Annual Meeting of Mackie Benefit Society—7:00 p.m.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1883.

CITY AND VICINITY.

PROBS.—Fresh to strong north-westerly to south-westerly winds, fair to clear weather, colder to-night with light snow in some localities.

DEPLETED CHURCHES.—The city pastors are complaining of depleted churches on Sabbath evenings owing to the rush of their congregations to the meetings of the Salvation Army.

OUT ON THE LINE.—This morning a K. & P. RR. train, headed by three engines, started for a trip over the line. It is expected that the expedition will succeed in reaching the terminus.

BUTCHER SHOP ROBBED.—Last night the butcher shop of Mr. E. Robb, Princess Street, adjoining Mrs. Stratford's, was broken into and a quantity of pork, beef and other meat stolen. An entrance was effected through the back window.

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.—The winter's term begins on the 12th Feb., and with special advantages to pupils. Instruction in drawing and phonography have been added to the curriculum, without adding to the fees. The classes should be well attended.

THE SNOW NUISANCE.—Two complaints have been made to us by persons having to tramp in and out Union street, about the snow permitted to lie on the sidewalks, forcing the public to take to the road. Were the property owners poor men they would stand a good chance of being prosecuted oftener.

DEATH AT CAMPTON.—On Saturday the body of Philip Helmer arrived here from Campton, where he died on Friday last. Mr. Helmer was formerly a resident of Wolfe Island. Several of his children still reside there, and there his remains were taken for burial. Deceased was about 80 years old.

RUSSELL AND LENNOX.—The Russell and Lennox contested election cases have been enlarged until next sittings of the Queen's Bench division, with power to either party to bring the matter up before the single court at any time before that. Time of trial to be extended six months.

IN BUSINESS AGAIN.—John B. Murphy, formerly of Kingston, has left for Europe to purchase a stock of goods for the new wholesale dry goods and fancy goods firm of Murphy Brothers, who are about starting business at Montreal. A Kingstonian has secured a position under this firm, and will leave the city for Montreal in a month.

HOME FROM FLORIDA.—Mr. William Power has returned from a six weeks trip through the Southern States, visiting North and South Carolina and Florida. He spent some time at Jacksonville, where he met Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers and other Kingstonians. Mr. Power is better pleased than ever that he lives in Ontario, a finer land than which there is not in the world.

A PANICKY MARKET.—The wood market was quite panicky on Saturday, owing to a non-arrival of the trains and sleighs. Prices took an upward turn of 50 cents a cord. This is due to the blocked state of the roads and the probability of a shortage in the coal supply. A few days of fine weather, however, will likely restore the disturbed equilibrium in supply and price.

A FINE SERMON.—The University preacher yesterday was Rev. Mr. Bilkie, of the Reformed Episcopal Church, Toronto. The language was choice, delivery very pleasing, and altogether the sermon seems to have made as good an impression as any that has been delivered during this session. It interested and excited the thoughts of the audience, the object at which all successful preachers aim.

CREATING A DISTURBANCE.—On Saturday evening while the crowd was surging in Victoria Hall a "B" Batteryman, Charles Potts, made use of obscene expressions. Police Officer James Nesbitt, who was present in plain clothes, invited the soldier outside and told him that he had been very impolite. The soldier offered some "chin," which resulted in his arrest. He was with much trouble conveyed to the police station, remained until this morning, and then turned over to the military authorities.

THE COMING COURTS.

The following are the dates fixed for the Spring Assizes in the Midland District. Hon. Mr. Justice Armour will occupy the bench:

Kingston—Monday, 12th March.
Brockville—Monday, 19th March.
Napanee—Monday, 26th March.
Picton—Tuesday, 3rd April.
Belleville—Monday, 9th April.

The Chancery Sittings to be presided over by the Hon. the Chancellor, will occur as follows:

Belleville—Monday, 26th March.
Brockville—Friday, 18th May.
Kingston—Wednesday, 23rd May.

PAST AND GONE.

The funeral of the late Judge Kenneth Mackenzie, at Toronto, on Saturday, was preceded by a visitation to his residence of vast numbers of his friends. The pall-bearers were Mayor Boswell, Judge Cameron, Messrs. Dennison, P.M., Christopher Robinson, Gordon Brown, J. G. Scott and Sheriff Jarvis. A pillar of roses, presented by the Police Force, was a part of the vast sea of floral tributes sent in. Ninety of the Police Force headed the cortege. Services were said by the Rev. D. J. Macdonnell.

