DISALLOWANCE QUESTION.

The result of the Manitoba election in the return to power of the Norquay (Tory) Government, but the people were largely influenced by the declaration of the Ministry prior to and all through the campaign that they would not submit to disallowance, that in the new Legislature acts would be passed similar to those which the Federal Government strangled. A great ado has been made by the Conservatives over the victory, but it is really no victory as the party lines were not straightly drawn, and Liberals and Tories were somewhat alike in their policy. The fur nor was, of course, more pronounced against the central power; had they been elected they would have waged a war on provincial rights such as the Ontario Reformers have been fighting. An ill in the evil day is only postponed. The C. P. R. monopoly will become more grinding and more oppressive until toleration has ceased to be a virtue. Mr. Norquay is an expert dodger, a temporizer, an apt pupil in the hands of Sir John Macdonald. The Premier of Ottawa will really mould the legislation of Manitoba henceforth. This may be suffered for a time, but by and bye there must be an end of such work. It will come the sooner the modern John Falstaff goes.

WOMEN AS PREACHERS

Movement was ever inaugurated to which some one did not object. There is a decided difference of opinion in regard to the work of the Salvation Army. Some do not like the music, their street parades, their methods of operating generally. Yesterday it was said the women were out of place as public preachers and exhorters. They do not think so, and in justice to them we quote from a little work, "All About the Salvation Army," in defence of this position. It is admitted that there is one passage in the epistles of Paul which seems to be against preaching by women, (1 Cor. xiv, 33, 36), but it is contended that it simply means that they should not indulge in the debates common at the Jewish assemblies. It is further contended that the apostle lays down the exact dress for women when they preach (11th chap.); that under the Old Dispensation some of the most eminent preachers were women; that the first commissioned to carry the message of Christ's resurrection were women; that they and the men alike, on the day of Pentecost, received baptism and Peter confirmed the right to preach, that there were female helpers, yoke fellows and laborers with the apostles in the early Churches who preached the gospel; that Philip, the evangelist, had four daughters that did prophesy; that multitudes of women since then, in all lands, have been commissioned by the Holy Ghost to preach the gospel and lead His people. "We believe," says a writer, "that a more decorous and modest body of women than our female officers is not to be found on the face of the earth. They are admired and respected by all who know them." The people of Kingston are expected to give Capt. Abbie Thompson and Lieut. Mercy Little every encouragement in their work.

CORRECTED STATEMENT.

"The Wasp has at length discovered that the Mr. G. M. Macdonnell does not wish to abolish License Inspectors, but simply asks for a non-political board of License Commissioners."—News.

Another misrepresentation! Mr. Macdonnell wants a return to the customs which prevailed in the days of Conservative Government in Ontario, and we have protested against such a course as unwise and impolitic. Mr. Macdonnell cannot justify his position of wishing to make the Police Commissioners the License Board. They, above all others, should not be so situated. We do not insinuate that they are unworthy or unreliable, but they should not be placed in a false attitude, as they would be called to try infractions of the law by persons to whom they had granted licenses. The Police Magistrate and County Judge, in the hearing of cases and appeals, and the Mayor in his relations with the electorate, should not be unnecessarily embarrassed. Well, then, who would Mr. Macdonnell suggest for Commissioners? Not the Aldermen surely? The News says "No one purposes to vest the (liquor) traffic in the City Council, although that would be decidedly better than leaving it in the hands of the Ontario Government." Here is an evidence of what has been termed "political animus." Our contemporary has reached the conclusion that a change is desirable, irrespective of what it is likely to lead to. Not the first act of license tyranny has been proven. The Dunn case has been cited but the circumstances show that the runaway lost his license in consequence of his failure to conform with the law. Without comment Mr. G. M. Macdonnell would sweep aside the present license system and revive that which obtained prior to the introduction of the Crooks Act. The Aldermen can have no desire to be hoved to death by parties desiring and deserving, in pursuit of licenses, some of which cannot be finely and legally granted; they know how hard it is to refuse unreasonable requests, and they cannot assert their indifference without affecting their popularity. As the law now stands a License Commissioner may be lifted to run for municipal honours. What is the object of this provision? To place the Commissioners in an independent position, to relieve them of undue and improper influences. Mr. Macdonnell can find little fault with the present license system; he certainly cannot improve it, and he must detract from his "popularity" by a continued championship of Thomas Dunn's shortcomings.

