COUNTY CONVENTION.

On Saturday afternoon the Reformers of Frontenac will meet in convention in this city to select a candidate for the Local Legislature. There are good men to choose from men who would represent the county faithfully and creditably, and a popular nomination will in any case be the result of a good meeting. The County is generally classed among the impregnable fortresses of Conservatism, but at length the wall of prejudice is breaking down little by little. There has been of late years no stirring campaign for the Reform to be clearly laid before the people, and therefore, a determined effort will have to be made to bring the county to the position the city at last holds, of making an independent choice, unhampered by the prejudices which cause a constituency to vote one way because it has been accustomed to that way of doing. The leading Reformers of the county have made a mark in the County and township Councils and in the Warden's chair, especially doing signal service in straightening the finances and regulating court house and gaol affairs. Men who can acquit themselves so faithfully at home are very apt to benefit the county in the Legislature and should be remembered on the day of polling.

METHODIST UNION.

The opposition to the union of the Methodist bodies is far principally coming from the Canada Methodists. A strong objection in point upon the subject is that in regard to age and experience the ministers of the larger communion will suffer. The Primitive Methodists would also have to sacrifice a great deal by union. Their ministerial and lay officers are two in number, the chief one being of a connexional character. It is an English institution, and be it the Conference ministry make contributions and from it derive benefits. By re-union relations with the mother church cease. Canada must lose all they have remitted and are entitled to no refunds. We asked Rev. Mr. Harris the other day how he would be affected personally by a consummation of the scheme to the drafting of which he had been a party. He said he would have to abandon all claim to the amount he had paid to the Benevolent Fund. Primitive Methodist ministers on superannuation, have been awarded at the rate of $4 per annum during the period they travelled. He has served the Church for 28 years, and if he retires now would be in a position to draw $126 per annum during the balance of his life time. By union he is deprived of this help, and in order to place himself upon a footing with the clergy of the Canada Methodist Church must undergo what is termed the levelling up process and remit to the new fund perhaps $400 or $450. He has personal reasons for objecting to union, but he does not advance them; on the contrary he will do what he can to make Methodism prosperous in the unity of one body. We mention this fact in order that the public may see that the sacrifices are not confined to any one body.

POVERTY IN THE CITY.

Those who live in well heated homes and have of food and clothing a plenty, can scarcely realize the poverty that exists in the city. A circumstance has lately come to our knowledge which demonstrates the value of our benevolent associations. About a month ago a widow and her son (aged 13) arrived. They had resided in the North of Ireland and were enabled to live there happily, if not prosperously. They were induced to come to Canada by friends in the hope that they could succeed here better than at home. In Kingston, then, the new comers settled. The change was disheartening. Of her, however, nothing was heard until a night or two since, when a member of the St. Vincent de Paul Society was called upon and informed that she and her boy were in a very destitute state. Her house was visited and a scene of great misery presented. It was in a garret, the occupants of which were without fire, provisions or clothing; they were cold and hungry, indeed on the verge of starvation. There was need of instant relief and it came in the shape of food and wood and wraps. Thus they became so reduced in circumstances in due to the fact that they would not beg for aid, fearing to be mistaken for professional beats and paupers. Now that the St. Vincent de Paul Society has learned of their needs they will be cared for during the balance of the winter. We have said enough to show the necessity for the existence of such benevolent organizations as are operating among our citizens. There is more poverty in Kingston than the people are aware of, but it cannot be properly relieved except through the instrumentality of societies whose members work carefully, systematically and regularly.

THE LIBERAL MEETING.

