PUTTNER'S EMULSION

Has triumphantly marched to the front rank as a Pharmaceutical preparation with victorious results.

READ THE FOLLOWING :

HALIFAX, Oct. 3rd, 1882.

Messrs. Puttner Emulsion Co., Halifax, N.S.

GENTLEMEN—We have pleasure in stating that our sales of your EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL are steadily increasing, amounting now to about a thousand bottles monthly, and that it seems to give universal satisfaction. During our long experience (over fifty years) in the Drug business, we have seldom met with any preparation of similar character which has obtained so large a sale, or so wide a popularity not only with the general public, but amongst Medical Men. These results, we believe, are largely due to the merits of your specialty as well as to the skill with which it is prepared, and the moderate price at which it is supplied to the consumer.

Yours respectfully,

BROWN & WEBB,

Wholesale Druggists, &c.

N.B.—The physicians of Ontario inform our agent, who basically interviewed them that one great advantage PUTTNER'S EMULSION holds over all others is that it is so easily digested, and their delicate patients after rejecting all other Emulsions can retain PUTTNER'S with ease.

The trade can be supplied in Kingston by H. SKINNER, Wholesale Druggist

WARNER'S

FOR THE

KIDNEYS, LIVER AND URINARY ORGANS

THE BEST BLOOD PURIFIER.

There is only one way by which any disease can be cured, and that is by removing the cause—whatever it may be. The great medical authorities of the day do late that nearly every disease is caused by deranged kidneys or liver. To restore these therefore is the only way by which health can be secured. Now is where WARNER'S SAFE CURE has achieved its great reputation. It acts directly on these kidneys and liver and by putting them in a healthy condition drives disease and pain from the system. For all Kidney, Liver and Urinary troubles; for the distressing disorders of women; for Malaria, and fevered troubles generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of impostors, imitations and concoctions said to be just as good.

THE QUAKER GRAVEYARD.

Four straight brick walls, severely plain,
A quiet city square surround
A level space of nameless graves
The Quakers burial-ground.

In gown of gray, or coat of drab
They tread the common ways of life
With passions held in strongest lash,
And hearts that know not strife.

To yon grim meeting house they go,
With thoughts as sober as their speech,
To voiceless prayers, to sunless praise
To hear their elders preach

Through quiet lengths of days that came,
With scarce a change to this repose
Of all life's loveliness they took
The thorn without the rose.

But in the porch and o'er the graves
Glad rings the southward robin's glee,
And sparrows fill the autumn air
With merry matins.

While on the graves of drab and gray
The red and gold of autumn lie,
And wilful Nature dooks the sod
In gentlest mockery.

SHIPPING NEWS

The Outlook for the Season—Probable Increase of Freight—Competition of Railroads.

There is a remarkable absence of definite knowledge of things among vessel-men this spring. No one has had any particular information about anything. An estimable Captain who combines an accurate knowledge of the harbours on the lakes, said the bulk of the prospects depended on the elections. That if one party got returned it would be a benefit; and, if the other fellows were left out it would be a benefit. But seriously he looked for an improvement this season. The late opening of navigation would be an advantage. It would permit of accumulation at shipping points, so that when vessels did sail they would have plenty of freight. And the total business would yield better because vessels would save running expenses during a month of spring when expenses were generally high. Vessels were always taken out too soon in the spring anyway, he said, and if captains would only lie round and keep shippers asking for vessels for a couple of weeks it would do them all good. This spring there are neither shippers looking for vessels nor vessels looking for shippers. It is said that some enquiry has reached a broker here from coal parties at Lake Erie ports, for vessels to contract to carry coal to Canadian ports. But it is understood that the figures of the coal parties would not be looked at by our vessel-men. The fact seems to be that freights will be more abundant this spring than they were last year. Lumber is certain to be in as great quantity. It is said that timber will not be in such quantity as was moved last year. Grain is also certain to be more abundant than it was last spring. Coarse freights from ore, ties, etc., will probably be equal to what they were last year. The question of rates is most important. The general idea is that the opening will be not below what they were in 1882, and that they will be maintained more steadily, because there will be a better demand for carriers to move the excess of freight. In any case the rates can not be lower than they were last year, or it will cause the laying up of the fleet. How expenses will be cannot yet be estimated. Another consideration that is becoming more difficult every year to calculate is the competition of the railroads. There are more rail roads being built than there are vessels being built. These roads must have freights, and where competition with vessels comes into play the railroads generally beat the vessels. For a corporation can afford to carry freight for less than cost, but a vessel-man cannot do so. Still with all the odds against them the vessels seem to have a pretty fair chance this year of making something more than they did last year. The question of running expenses, cost of grub, rates of wages, prices of running gear, oakum, tar, wood, and even canal tolls have not been figured up. But the difference is not likely to be against the vessels.