PROVINCIAL FAIR.

A Statistical Statement of Much Local Interest—The Income, Outlay and Prizes.

The Ontario Government has issued the annual published report of the Provincial Arts and Agricultural Society. It contains a good deal which has been already in a non-official way conveyed to the public. Among the contents however, is the Secretary's statement anent the thirty seventh exhibition, which, being held in Kingston, possesses a large local interest. Mention is made of the Dominion grant, of the special displays made by the Provinces of Manitoba and Nova Scotia, and the satisfaction which seems to have attended the distribution of gold, silver and bronze medals, and two spatukas and herd prizes. The statistical summary has a particular significance. The various classes are thus summarized:

Horses—The total number of entries was 848, for which was paid in prizes $1,211, 8 gold, 17 silver, and 1 bronze medal, against 749 entries in London in 1881, for which was paid $1,653; 740 in Hamilton in 1880; 492 in Ottawa in 1879; and 816 in Toronto in 1878. The small number of entries compared with the four former years is attributable to the fact that in the immediate vicinity of Kingston and east, few horses of sufficient merit are kept, those exhibited having to be brought from a distance at great expense. The horses that were exhibited, however, were very fine, especially in roadsters, driving and heavy draught horses.

Cattle—In all classes there were 620 entries, for which were paid in prizes $2,982.50 in cash, 10 gold and 17 silver Dominion medals, against in London in 1881, 636 entries, to which was paid $2,798; 494 in Hamilton in 1880; 615 in Ottawa in 1879; and 640 in Toronto in 1878.

Sheep—There were 354 entries, for which we paid $1,279 and 8 silver medals, against 705 entries, for which we paid $1,881 at London in 1881; 675 entries in Hamilton in 1879; 431 in Ottawa in 1878; and 639 in Toronto in 1877. The same reason for falling off in numbers is given as for horses.

Swine—In all classes 843 entries, for which were awarded $1,031, 8 silver and 10 bronze medals, against 886 entries for which was paid $1,007 in London in 1881; 407 in Hamilton in 1879; 355 in Ottawa in 1878; and 471 in Toronto in 1877, a very fine show and hardly any falling off in numbers, the money prizes being larger than before.

Poultry—621 entries, to which were paid $845 and 2 Dominion bronze medals, against 632 entries and $321 in prizes for London in 1881; 621 in Hamilton in 1879; 480 in Ottawa in 1878; and 621 in Toronto in 1877; quite a falling off in numbers, accounted for by being east also.

Agricultural Implements, Tools, Carriages and Sleighs—677 entries, to which was paid $887, 1 gold, 4 silver and 15 bronze medals, against 615 entries, for which was paid $665 at London in 1881; 570 entries in Hamilton in 1880; 470 in Ottawa in 1879; and 585 in Toronto in 1878, showing this to be a variable class.

Agricultural Products, consisting of grain, seeds, field roots, dairy produce, sugar, bacon, domestic wines, &c, total number of entries 965, for which was paid $1,518, 1 gold and 3 bronze medals, against 1,078 entries, for which was paid $1,510 in London in 1881; 1,810 in Hamilton in 1880; 1,492 in Ottawa in 1879; and 917 in Toronto in 1878. The show of grain and seeds was good.

Horticultural Products, consisting of fruits, flowers and garden vegetables, 2,333 entries, for which was paid $1,207 and 12 Dominion bronze medals, against 2,631, for which was paid $1,510 at London in 1881; 3,909 entries in Hamilton in 1880; 2,232 in Ottawa in 1879; and 3,223 at London in 1878, showing a falling off from previous years.