To-morrow evening the Liberals of the city meet to select a candidate to run in their interest and be the representative of the city in the Local Legislature. No convention has been called under more auspicious circumstances. The election approaches with a certainty that the Mowat Government will be sustained. Of this fact there has long been no doubt, and most assuredly the thought of a possible defeat has been removed by the proceedings of the recent great gathering at Toronto. Kingston, too, is Liberal. In no place in this Province have Reform principles been more firmly established, and there can be no difficulty in returning a friend of the Administration provided the party are united and enthusiastic in his support at the polls. Several gentlemen have been named as worthy of the people's confidence and as capable of carrying the Reform banner to success, but none is so ambitious as to make a choice contest necessary. The one who receives the nomination will receive also the cordial aid of the others, and every legitimate effort will be put forth to make his calling and election sure. This observation is necessary to quell the rumour that there are but many Liberal aspirants for parliamentary honours, and that there is a probability of disunion in consequence. There is no prospect of the Tories being unanimous in this respect.

The government of this Province has been honest and economical in the administration of affairs; it is fighting the battles of the Province, defending the people's rights and demanding that which in simple justice from the Dominion; its policy has commanded the public approval in the past, and at this moment the Opposition can find little fault with it. The Liberals should win, and they are bound to do so. The Tories are weak now, and they will be weaker after the next election. The doctors of the party had better get their splints and poultices ready.

PARADISE AND HEAVEN.

To the Editor, British Whig.

DEAR SIR,—Dr Wilson has given in his views at length, upon Paradise and Heaven, but still there are some points upon which he would do well to venture an explanation. What does Paul mean when he says "I am in a strait between two, having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better." Did Paul believe he was going to Heaven when he died? He wished to be with Christ, yet Paul, in one of those who according to Dr. Wilson's opinion, are yet there in Paradise. The Chaplain of the Archbishop of York, speaking on the passage I have quoted, has said that Paul welcomed death, knowing that he was going to be with the Saviour. Evidently the eminent divines of the Church of England differ in opinion. Our points seem to be that Paul went to heaven, the other holds that he went to Paradise. Again Dr. Wilson says only two persons outside Christ and Lord ascended to heaven, and these two were Elijah and Enoch. Here is a text, that Moses appeared with Elijah on the Mount of Transfiguration. Elijah did not seem to be surprised at being arrayed than Moses. Can it be that the two states, the intermediate and the final, come very near each other, that they are separated by a very thin veil. Elijah would manifestly be heaven and Moses, according to Dr. Wilson was paradise, still both are seen on the Mount. How is this? Even scripture seems puzzling at times.—Yours, &c.,

A CHURCHMAN.

Jan. 10th, 1883.

HE CAN'T ATTEND.

To the Editor, British Whig.

DEAR SIR,—I perceive by the announcement of a well-known sale, published on Mr. Gaskin's organ last evening, that "the gentleman whom the Whig selected to act likely to attend the next convention cannot attend as his business will not allow him." The disappointment is to be regretted. I understood that the chairman, sink at the foot of Queen Street, had been unanimously chosen, but it seems I have been mistaken. Yours, ANOTHER CITIZEN.

ATTEMPTED DESERTION.

Two members of the Battery, Cavanagh and Armstrong, gunner of course, attempted to desert this morning. They broke out of barracks, and were gone some little time before their absence was detected. They were found in a shed in rear of a house on Johnson Street, and when the building was surrounded by a posse of military men they crawled out of a little cock loft and upon the roof of the building. This was the situation when the police were asked to take a hand in the skirmish. It was thought that they could employ some diplomacy unknown to the soldiers. Detective Smith, Police Officers Thompson and Nesbitt rushed to the rescue. They meant business, the deserters saw this, and they were soon on the way to the barracks. The runaways were inclined to resist and gave the police a heap of trouble. They will not get a chance to again break home for some time.

HANDERING IN FINANCES.