HERE AND THERE.

Laconic Arrangement of Items of Local and General Interest—Gossip that is Readable.

Four failures are reported in the last Winnipeg Commercial.

Barley is only 38 cts. at Emerson, Man., but potatoes are 75 cts.

The Locomotive Works are not building any engines for the Grand Trunk RR.

A fire got into a lumber pile at Douro one on Friday and destroyed $400 worth of lumber.

The grist mill at Lake Opeinicon has been opened, and is operated by Mr Cook, from Ottawa.

The Quarterly Board of the C. M. Church, Newburgh circuit, has voted unanimously for the basis of union.

The lottery craze has about subsided, and the feeling of great expectance has turned to one of sad disappointment.

There is some talk of the erection of a meeting hall or Sabbath school house in connection with the First Congregational Church.

The annual meeting of the Kingston Masonic Benefit Association will be held to-morrow evening, not on Tuesday, the 20th, as advertised.

The Manager and Treasurer of the Masonic temple gift enterprise are paying the lucky ticket holders the prizes gained by them.

Lenten services are held on Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock and on Friday evening at half past seven in St. James' Parochial School House.

When speaking at Hamilton Mr Lauder inadvertently admitted that Mr Mowat would be Prime Minister of Ontario for another four years. "Truth, like murder, will out."

The boiler for the Lansdowne Mining Company was drawn this afternoon by four of the Shedden Company's horses from McEwen's foundry to the car which takes it out on the K. & P. RR.

The breathing of the crowd in the Victoria Music Hall last night overheated it, and about 10 o'clock the escape of impure air from the windows suggested the idea that there was a big and smoky fire within.

Wiggins now says he was mistaken in his calculations about Friday's storm. He is more confident, however, than ever about his March hurricane. Public confidence in his power of prophecy has been badly shaken.

A good programme is being prepared for St Andrew's Church organ fund concert on Thursday evening next. First-class local talent will assist. The Teigmann family have been secured and will play some selections, also accompanying the choruses of the choir. Programme to-morrow evening.

Mrs. E. Burns called to day to say that she was not drunk at the Salvation Army meeting the other night when arrested; that if she were drunk one policeman could have taken her, and not had to send for two others. Her offence was simply, she says, asking when the tambourine girl came out, "where the monkey was."

Belleville has a grand scheme in view—to raise by lottery $240,000 at $1 a ticket; $100,000 for building a bridge across the Bay of Quinte, $40,000 for building a "Home for the Friendless;" and $100,000 for distribution as prizes. Belleville is able, we trust, to pay for its own institutions. The London lottery begging scheme is enough for one year.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Gunn's address at Ottawa is the Russell House.

A. L. Morden, of Napanee, has been elected Chairman of the High School Board.

Mr. Speaker Kirkpatrick gave a dinner to a large number of friends last Friday evening.

Rev. E. P. Crawford, of Brockville, has been elected Chairman of the High School Board there.

Rev. Father Ryan, the post priest, will preach in St. Mary's Cathedral on next Sunday evening.

Lieut.-Col. King Harman, formerly of the Royal Canadian Rifles, will be a candidate at the Parliamentary election for the county of Dublin.

Mr. J. C. Thompson, sr., has returned from Perth, where he has been assisting his sons, lately established in the boot and shoe trade.

Robert Barry is said to have been a heavy loser in the Locomotive Works Syndicate that purchased tickets in the London Lottery.

Rev. Mr. Harris to-morrow attends a meeting of the General Committee of the Primitive Methodist Church. It was not called to discuss union, but that subject will undoubtedly receive consideration.

Captain Crowley has returned from Chicago, whether he had gone to see his son, who was dangerously ill but who is now on a fair way to recovery.

Major J. A. Holbeck, King's Royal Rifle Corps, having returned from active service, has relieved Major H. R. Smith, 47th Batt., an aide-de-camp to the general officer commanding the militia.

Rev. J. P. Wilson did not preach in Gananoque as we intimated on Sunday he would do. He has a church engagement at that church to fill on Sunday next.

Mr. Fair has arranged for a series of meetings in the County. He will speak at the Finger Board, Pittsburg, on Wednesday, and at Portsmouth on Thursday evenings. The popular candidate is meeting with great success in his canvass.

Speaker Kirkpatrick has received a host of kindly notices from the press of both sides of politics. If he were a Liberal the courtesies he might receive from the Mail and its satellites would not over-power him with gratitude. And yet these papers are the organs of a Gentleman's Party.

