Ogdensburg, bought 1,500 boxes, Mr. Ryan, of the same place, 1,000 boxes, and Mr. A. Davis of Brockville, 500 boxes.

Grain Market.

Liverpool, June 16.—Wheat quiet, demand poor, holders offering freely, cargoes off coast, wheat and corn, demand poor, corn, quiet but steady with poor demand, weather cloudy, with light rain.

London, June 16. Arrived wheat dull, corn, nothing offering, to arrive wheat neglected, no business doing, corn, quiet but steady.

New York, June 16.—The visible shows an increase of 565,645 bush. wheat, a decrease of 933,400 bush. corn, and an increase of 337,179 bush. oats. Chicago shows a decrease of 393,362 bush. wheat, a decrease of 367,403 bush. corn, and an increase of 214,151 bush. oats. As New York shows an increase and Chicago a decrease in wheat the difference between the two estimates is 959,000 bush.
