A SETTLEMENT.—Yesterday D. Munroe, as adjuster for the Royal Insurance Company, went out to Sydenham and granted to Major Woods his full insurance, $1,000, on the mill burned last week. The loss was scheduled at $1,400. The fire was incendiary, being seen at first in several places.

THE BARRAN 'VIEW was to-day awarded the contract for printing the Queen's College Calendar for the ensuing two years. It has printed the book for several years past. An edition, for intending matriculants, will appear on the 1st of April, as the examinations are to be brought on earlier this year.

PURCHASING A WATCH.—The trotter "Phil Sheridan," which won first money in the three minute race yesterday, has won seven races out of the eight in which he has been entered. With the winnings of "Sheridan" Mr. Horan purchased a magnificent watch and chain. He will surprise his wife when he returns home.

A BAD OFF.—As the morning train from the North was coming into the city the baggage car and coach left the track at the Diamond Crossing. The passengers were taken on a box car and the engine and brought to the station. The accident will cause considerable delay. Workmen are now putting the cars on the track.

COAL CONTRACT.—The contract for furnishing 13,000 tons of coal to the Grand Trunk railway at Brockville next season has been awarded to R. C. Brown, Lyn, a gentleman who has had considerable experience in the same line in previous years. Hall & Co's. fleet of tugs and barges have been secured to bring the consignment here.

SNOW DRIFTS.—A large party of shovellers went out on the K. & P. RR. yesterday to clear the track. They left on the regular morning train, to which two engines were attached. At 1 o'clock Verona was reached. There was much shovelling to be done there in order to get the train through. The storm of the 6th has made many of the country roads impassable.

A TRIPLE MIXED.—Twice last evening the Chairman of the School Board was addressed as "Mr. Mayor," and the Board as "This House." Quite recently a member of the Council addressed Mr. Livingston as "Worshipful Master." Our public men are connected with so many institutions that they must be excused occasionally when they appear to be somewhat mixed.

Taylor, for some 13 years Inspector of engines and boilers, has been superannuated, and in his place Mr. Edward Adams, of the firm of Dawson, Doran and Co., has been appointed. A COAL FAMINE.

The winter has been so exceedingly and steadily cold that the dealers in black diamonds have been "sold out." As long as the supply was abundant it sold at $6.50 per ton, now that the stock has been depleted the price has gone up to $7 per ton. James Swift & Co. state that they have ordered coal from Scranton, Pa., and that it will arrive in cars via Suspension Bridge and also via Brockville. It will cost, delivered in the city, $7.75 per ton, and the other quarter to cart it to the purchasers. The firm are not desirous of putting the price higher, as many persons who must have coal cannot pay extravagant rates. R. Crawford has enough stove coal to last for a few days yet. The Gas Company's stock is about exhausted.

ELECTION ASSAULT.

Evidence of the Attack upon Waldron—Wanting Mr. Gildersleeve—Another Adjournment.

This morning the Rideau Ward assault case was continued. Before the court re-opened Mr McIntyre stated that there had been no attempts made to settle the case, that the approaches had been made from the opposite side. Mr. R. Shaw denied this and distinctly stated that the friends of the defendants had approached him personally and desired a settlement. Further discussion was choked off.

WHAT JAMES CRAWFORD SAW

James Crawford testified that he witnessed the assault on G. R. Waldron by Sleith and Harkness. Witness saw Sleith and Harkness strike Waldron. They were on each side of the sleigh. He jumped into the sleigh and tried to defend Waldron. The horses were then driven ahead. Harkness held to the sleigh and was with difficulty removed. Crawford says he received several blows on the back. Mr. Waldron was perfectly sober.

Cross-examined.—The blows were struck with violence. The blow aimed by Sleith seemed to glance from Waldron's forehead to his shoulder. Witness's attention was wholly occupied in attempting to get Harkness off the sleigh. Waldron did not speak while they were in the sleigh, going from Brock Street to Gordon Street. Witness was asked if Waldron had received any liquor in his shop, but Mr. Shaw objected to the question. It was not pursued. The witness declined to answer.