One of our best citizens would say to the public that he has tried Hall's Catarrh Cure and it is all that is claimed for it. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by J. Geo. Ring.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT.

The Minor Offences—An Alleged Embezzlement—Buying Cattle and its Results.

Joseph Devan, who has been frequently before the Court, answered to a charge of drunkenness. He said he had received the liquor from an Indian. The Magistrate allowed him no consideration but imposed a fine of $10 and costs, or in default of payment to go for a term of two months to gaol.

Stephen Tyo, jr., also got several "swigs" of liquor from a bottle carried by the aforesaid Indian. They cost him $10 or two months' imprisonment in gaol.

One of the parties mentioned on Saturday as having been disorderly was released after a couple of hours' detention; the other was fined $20 or a month's imprisonment in default. An order was produced from a Justice of the Peace on Wolfe Island, allowing him to carry the revolver which he had flourished, but the Magistrate held that it was useless.

A CHARGE OF EMBEZZLEMENT.

Duncan A. Cays was charged with embezzling from R. V. Matthews the sum of $300. A plea of "not guilty" was entered. The prisoner asked to be tried by a jury and the case will, therefore, go to the Spring Assizes. Mr. R. Shaw appeared for the prosecutor and Mr. T. H. McIlwire for the prisoner.

Matthews took the stand and testified that Duncan A. Cays was in his employment, being engaged to buy cattle and sheep. For the purpose he received money at various times. On Dec. 19th, 1882, witness paid him $300. (Receipt produced.) The cattle purchased Cays said he had sold to John Patterson, of Inverary, on credit. Notes were to be secured and handed over to witness. On the 17th of Oct., 1882, witness paid Cays $600 with which to purchase cattle. (Receipt produced.) Cays said he had purchased cattle with the money, and wanted money to bring them home. Witness gave him the money required. Cays then turned over to witness some 25 head of cattle, which were sold to James Robb for $625.

TRUCKOT'S CROSS EXAMINATION.

On cross-examination witness said that in June or July he had arranged with Cays for the purchase of cattle. Robb's told witness that Cays was a shrewd buyer. For purchasing Cays to receive one half the profits. Nothing was said as to the losses, but witness supposed that Cays would bear half of them. In July Cays turned over to witness cattle purchased for $328 and sold for $408. At this time witness gave $700 to buy more cattle. The first cattle were not purchased with witness's money. Afterwards witness gave $700 to Cays, who purchased more cattle. These were sold and witness secured the money. Witness had asked for a settlement but had not got it yet. He thought he had lost between $1,300 or $1,400. Witness could not tell what the profits were in the cattle although Cays told him there was a profit. Witness between July and December, advanced in all about $6,000. In return he received about $5,000. In relation to the money given in December the witness could not say that it was not invested in cattle. Witness had Cays' word that he invested the $600, secured in October from witness. Witness could not say that Cays did not invest the money in cattle.

A QUESTION FOR LAWYERS.

There was a lengthened conversation between the lawyers and the Magistrate. Mr. McGuire contending that no embezzlement was shown. Cays, he said, was willing to make a settlement, and the whole affair was one of account.

Mr Shaw asked for an adjournment. Mr. McGuire objected on the ground that no evidence sustaining the embezzlement was offered. The whole affair was one of account. For reasons given Cays was not in a position to know whether he owed Matthews or Matthews owed him. A settlement was desired.

The case stands over until Monday. Cays was allowed out on his own recognizances.

POLITICS AT THE UNIVERSITY.

The Alma Mater Society at its regular meeting on Saturday evening resolved itself into the Provincial Parliament, and debated the questions, which are to be submitted to the electorate on the 27th. At eight o'clock the Lieutenant Governor, Mr. Shanks, "came down in state," and read the Speech from the Throne. Immediately after his retirement—which was accomplished "in state"—Mr. Lyon was appointed Speaker, and a motion of want of confidence in the Government was made. This gave use to a very interesting debate which lasted upwards of two hours. It was taken part in by Mr. Britton, who acted as Premier; Mr. McLachlan, the Provincial Senator; Mr. D. M. McIntyre, Leader of the Opposition and his Lieutenant. Shortly after ten o'clock it was found that it would be impossible to finish the discussion in one evening so an adjournment was made until next Saturday when the vote will be taken. It is hardly necessary to say that the Government has a large majority.

COMING OF MISS THURSBY.