AN ALLEGED MURDER.

Port Hope, Feb. 26.—On Thursday night last a fearful tragedy was enacted on lot No. 26, 3rd con. of Hope. A man named John Bullen, aged between 85 and 90 years, was living with his wife Bridget, who is some 65 or 70 years of age. They were both pensioners on the township fund and did not live very agreeably together. About 11 o'clock on the night in question the house they lived in was discovered to be on fire, and a couple of neighbours who saw the conflagration got there just as soon as the roof fell in. After some time they discovered the body of the old man in the burning building. They shovelled snow on the place and subdued the fire. On examining the remains it was found that his throat had been cut. The old woman was not near, but was found afterwards in a neighbour's house a quarter of a mile away. She says the old man cut his own throat and fired the house. Coroner Maxwell held an inquest in the B. C. Church, Zion, on Friday, T. M. Welch, foreman, when the jury returned a verdict in substance as follows: "That the deceased came to his death at the hands of his wife Bridget, who had set fire to the house to hide her crime." The old woman was committed under the Coroner's warrant to Cobourg gaol to stand her trial.

A CHIVALRIC WOOER.

The age of chivalry is not past after all. Mlle. Sangalli, premiere danseuse at the Grand Opera, Paris, was very much surprised the other day by receiving a declaration of love and an offer of marriage from her handsome young valet de chambre, who had waited upon her so respectfully and obediently since she had taken him into her service, a few months before. But her astonishment was still greater when he told that he was the wealthy Marquis de R., one of the best parties in Paris, who, for love of her beauty, had resolved to win her heart by fair means or foul, and had thus "stooped to conquer." At last accounts Mlle. Sangalli had still refused to pardon the audacious stratagem, but such a bold wooer will probably not take no for an answer.

Hordoff's And Phosphate in Dyspepsia.

Francis H. Atkins, A. A. Surgeon, U.S.A., says: "For dyspepsia, whether in the lean or corpulent, in nervous debility and in night sweats of consumption, it has commonly given speedy benefit, and some of my army friends are quite enthusiastic about it."

By the way another of the Balaklava "six hundred" has just died. This reduces the ranks to about nine hundred.

ARCTI CAEROSTATICS.

An Interview With Commander Cheyne—Project Not Abandoned—Boreal Ballooning.

Commander Cheyne was interviewed concerning his proposed balloon trip to the North Pole. He said that the plan was by no means abandoned. The matter was brought up in the House of Commons last session, but was ruled out by the Speaker on the ground that a question concerning any grant of money must come from the Government. Sir John A. Macdonald afterwards told Commander Cheyne that he should lecture on the subject through the country for a couple of years as he hardly thought the people were educated up to the mark on that subject. Commander Cheyne's friend then advised him to apply for the command of a contemplated expedition to survey Hudson Bay and Straits for the purpose of ascertaining whether it would be possible to run a line of steamships connecting the great wheat field of the North West Territory with England. This scheme would obviate the necessity of changing cargoes, besides being a much shorter route than via Quebec. The North-West members fell into the idea at once, and intend to push the matter to the uttermost at the present session of Parliament. Sir Leonard Tilley asked the commander to make estimates of the cost of a survey lasting two seasons the probable would be some $70,000. The matter was broached last session in the Commons but while taking up this new work, the other and particular plan of a polar expedition was never for a moment lost sight of, but it was deemed that when the Hudson Bay survey had been successfully completed, that would be a good time to bring the original plan before the House again. The Commander said that the death of Sir Hugh Allan had not altered his plans in anyway, although it had deprived the committee of a chairman. Lieut. Swatka had volunteered to join. The St. Jacobs Oil company had subscribed $6,000 towards the expedition, and when the time came to revive the scheme the Commander felt assured that it would be successful.