Arts and Manufactures—There were 1,859 entries, to which were awarded $1,746.50, 1 gold, 10 silver and 12 Dominion medals, against 1,923 entries, to which were paid $2,581.50 at London in 1881; 2,571 at Hamilton in 1880; 2,432 at Ottawa in 1879; 3,110 at Toronto in 1878, showing a continued falling off in this department.

The total amount received from members' fees, rent of booths, stables, poultry, prize grants and admission fees, as near as I can make it out, was $9,026, against $10,029.36 in 1881, $13,960 in 1880, $11,096 in 1879, and $20,478 in 1878.

In 1881 the receipts from tickets and entries were $9,067.75, subscriptions $4,085, total $7,052.75. The premiums paid amounted to $6,823, running expenses $9,747.78, total $7,070.75, deficit $18.03. In 1882, at the gates alone, above $4,000 were taken.

THE CHURCHES.

Rev. J. P. Wilson preached anniversary services at Elgin M. E. Church on Sunday, and he and Mr. W. P. Bell take part in a tea meeting on Monday evening.

Rev. Mr. Kirkpatrick will be one of the speakers at the Tract Society's meeting this evening.

Last evening at vespers the Rev. Father Twohey announced the lecture of the Rev. Father Ryan. He said that all who go to hear the Rev. lecturer will never regret it, as he is one of the great centers of the day, and has been given the just title of the silver tongued orator of the South.

"Dr. Benner's Celery and Chamomile Pills are worth their weight in gold, in nervous and sick headache."

DIOCESAN MISSIONS.

Services in St. George's Cathedral, St. John's and Christ Churches—Meeting in St. Paul's Church.

Yesterday the annual anniversary services connected in St. George's Cathedral and St. Paul's Church, city, and in St. John's Church, Portsmouth. In the morning Rev. J. W. Burke, of Belleville, preached in St. George's Cathedral, and very succinctly laid before the people the claims of the missions of the Diocese. The collections were large. At the same time Rev. Mr. Read, missionary of St. Lyon, performed a similar service at Portsmouth.

In the afternoon the deputation addressed about 800 people in Christ Church, Cataraqui, the occasion being a very interesting one.

In the evening the same reverend gentlemen spoke in St. Paul's, together with Mr. R. V. Rogers, jr.

The Convenor stated that there are missionaries in part or wholly sustained in this Diocese by grants out of the mission fund; large sums had been collected, but yet there was much needed in order to meet the requirements of the Diocese.

A special feature of the evening was the singing of the choir. Miss Burton sang, in fine voice, "Consider the Lilies," and she and Mr. Trendell sang a captivating duet. Then the children—representing the Juvenile Salvation Army—performed a pleasant duty. A deputation of the Sunday School, two and two, marched up the aisle, singing as they went, and presented to Mr. Burke a cheque for $26, their donation to the Diocese of Algoma. Mr. Burke thanked them in the name of the Church and of the Lord, and made a few fitting allusions to the value of youthful liberality and piety. The collections of the congregation amounted to $55.

All Saints missionary meeting occurs to-night, that of St. James' on Wednesday evening.

Rev. Mr. Carey speaks at a missionary meeting in Napanee this evening.

THE SALVATIONISTS.

Last Wednesday night's Pittsburg despatch says: One one of the most disgraceful riots that ever occurred in this city came off at the barracks of the Salvation Army. About 9 o'clock a party of twenty young men visited the barracks and were declined admittance. They then amused themselves by battering the door. Watching the opportunity when the door was opened they rushed in. Captain Coffin stepped the services and endeavoured to put the intruders out by force. He clouched a young man named Reynolds, and the two engaged in a rough-and-tumble fight. The friends of Reynolds came to his aid, and the Salvation soldiers rallied around the Captain. The fight became general and the wildest excitement prevailed. One lady fainted; others stood on seats and cried for assistance. Captain Coffin was badly bruised about the head and body, and several others were badly hurt, though none seriously. The fight lasted nearly an hour, when officers arrived and restored order. The whole affair was disgraceful in the extreme. Captain Coffin has been notified that if he attempts to hold a street meeting again he will be mobbed, but he declares his intention to come out the first pleasant evening. No arrests have been made.