MAGISTRATE AND COUNSEL HAVE A TILT

Mr. McIntyre was about to ask some questions as to after events, but

The Magistrate objected, as the examination would unnecessarily lengthen the case.

Mr. McIntyre desired to know how Mr. Gildersleeve was mixed up in the case. He certainly would have that gentleman cross-examined before the case closed.

The Magistrate said he could examine Mr. Gildersleeve if he subpœnaed him.

Mr. McIntyre said that the information should be present.

The Magistrate told that any one could lay an information.

The discussion ceased, Mr. McIntyre saying, "We'll see about that."

THREE STRAIGHT WITNESSES.

George Crawford saw the attack made on Waldron by Sleith and Harkness. He saw the blows struck and saw the team drive off. Witness caught Thomas Moore by the arm as he was running after the sleigh. Moore yelled, "Let them have a fair show." Afterwards, at the poll, a conversation occurred. R. Crawford said, "It's a shame for Harkness to pile on Waldron, as Sleith can take care of himself." Harkness replied, "When anyone insults my friends he insults me." Afterwards Sleith, Harkness and Snodden jumped into a sleigh, and one said, "Let us go and kill the——." Witness said the men drove up to the place where Waldron was hiding. (This evidence was ruled out.)

Cross-examined.—Witness saw the blows struck. Harkness' blow seemed to tumble Waldron over.

Crawford's evidence was corroborative as to the occurrence. He saw Sleith and Harkness deliver several blows at Waldron. He related the after circumstances, clearly demonstrating the animus that Sleith and Harkness entertained towards Waldron. Sleith and Harkness had hold of Waldron's clothing.

The cross examination developed the fact that the witness had a better chance to observe the row than any of the others.

A. C. McMahon, Deputy Returning Officer at Polling Division No. 13, saw Waldron in the booth without a cap. He was not under the influence of liquor. He did not see the effects of any violence he had received.

Robert J. Carson did not see the row. Know nothing beyond hearsay.

To Mr. McIntyre witness said the election runners were very riotous in the morning. The case rested here.

AN ADJOURNMENT ASKED FOR.

Mr. McIntyre asked for an adjournment. His witnesses were not all present. An important one, Mr. Snodden, was at the Gleudower iron mines. He asked for an adjournment until after the Assizes.

Mr. Machar protested. The witnesses for the defence present should be heard, and then the adjournment given for Mr. Snodden. It was an unusual proceeding to ask an adjournment at this stage. It gave the defence an opportunity of reading the evidence for the prosecution in the papers and shaping their case in rebuttal.

The Magistrate allowed an adjournment. The further hearing of the case was fixed for Monday, March 10th.

THE WINTER TROT.

RACES THAT WERE REALLY EXCITING AND DELAYS THAT WERE CLEAR LY UNAVOIDABLE.

The People Enjoying Themselves on the Slippery Surface—Winning Animals—Free-for-all a Genuine Contest.