The press again gives its opinion upon the state of the city finances of 1882. Considering that it has so blundered upon this point in the past and helped the Mayor to a display of dense and unexampled ignorance for a man in his position, the assurance of His Worship's personal organ is, in the same, to be admired. One thing certain those who had charge of the finances of that year can challenge any other Finance Committee of the past in Kingston to show as good a record of old matters cleared up or of new ones dealt with promptly. There, also, never was so small an amount of unpaid accounts or liabilities as at the end of that year.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL.—There are at present attending the Normal School some sixty three students, and applications for admission to the number of 130 have been received for next term. On the retirement of Mr. Mckellip, who acted temporarily teacher of the First Division, boys, Mr. Macaulay, second assistant of the Model School, has been appointed to the position.

E. O. Tollet and Wilfred Brown writes to the Globe that they were the only young Frenchmen who left the train on the occasion of the Pullman car robbery, and taking five statement relieving them from suspicion. The Globe complies with their request.

TRILL COLLEGE.

A Short Term—The Students not Unanimous in their Demands—Lectures as Usual.

MONTREAL, Jan. 9.—In connection with the Trinity College difficulty, the statement that the primary class was prepared to leave the College if their grievances were not remedied, is authoritatively denied. During the holidays the Faculty met, and in reply to the students petition stated that, in present occupant of the chair of natural medicine should continue to lect re with certain modifications of his course, and that an assistant examiner would be appointed to conduct the Spring examinations. At a meeting of the primary class to-day much indignation was expressed by the students at the manner in which the Faculty had dealt with the question. After a thorough ventilation of the feelings of the meeting, the following motion was put—"That a majority of two thirds of the meeting shall compel the whole class to adopt lectures until a proper redress of grievances be afforded." The motion was lost by one vote, and the classes will attend lectures as usual, though it is not their intention to allow the matter to become a thing of the past. After the above resolution was carried it was moved and carried, "That the Faculty be asked to dispense with the required Associate Examiner and constitute Prof. Wright sole Examiner."

The committee of Montreal citizens recently engaged in enquiring into the charge of young emigrant girls being imported on their arrival here. All the evidence so far goes to negative the statement.

The Imperial Government's Commissioner to make arrangements for Irish immigration to Canada, has left Ottawa for home furnished with all the information available regarding the North-West. The Dominion Government have not, however, made any special arrangements in the matter.

AN IMPROBABLE STATEMENT.

New York, Jan. 10.—There is strong evidence that the portion of O'Donnell's narrative about the murder of Cavendish, Burke when relates to his arrival and movements here are untrue. The steamship Californian was not plying between Europe and this country, May, 1882. It is asserted that no man answering his description was at the house where he pretends to have stayed in May.

Gallagher, President of the Board of Central Parnell League, says there is no truth in the alleged confession of O Donnell, one of the Phœnix Brotherhood. He is in a position to know whereof he speaks. He said the crime was not committed by any member of that organization.

Dr. Burke, brother of the murdered man, says no reliance is to be placed on the statement of O Donnell.

Beware of Imitations.

Since Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has become celebrated, a number of unprincipled persons have been endeavoring to palm off Electric and Eclectric Oil for the genuine Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Beware of these similar sounding articles. If their originators had any faith in the healing properties of their own medicines they would, like honest men, give them a name of their own, and not try to sell them on the reputation of another, but as they know their preparations have to match they resort to the most unprincipled means of selling them, by getting a name as near as possible to Eclectric. We therefore ask the public when purchasing, to see that the name Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is on the front of the wrapper, and the signature of Northrop & Lyman, the proprietors for Canada, on the back.

Dear R. Doyle, M. D., of Logan Co., Ohio, says: "Allen's Lung Balsam works with rapidity, but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having an interest in it, and knowing that it possesses valuable medical properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unexceptible success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

AWFUL CALAMITY!

A MILWAUKEE HOTEL BURNED—GUESTS EFFORTS TO ESCAPE—A LARGE NUMBER PERISH.

A Sketch of the Scene—Names of the Lost and Wounded—Sensation of the Day.

