AYER'S HAIR VIGOR.

—FOR—

Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Color

Ayer's Hair Vigor has long and extensively been known that it stops the falling of the hair immediately, and in most cases promotes the growth, and always restores the color when faded or gray. It strengthens the sensitive organs to healthy activity and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus treating, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened. Not only is it known with perfect certainty that falling hair is checked and established, thin hair thickened and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. The operation is sure and harmless. It does dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and healthy—states which conduce to the growth of the hair, and may be reasonably expected to follow the use of a preparation which has stood the test of years, during which it has been in constant demand, and has given universal satisfaction.

MILWAUKEE'S FIRE.

Origin of the Terrible Catastrophe—Water Girls' Fate—The Bruised, Bleeding Dead.

William McKenzie, the night watchman of the hotel, states that he made his round the night of the fire, as usual. The bar room was open until 2 a.m., and George Scheller, the proprietor, was there three-quarters of an hour after. About half past 3 he saw the watchman take a seat to the top floor by the elevator. The watchman looked around the halls, got into the elevator to go down, when he noticed a little smoke. He immediately started down to see where it came from, but by the time he reached the office door he could get no further. Throwing open the door he started for the stairs, shouting to the clerk, "The house is on fire!" The smoke was stifling. He called to the engineer in the engine room to arouse the servants, and then rushed back to awaken the people for all he knew there was no chance to stop the fire alone. By the time he reached the first floor above the office and rapped at Cramer's door the heat had cracked the glass doors to the elevator, and in a moment the flames poured out. In the meantime, he rushed into the bank building, and roused as many lodgers in that portion as he could, and afterwards rendered what help he could to save the people. He is positive that the fire caught at the bottom of the elevator. There was nothing anywhere around the elevator that could burn so quickly. It might have caught in some of the shops in the basement that back up to the bottom of the elevator; but on the bottom floor of the hotel part there was nothing that could possibly burn that way, or have been smouldering through out the night.

THE WITHIN GIRL TRAGEDY.

The frantic fear with which nearly a dozen water girls flung themselves from the fifth story was the most dramatic feature of the disaster. There was one to escape, but they were too terrified to think of it. Clothed only in scanty night dresses they appeared at the windows. One leaped, but whirling over and over fell a mass of mangled flesh upon the stones. Others followed, all are killed and shockingly mutilated. Some swung themselves out of the windows only to drop instantly to the street, where they were shockingly lacerated and crushed. At one time nine of these bleeding corpses, some blackened and shrivelled by the flames, and all devoid of clothing, lay upon one another in various sickening shapes. Six persons hanging from sills on the fifth story on the Main street front lost their grip, and were whirled downward one by one.

Tom Thumb and his wife were rescued by an officer, who took one under each arm. They were in their night clothes, and Mrs. Thumb suffered much from cold. The General began mourning the loss of valuable diamonds and other jewellery, when his wife reproved him, and then began relieving the sufferers.

The cool-headed hero of the night appeared on the top of a building opposite two servants' quarters with a ladder in his hand. For a moment the long unwieldy thing poised in mid-air and then descended with a crash through a window of the hotel. It formed a bridge across the alley, however, and before it became steady in its position the man had crossed over into the hotel. Then, amid the cheers of the multitude below, the man dragged the helpless creatures across the slender bridge until fully a dozen were rescued. They were all of them in their night clothes, and many were badly frozen before they could be taken to shelter.

GOD BLESS HIM.

A woman in a dead faint, unable to help herself in any particular, was dragged across in safety. But at one time the whole of her body was hanging over near of the ladder, while the brave man held her by one of her ankles. The crowd below held their breath in suspense, expecting every moment to see the ladder turn over or break beneath the terrible strain. The man, however, was equal to the emergency, and by a herculean effort pulled her up on the slender bridge and finally placed her out of danger, while the crowd, which had endured the most painful suspense for fully ten minutes, burst forth with round after round of cheers.

H. A. McLaughlin, Norland, writes: "I am sold out of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspepsia Cure. It sells well and I find in every instance it has proven satisfactory. I have reason to believe it the best preparation of the kind in the market." It cures dyspepsia, biliousness and torpidity of the liver, constipation and all diseases arising from impure blood, female complaints, etc.

Consumption is a disease contracted by a neglected cold; we therefore advise that we should at once get the best cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis and all diseases of the throat and lungs. One of the most popular medicines for these complaints is Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. Mr. J. F. Smith, druggist, Dunnville, writes: "It gives general satisfaction and sells splendidly."

It made me feel like a "Band of Music," was the rather forcible expression of an individual who was praising "Pulmonic," the great remedy for Coughs and Colds, Hoarseness, Asthma, Bronchitis. The GREAT GERMAN INVIGORATOR is the only specific for impotency, nervous debility, universal lassitude, forgetfulness, pain in the back or side, no matter how shattered the system may be from excesses of any kind, the Great German Remedy will restore the lost functions and secure health and happiness. $1 per box, six boxes for $5. Do Not be Deceived

In these times of quack medicine advertisements every where, it is truly gratifying to find one remedy that is worthy of praise, and which really does as recommended. Eclectric Bitters we can vouch for as being a true and reliable remedy, and one that will do as recommended. They invariably cure stomach and liver complaints, diseases of the kidneys and urinary difficulties. We know whereof we speak, and can readily say, give them a trial. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by J. Geo. King.