More than a thousand persons and probably one hundred cutters and sleighs were upon the ice yesterday in front of the City Hall. The previous day's observations demonstrated that a man in a linen duster could not be comfortable and yesterday more buffalo coats were noticed than has been seen in company for many a day. The weather was not as cold as on Wednesday but it was cold enough, especially for the judges and reporters who occupied an exalted position. The sun shone brightly during the afternoon and made the scene very favorable. The track was in better condition, too, than the day previous. That it was very hard washboard by the number of shoes the trotters cast, and there were numerous delays while irons were being replaced. During these intervals little episodes occurred and kept the people interested. Early in the afternoon a man went into a fit and his movements were sufficient to attract a huge gathering. He was drawn off the track by a ribbed horse—that is a horse whose ribs were his most prominent characteristic. There was another sensation—a good fight between a little black bull dog and a early mastiff. The bull dog got a fine grip of his big opponent's neck and it required a great deal of pulling to get the animals separated. The bull dog fetched a piece of flesh and hair away with him. Again the dogs met but were easily separated. The little fighter, however, GOT HIS DANDER UP, and though carried away returned when he found an opportunity, and hunted vigorously about for the mastiff. Whether he found him we cannot say, for just at this time a light bay horse, hauling a countryman, drove up in an antiquated trotting sulky. A chair was strapped as a seat. The peculiar rig and driver made the boys shout and crowd around it. The driver was nonplussed and the more he urged his horse on the louder the gamins shouted "Whoa Emma." The horse halted. After unmercifully chaffing the surprised youth escaped. His time will not taken. The only serious occurrence was a collision between the driver of "Dan O'Connell" and "Scholia." The mob was so dense on the track that the horses, coming swiftly from different directions, could not pass, hence the accident. Both rigs were damaged, but not sufficiently to put them out of the races. While "Dan O'Connell" was being extricated a small boy got in the way, was knocked down and pushed out of the way by the trotting sulky. A burly spectator picked up the imp form and conveyed it to the city. Another youth ran against "St. Lawrence Maid." The horse was uninjured, but the youth went spinning out on the track.

RACING BETWEEN LOCAL MEN.

During the delays there was considerable racing between horses not entered on the programme. J. H. Metcalfe M.PP., put his horse to a dead gallop when competing with a friend. The races were good, and better sport has not been had for a long time. Everybody was in good humor, but they smoked bad cigars. The rurabists were out in force, some being present from away back.

FREE FOR ALL RACE.

The first race called was the free-for-all. This was trotted as the horses in the county race were not ready. The following were the entries:

E. Horan, Picton, w.g. "Atwood."
H. Church, Pittsburg, b.g. "Church Boy."
C. W. Bowers, Watertown, N.Y., b.g. "Canard."
S. Lewis, Watertown, N.Y., b.g. "Richard B."
G. McCullough, Three Mile Bay, b.g. "Giles B."
P. Quigley, Brockville, b.g. "Orphan Boy."

Purses $100, $55, and $25.

The ribbons of the only horses that scored were handed as follows: "Richard B." by Steve Lewis; "Atwood" E. Horan; "Canard," G. Howard. The positions were drawn as above, "Robert B." having the pole.

First Heat.—After several false starts the trotters got away in good form. They went like the wind down the track. At the quarter "Atwood" led with "Canard" a good second, "Richard B." a little behind. At the half mile post "Atwood" still maintained his place, but "Richard B." had by running got ahead of "Canard." At the three quarters "Canard" got ahead of "Richard B." again, but was not up to "Atwood." The finish was a fine one. "Atwood" broke when "Canard" went to the front and won by two lengths. Time 2:22. All the horses at times did a little running.

Second Heat.—There were several ineffectual starts. One good one was interrupted by the tinkling of the bell, and the drivers returned. When they did get away they went off finely. On the way to the quarter "Atwood" broke and "Canard" went ahead, but they were close to each other all the way around. At the three quarters they were neck and neck and more beautiful trotting has not been seen on a track. On the home stretch the race was exciting. The horses were even, but when they got into the track lined by men "Atwood" broke and "Canard" won, but by only a few feet. Had "Atwood" not broken he would have won first place. "Where was "Richard B.?" asked one. Well, he was behind, but on the home stretch he made a great trot. He has a springy action that makes him break at times. He closed up on "Atwood" and came in a splendid third. Time 2:21, "Richard B." was said to be "quite rank."

Third Heat.—The horses had considerable trouble in scoring, but finally got away magnificently. They rushed down the track at a lively rate. "Richard B." broke into a run and lost time. "Canard" and "Atwood" were trotting squarely and about neck and neck. They continued in this way past the half mile post and up to the three-quarters, when "Canard" was seen to be leading but by a short space. The horses were put to their utmost speed, but the white could not close the distance and "Canard" won by two lengths, "Richard B." in rear same distance. Time 2:21. This race was the finest of the day. The keen atmosphere gave the trotters life, and they went for all they were worth. The judges' decision was as follows:

"Canard,"	1	1	1
"Atwood,"	2	2	2
"Richard B."	3	3	3

THE COUNTY RACE.