Milwaukee, Jan. 10.—About 3 o'clock this morning a fire occurred in the Newhall House, which spread with such rapidity that but few inmates escaped. It is reported that nearly 100 lives were lost, 50 bodies, mostly women, already having been found. The majority of the killed jumped from the upper windows, the fire having cut off all means of escape. The fire is still raging but under control.

LATER PARTICULARS.

Milwaukee, Jan. 10.—Newhall House, a six story building, took fire at 4 a.m. In less than half an hour the whole building, long designated as a death trap, was enveloped in flames. Scenes of the utmost terror prevailed. The inmates jumped by the dozens from the upper stories, covering the stone sidewalk with bloody bodies. The shrieks of the unfortunates filled the air in a heartrending manner. The people below were unable to reach the unfortunate guests and the employees appeared at the windows and sprang the distance to the ground fell back to perish in the fire.

The employees in the house, which accommodated 300 guests, numbering 96, mostly lodged in the sixth story. The exit by way of the roof was put off by the fire, and two stand of pipes, with fire ladders, was not available for the same reason. Very few were saved by jumping on the canvass.

WHO ARE BURNED OUT.

The stores and offices on the ground were destroyed. They were the offices of the Mutual Union Telegraph Company, H. J. Baumgartner, sign painting shop, and Goetz barber shop, Barnack & Armitage, job printers, Manufacturers Metropolitan Plate Glass Insurance Company, the insurance agencies of Cline Crance & Hewitt, Hubbard & Co., Montague & Co., B. Weil, West Rivers & L. Wheeler, the office of J. Watson, agent of the Canada Southern R.R. offices, Nelson's coal yard and the office of the Mechanics Dispatch Line. A number of wholesale and other establishments on West street were damaged by fire and the falling walls of the building. Among those are W. Carter, bank, Goodrich Rubber Co., Louis Schlieding & Co., wholesale wine, Jas. Morgan, dry goods, Zimmerman Bros., clothing, Wm. Cannon. The Cashier of the Merchants Bank carried the bank book containing money and papers amounting to $8,000 out of the flames. The insurance agencies and general offices on the first floor scarcely saved any papers.

LOSS BY THE DISASTER.

The insurance on the hotel was $125,000, the loss will reach $250,000. Telegraphic communication will be interrupted for some time, over twenty wires being down. Comparatively few of the guests on the hotel register are burned. The exact loss of life is not determinable. It will reach 50 to 70, and 20 to 30 wounded. So far 28 bodies are in the morgue; 9 more are in pieces near the ruins. Identification is slow. Among those found are known to be C. W. Briggs, Grand Rapids, Mich.; N. Miller, Ripon; George Young, J. A. Manning, W. D. Lewis, Chicago; R. N. Baker, New York; J. V. Mahoney, Rockland; W. J. Hill, Syracuse, N.Y.; A. S. Hently, New Haven, Conn.; A. J. Case, P. NEWS FROM CHICAGO.

Chicago, Jan. 10.—During the fire in Milwaukee the severe cold hampered the firemen and caused them great suffering. Three steamers went from Chicago in response to a call from the Mayor. The train ran to Milwaukee, 90 miles, in a little over an hour. It is reported that the Minnie Palmer Troupe, which were at the Newhall House, are lost, but this is not confirmed.

When arrested near Webb Station Polk was at first disposed to fight. He afterwards offered Marshal Shoel $80,000 to release him. He has very little money with him. It is reported that his nephew and servant have crossed into Mexico with a large amount. Polk appears to be much distressed over the situation. He was accompanied by Detective Cameron, whom he tried to pitch him out of the country. They left the train Sunday night at Webb Station and Cameron walked 20 miles after a horse. Polk lying out in a bush. When captured Polk's hands and clothing were filled with prickly pear thorns, which he got from wandering in the thicket. Cameron was also arrested and held. He protested and said he made a good thing out of the business and could put Officer Sheely in the way to realize a few thousand. Sheely denounced him for insulting the proposition with use these confessions against Cameron.