AT "CHANCE OF LIFE," we observe constantly a failure of substantial vigor, owing to the large demands made on the vital forces incident to rearing children. Prolonged nursing, constant watchfulness, brain worry and work exhaust the nervous system and arrest the work of repair. At this critical period a large number of cases have experienced the remarkable restorative power of Wheeler's Elixir of Phosphates and Calisaya, which energizes the nervous system and promotes the functions of nutrition.

Mr. John Maywood, Victoria Road, writes: "Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure is a splendid medicine. My customers say they never used anything so effectual. Good results immediately follow its use. I know its value from personal experience, having been troubled for 8 or 10 years with Dyspepsia, and since using it dyspepsia goes on without that depressed feeling so well known to dyspeptics. I have no hesitation in recommending it in any case of indigestion, constipation, heartburn, or troubles arising from a disordered stomach."

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50 cts., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a million bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side, or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. J. G. King, wholesale and retail agent.

Worse Than War.

"The throat has destroyed more lives than the sword," by imprudence in eating and intemperance in drinking; but when the health becomes impaired the miserable dyspeptic may find prompt relief in Burdock Blood Bitters. It regulates the bowels, acts upon the liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, and stimulates the secretions to a healthy action.

As AN CHEIPS OF ARTE, the various functions of the body grow weaker in their performance. Old people who suffer from increasing indigestion, torpidity of the liver, and constipation, should give renewed impetus to the action of the stomach, bile-secreting organ and bowels, with Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, from which aid it never sought in vain. It works wonders as a blood purifier.

A Cure For Headache.

What physician has ever discovered a cure for headache? Echo answers none. But Burdock Blood Bitters by their purifying, invigorating nervine properties afford a cure in nearly every case. The health giving principles are unequalled by any similar preparation in the world.

SIMPLY MENTION it all I can say of the effect of Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure in my case. An elderly lady writes this from Antigonish, N. S., who had suffered from pains in the back for twenty years.

Dizziness of mind and body, and all diseases due to debilitated or impaired nutrition, and all nervous troubles, are cured by the early use of Puttner's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, etc.

CORNELIUS VANLUVEN.

Death of the Father of the County Treasurer—Interesting Sketch of His Life.

Cornelius Vanluven quietly passed away after a short illness on Dec. 27th, 1882, at the family homestead, Marysville. He was born in the year 1803, and his age at death was 81 years and a few months. He was one of a long-lived family. One brother died on Thanksgiving Day, aged 86 years; another brother lives at Batterson, aged 87 years; there are also two aged sisters living. The family came from near Albany, N.Y. His grandfather was one of the first settlers near Bath in the Township of Ernestown, long before the Revolutionary war. Cornelius when a young man, was in the employ of John G. Cartwright, by whom he was much respected and trusted. Mr. Cartwright was desirous that young Van Luven should take charge of his outside business, which was very large, but he was more inclined to be independent, and at the age of 28 years he purchased from J. S. Cartwright the farm and homestead where he had resided for over 54 years. In 1837 he married Sarah Amey, a descendant of an U. E. Loyalist family that came from Little Falls, N.Y., at the time of the Revolutionary war. Her grandfather and a neighbor went one day to the woods to chop, but not returning search was made and their bodies were found mutilated and scalped by Indians. The family then sought refuge in Canada under the British flag. Mrs. Van Luven is 75 years of age. They had a family of ten children—one dead and nine living, seven of whom were boys and two girls, all married and occupying respective positions. They are: G. W. Van Luven, Brockville; Zara Van Luven, merchant and postmaster, Moscow; Peter Van Luven, retired farmer, Moscow; Alpheus Man Luven, manufacturer, Tarbert; Michael Van Luven, Sydenham; John Van Luven, married Geo. Robinson, paper maker, Newburgh; Thos. Van Luven, County Treasurer, Frontenac; John S. Van Luven, another son, who resides on the homestead; Emily Van Luven, married George McKay, Brockville. Cornelius Van Luven's course through life was characterized by straightforwardness, integrity, and perseverance. In early life he joined the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and for over fifty years was a constant attendant in the House of God, a class leader and always active for the interests of the church. He was genial and uncertrouve. He was a constant advocate of temperance principles, always opposed to the liquor business in every shape and form. In politics he was a Reformer. Early in life he identified himself with that band of patriots. He never wavered in his allegiance to Liberal principles. His long life includes parts of the reigns of four British Sovereigns. He was a lad of five when Trafalgar was fought, in his teens when Wellington overthrew Napoleon at Waterloo. When a lad 12 years old he drove his brother to Kingston to join his regiment to take part in the war of 1812, and he was attracted by the music to join as a drummer boy, but he had to take the horses home and take care of the old folks, his mother anxiously awaiting his return. In the rebellion of 1837-38 he was one who went to Kingston and took up arms against the rebels. He leaves behind him an example worthy of imitation and a name that his children may be proud of.