We announce with pleasure that arrangements have been made with Maurice Strakosch for the appearance here on Monday evening next, February 19th, of Miss Emma Thursby in Grand Concert. She will be assisted by the following eminent artists: Herr Carl Formes, basso; Mme. Teresa Liebe, violinist; Miss Marie Heimbecher, pianist; Mr. Theodore Liebe, violoncellist. Kingstonians will have an opportunity of showing their appreciation of high class music, and unless there is a large audience they need not expect to be honoured in a similar manner for some time to come. Miss Thursby is one of brightest stars in America. She is very handsome. "Her voice," says one, "is a soprano of remarkable volume, richly sonorous, but always noble and sympathetic. The technique of the contralto is really extraordinary, the legato and the staccato are of marvelous purity, her respiration is clear and deep, and her trill, sustained without effort, is pure and lovely." Let there be a crowded house next Monday when she appears.

MARCHING ALONG.

SALVATION ARMY STILL GAINING RECRUITS—A POWERFUL RESISTLESS MOVEMENT.

Last Night's Continuous—Experience of the Converts—The Revival Movement Fully Endorsed.

The Salvation Army is marching along. Two weeks have passed and the meetings continue to attract, to excite and to revive. What is to be upshot? One does not require unusual vision to perceive that the great tidal wave of religious feeling which overswept England has struck this continent and promises to roll over it and wash away a great deal of the public immorality. Such is the prediction of those who have contemplated the movement and studied its effects so far.

The last edition of The War Cry announces that Kingston has been captured. There is ground for the statement, judging from the number of converts and the extent to which public interest has been aroused. Twice yesterday the Army paraded. All the meetings were largely attended. In the afternoon and evening as many failed to get in as would fill another hall. At 7:30 o'clock a representative of this paper reached the street in front of the building. In a moment he found himself hemmed in upon all sides, lifted a couple of times off his feet by the surging crowd, then carried forward with a rush and jammed against the door in a manner calculated to severely test his temper and physique. The hall was presently reached. Every seat was occupied and a hundred persons raced disparagingly hither and thither in the vain endeavour to find an anchorage. Finally even standing space was taken up and a peep through the door became a favour, which, in the jostling, uneasy mass, was anything but permanent.

A VERY INTERESTING SERVICE.

The service was of the usual order—singing, prayer, bible reading and relating of experiences. Capt. Abbie Thompson led the exercises, assisted by the three Lieutenants, Maxwell, Woodland, Little. They all urged an immediate abandonment of sin, a present preparation for the emergencies of life and realities of eternity. But once did the audience smile, when Lt. Maxwell advised them to at once give the devil and all his furniture a clearing out, but she spoke without the intention to create mirth. The Salvationists talk to the people in the language of the masses, using some of the commoner phases. The thing is not liked by refined people, but it is effective upon the classes who are wanted as salvation recruits. The appeal of Lt. Wood was a sad and pathetic one. It had special significance in so far as it dealt with the fact that the young can become intelligent and consistent Christians. She had a consciousness of sin at 7, at 10 she was converted, but until the Salvation Army came along had not been an active worker. Her parents were in Heaven and her mother's last words were: "I'll wait for you at the pearly gates." Some members of her family had since then gone to the happy land, and she was hastening thither.

ADMISSIONS OF THE CONVERTS.

Notable features of the evening were the statements of two men. One declared that he had attended the meetings merely to gratify his curiosity; the other came "to make game." Both were impressed with the proceedings and both now say they are saved.

The salvation meeting subsequently was marked by the advance of no less than 28 to the penitent form. "Such a shower we have not had so far," said one of the soldiers; "it shows that we are powerfully operating upon the people, stirring up their religious instincts as well as interesting them. The army is getting large, and we have only began recruiting yet. We are engaged in a work that does the folks good."

This evening there will not be a public meeting, simply a muster. Capt. Abbie says they're going to drill, but what it will partake of we cannot tell.

SALVATION ARMY ENDORSED.

There was a large audience in the Opera House last evening and the service was much enjoyed. The singing and speeches were good. Rev. Mr. McKay endorsed the work of the Salvation Army in the following language: Since returning home a few days ago I have been asked again and again what my views are regarding "The Salvation Army" and their operations in this city. Those who know me best must have thought that I would give them my hearty support in their efforts to reach and benefit a class which are not being reached through the ordinary means of grace. I am a strong believer in the ordinary means, viz., the churches and their ministry, and have always worked on that line, because I know from Scripture that it is the divine plan. And if I had been carried out in the spirit of Jesus Christ and as He had intended there would have been no necessity for such an organization as the Salvation Army. It is a special and extraordinary order, evidently raised up by God for the accomplishment of a special and extraordinary work. No candid observer can at this time of day deny the wonderful success attending their operations in every part of the world where they now exist, and more especially in England. There may be some things about their modus operandi that every proper people cannot regard as in keeping with advanced thought, or high church ecclesiastical views in carrying on evangelistic work, but many Christians cannot close their eyes to the fact that propriety is killing some of our Churches. What we need most of all is the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, which will lead to our feeling the burden of souls and more active efforts for their salvation.