BATTERSEA ENTERTAINMENT.

On Friday the congregation of the M. E. Church, Battersea, held their annual tea meeting, and cold though the weather was the church was filled beyond its seating capacity. The Inverary M. E. choir was present in full strength, and stirring addresses were made by Revds. J. P. Wilson, of Kingston, (who made an excellent impression on this first visit) and H. McQuaid, of Sydenham, the latter displaying an extraordinary capacity for entertaining with a jumble of oddities. Mr. Pense occupied the chair. The programme was:

Opening Chorus—Inverary Choir
Reading—W. P. Bell, Kingston.
Duett—Lyon Bros.
Address—Rev. J. P. Wilson.
Instrumental Solo—Mr. Merriman.
Recitation—Horatio Lyon.
Solo—Herbert Lyon.
Reading—W. P. Bell.
Chorus—Choir.
Address—Rev. H. McQuaid.
Duet—Lyon Bros.

Chorus—Choir.

The pastor's thanks and the National Anthem, followed by an attempt to snap up a parson's overshoes, closed a pleasant entertainment.

CATARAQUI BRIDGE COMPANY.

To-day the annual meeting of the Cataraqui Bridge Company occurred in the Council Chamber. The annual report presented showed that the cash assets, after all liabilities were deducted, amounted to $2,457.68. A dividend of 3 per cent was declared. The expenditure during the year had been—Bridge expenses, $436.15; officer's salary, $100; miscellaneous expenses, $434.50; dividends, $2,082; total, $3,042.65. The receipts were $4,677.93, leaving a balance on hand of $1,635.27. Military tolls amounted to $1,402.80. The following were elected Directors: Mayor Livingston, 138 votes, Isaac Simpson, 138; M. Strachan, 136; J. Muckleston, 111; Sheriff Ferguson, 136.

POLITICS IN FRANCE.

According to the estimates of our Paris correspondent only 2,000,000 of the 10,000,000 voters in France are genuine Republicans. Of the other 8,000,000 about 2,000,000 are Monarchists and Imperialists, and 6,000,000 are Republicans, Monarchists, or Imperialists as circumstances make them or as political currents or self-interest may determine. So long as the Republicans are in the ascendant the floating or variable vote is with them, but should the Republican Government lose public confidence 6,000,000 men, waiting to see which way the cat would jump, might easily be subjected to influences that would make them dangerous to the republic.

At the regular meeting of the Sons of Temperance on last Thursday evening, it was decided to admit ladies as members.

The Crown counsel stated that important evidence in regard to the Phœnix Park murders would be given against at least two prisoners.

"CRUSH OUT LANDLORDISM."

Davitt, at a meeting of the National League to-day, said he could not help feeling the most god-like action man could perform would be to complete the crushing of the hideous landlordism. If Mr. Gladstone could give a legislative blow to landlordism his name would be revered by every generation of the liberated victims. Landlordism and Castle rule are being beaten inch by inch.

The groom is about 75 years of age, and the blooming bride, fresh from the Emerald Isle, about 40. The festivities lasted all day and night. The guests, many in number, had a very pleasant time. The bride gave the company many specimens of fine old Irish dancing which so charmed and delighted the groom that he nearly made a cripple of himself trying to follow her example. The village boys paid a visit in a body, and tendering their congratulations were well treated. They retired with three cheers for the bride, who in the third one that the old gentleman has had the happiness to lead to his home.

Warner some time ago sold his farm for $5,300, and later he sold his interest in a cheese factory for $900. It is thought that he has taken between $8,000 to $10,000.
