HAL RETURNS TO ASIA

From winter 2014 through spring 2015, Holland America Line (HAL) will sail a series of 14- to 17-day cruises and non-repeating itineraries, while the 1,404 passenger Rotterdam takes an epic 90-day "Passage to the far East" journey. All of the cruises feature exotic ports of call with extended and overnight stays at some of Asia's most iconic cities. The longer visits provide travellers ample time to explore the region's extensive collection of historical and notable landmark. New this year, Volendam will sail three 14-day "Asian Adventure" cruises roundtrip from Singapore. Departing 22DEC14, 02FEB15 and 16MAR15, the ship calls at ports in Malaysia, Thailand and Myanmar. Guests will enjoy an overnight stay at Singapore and Thilawa (Rangoon), Myanmar, as well as an extended port call at Port Kelang II (Kuala Lumpur), Malaysia. The ship also sails a series of 14-day "Far East Discovery" cruises between Singapore and Hong Kong. Guests can embark on 05JAN, 19JAN, 16Feb, 02MAR or 30MAR15. The itinerary calls at Koh Samui, Thailand; Sihanoukville, Cambodia; several ports in Viet Nam and an overnight call at Laem Chabang (Bangkok). Call us for details. hollandamerica.com

ELECTRONIC DEVICES INFLIGHT

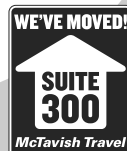

Passengers will soon be able to use portable electronic devices such as tablets, computers, cameras and electronic games during all phases of the flight, the federal government has announced. This includes while the aircraft takes off, climbs, descends and lands, providing the device is non-transmitting, or flight mode and that the airline has met certain safety conditions outlined by Transport Canada. tc.gc.ca

BEACHES TURKS & CAICOS

Beaches Turks and Caicos Resort Village & Spa, which has been voted "The Caribbean's Leading Family All-Inclusive" for three years in a row, has added 150 suites and villas with the opening of its Key West Luxury Village, which joins the original Caribbean village and subsequent French and Italian village additions. In all, beaches' flagship Turks & Caicos property boasts 758 rooms and suites spread across 75 acres, compartmentalized into four villages, each with its own flavour. The Key West unit, formerly the Verandah Hotel next to the Beaches property, features a separate checkIn, three new restaurants (for a total of 19 at the resort), more pools, tennis spa facilities and a kids club. It fronts Grace bay beach and is built in a Key West style in pale yellow and grey-blue, with a lush labyrinth of walkways through the village, designed to be quiet refuge in the giant family resort, which is centred around the Italian Village pool and water park, and the Caribbean Village watersports centre on the beach. We have air inclusive packages to Beaches Turks & Caicos - call us for rates and reservations! sandals.com