SUPPLY LOCAL MOVEMENT.

A little more than two months ago I had it laid on my heart to ask the Christian students of Queen's University—noble fellows, God bless them—to unite with me in a combined effort for the purpose of reaching a class which were not being reached by the Churches. Finding my own Mission Hall already filled and too small for such an undertaking, after getting some kind friends to promise pecuniary assistance to help us to meet the rent, I secured the Opera House. Some regarded the attempt as foolish, others as wrong. I need not remind this audience of the readiness with which the students entered into this proposal, nor the success that has attended the effort. The place has been again and again crowded, and many hundreds of young men have attended, some of whom seldom or ever entered a place of worship. We have the same object as the Salvation Army, viz., the saving of souls. But they are apparently securing that end better than we—their meetings are held every evening, and the impressions made in many cases are followed up by earnest personal dealing and fervent prayer, and thus we trust many are led to Christ. We wish them God speed in their work, and will, I am sure, give them our sympathy and prayers.

WHAT IS SALVATION.

The word salvation is upon almost every person's lips at present. What does it mean? I shall try briefly and from God's own word, to answer the question. The answer can only be partial, as the subject is so large.

First then, salvation is of the Lord, from beginning to end. It was His loving purpose to save man from the beginning. Not long after our first parents sinned, God in his mercy announced this salvation in that first promise, "I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel." Salvation was then proclaimed in the garden of Eden before Adam and Eve were driven out. Salvation is not of works, as Paul says, lest any man should boast, but purely and only by the grace of God. Were it not for the grace of God every child of the human race would inevitably and for ever perish. Salvation is deliverance from sin, from the devil and from eternal death. The gospel of Jesus Christ is the power of God unto salvation. This salvation is all wrapt up in Christ, and there is no escape from the just judgment of God to those who reject the Historic Church, the mouthpiece of the Father. Mr McKay closed his address by earnestly urging all to accept Christ now in the day of God's salvation.

HOW HE GOT THE TICKET.

There are many rumors in regard to the way in which Mr. Gamble, of Gananoque, became possessed of the ticket 68,542, which won $5,000. A gentleman from that village states that the ticket was held by another person. Gamble anxiously desired to secure it, but the holder was loathe to part with it. After a great deal of talk the holder and Mr. Gamble decided to toss up and see who should have it. Gamble won, paid for the ticket, and consequently secured the prize. It is said Mr. Gamble dreams that 68,542 would be the winning number. He has left for London. On Friday night he had a lively splurge in Gananoque. Champagne flowed freely. It is asserted that Mr. Gamble will make the original holder of the ticket a valuable present.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Indigestion and liver complaints.—The digestion cannot be imperfect or seriously disordered without the effects of such derangement becoming visible on the countenance. These Pills at once remove the disorder and its unpleasant consequences. They stimulate the digestive and assimilative functions, and consequently promote that great boasting—a good appetite. Holloway's Pills most satisfactorily remove all deranged or diseased action of the many organs engaged in extracting nourishment for our bodies from our various diets—as the liver, stomach, and bowels, over all of which they exercise the most salutary control. By resorting at an early stage of the malady to these purifying and laxative Pills, the melancholy and jaundiced dyspeptic is speedily restored to health and strength, and his sallowness gradually vanishes.

PEOPLE WHO READ AND REFLECT, after reading, upon the many published testimonials regarding Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, can scarcely fail to perceive that evidence so positive and concurrent could not be adduced in behalf of a remedy of doubtful efficacy. The facts proven by such evidence are that it roots out impurities of the blood, restores digestion, enriches the circulation, and regulates the bowels and liver.

Jacob H Bloomer of Virgil N Y writes "Dr Thomas Eclectric Oil cured a badly swelled neck and sore throat on my son in forty eight hours; one application also removed the pain from a sore toe; my wife's foot was also much inflamed—so much so that she could not walk about the house, she applied the Oil and in twenty four hours was entirely cured."