ANOTHER HEIR FOUND.

W. C. Anderson who is the alleged heir to $753,000 has been on a terrible tare. He is now in Montreal and was just finishing up a prolonged debauch a few days ago. The heir (Michael K. Anderson) to $2,000,000 has also been discovered in Montreal. The history of the youth is as follows: "Mr. Anderson was born in Paisley, Scotland, in 1842. His parents dying when he was but five years of age he was taken to the County Tyrone in the North of Ireland, by his uncle, Malcolm Ross, who brought him up. In 1864 another uncle, John Ross, went with a number of others to Africa in search of pearls, and three or four years later went to the gold regions in California. This uncle was also godfather to young Anderson, who, in 1870, enlisted in the army, and came to Montreal in 1875 where he has since resided. He has not heard anything from any of his relatives since. He is employed in the Dominion Barbed Wire Works Company, and is said to be a sober, industrious man.

How to Cure a Cold.

Upon the first feeling of chill or shivering remain indoors if possible, bathe the feet in tepid water, gradually increasing the heat as long as it can be comfortably borne, drink freely of warm ginger tea or sage tea to induce perspiration, and take Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam according to directions on the bottle. Hagyard's Balsam cures coughs, asthma, and bronchitis.

Personal, to Men Only.

The Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich., will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts and Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to men (young or old) who are afflicted with nervous debility, lost vitality and manhood, and kindred troubles, guaranteeing speedy and complete restoration of health and manly vigor. Address as above. N.B.—No risk is incurred, as thirty days' trial is allowed.

Biliousness

And all disorders of the Stomach and Liver are corrected by using NORMAN'S ELECTRIC BITTERS. Try one and be convinced. Guaranteed genuine.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Notable Facts.—Intense heat augments the annoyances of skin disease and encourages the development of febrile disorders; wherefore they should, as they may, be removed by these detergent and purifying preparations. In stomach complaints, liver affections, pains and spasms of the bowels, Holloway's unguent well rubbed over the affected part immediately gives the greatest ease, prevents congestion and inflammation, checks the threatening diarrhœa, and averts incipient cholera. The poorer inhabitants of large cities will find these remedies to be their best friend when any pestilence rages, or when from unknown causes eruption boils, abscesses or ulcerations betoken the presence of taints or impurities within the system, and call for instant and effective curative medicine.

It made me feel like a "Band of Music," was the rather forcible expression of an individual who was praising "Pectoria," the great remedy for Coughs and Colds, Hoarseness, Asthma, Bronchitis. It is safe, pleasant, effectual. If you suffer, try it. For sale by all Druggists and general dealers at 25 cents a bottle.

J. S. Wetherald, writing from Winnipeg says: "I can say more about Freezerative now than when I saw you last in Toronto. My health is much improved, and I am free from headaches or any other aches, having only used two and a half bottles of your Phosphatine. For sale by all druggists.

Catarrh is the seed of consumption, and unless taken in time is a very dangerous disease. Hall's Catarrh Cure never fails to cure. Price 75 cents. Sold by J. Geo. King.

The finest mayonnaise dressing for all kinds of salads, cold meats, raw tomatoes, pickled salmon, cabbage, etc., is Durkee's Salad Dressing. Better and more economical than home-made.

One of our best citizens would say to the public that he has tried Hall's Catarrh Cure and it is all that is claimed for it. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by J. Geo. King.

Do not screen from such headache a moment longer. It is not necessary. Carter's little Liver Pills will cure you. One pill is a dose. Try a vial. All druggists sell them.

The depositors of the defunct City Bank, Rochester, receive about 30 per cent.