The county race was a long and tedious one. "Johnny B." and "Dan O'Connell" cast shoes at one time, and again, as a heat was about to begin, "Scholia" required the blacksmith's attention. The following horses were entered for the race:

D. Williams, Kingston, b.g. "Dan O'Connell."
W. Carson, Kingston, b.m. "Scholia."
G. Briggs, Wolfe Island, b.g. "Johnny B."
H. Grimshaw, Kingston, "St. Lawrence Maid."

Only four scored. They drew positions as follows: "Dan O'Connell," pole, driver D. Williams; "Scholia," S. Purdy; "Johnny B.," J. Mackie; "St. Lawrence Maid," H. Church. The race was one on which a good deal of money was at.

First Heat.—The horses got off very fairly, "Dan" being well in the rear. In the first quarter "Johnny B" and "Dan" broke, but they went by as we have named them, "Scholia" a good third. During the remainder of the heat they maintained the same positions. "Scholia" and "St. Lawrence Maid" did considerable running. They could not be kept on their feet. Time 2:40.

Second Heat.—The false starts were numerous and very annoying. Finally the horses got away with "Dan" far behind. "Johnny B" went to the front with, "St. Lawrence Maid" second. At the three quarter post, "Johnny B" broke but soon got down to work. On the home stretch "Johnny B" had it all his own way. "Scholia" passed "St. Lawrence Maid" as did also "Dan," the fourth horse breaking frequently. Time 2:34.

Third Heat.—Owing to delays it was nearly 5:30 o'clock when the last heat was called. The ice had been well cleared of the crowd by this time. Just as the animals were coming up for a score the Member for the Provincial House came down the stretch of track, his horse going at a break neck speed. A collision was imminent, but luckily it was avoided. The judges were annoyed. The horses, after this episode, scored several times and finally got away. "Johnny B" went to the front and maintained the lead all the way. He trotted fairly. At the half mile "Dan" broke and "St. Lawrence Maid" passed, but soon again "Dan" went to third place and gained on "Scholia." On the home stretch "Scholia" ran a considerable distance and when near the finish crossed "Dan's" track, shutting that horse off. "Scholia" came in first but was put back to third place for running and jockeying. Time 2:46. The result is thus summarized:

"Dan"	2	2	2
Scholia	3	3	3
"St. Lawrence Maid"	4	4	4

CONCLUSION OF THE SPORT.

The sport concluded about 5:30 o'clock, the company moving homeward as fast as they possibly could. In summing up we find that the general opinion is that the races were successful, that there was nothing done that could be called a "put up job." The Judges decisions were fair and well received.

The Committee having the sports in hand are entitled to praise for the manner they carried them out. Next winter we hope to see races of a similar character, but to continue four or five days.

METHODIST UNION.

The following resolution passed, with out one dissenting voice, by the Kingston District Convention of the M. E. Church, held at Sydenham, March 6th:

Moved by Rev. E. J. P. Sanderson, seconded by Rev. G. A. Bell, that whereas we believe in the principle of Union, especially of Methodist Union; and whereas our last General Conference accepted with such unanimity the proposal, and whereas our sister Churches, by such large majorities among the laity, have also accepted the basis, therefore we express our satisfaction that this grand movement has been so acceptably and harmoniously brought to the present stage, and pray that it may in due time reach a successful and glorious consummation.

GRAND DRESS GOODS MATINEE

—AT—

WALSH & STEACY'S

WE HAVE THE PLEASURE TO ANNOUNCE that our Spring Stock is now complete, and that we will hold Matinees in this Department this day and every day throughout the Spring Season. Dress Goods in style and price away ahead of all previous years. As we anticipate a rush we to carry our season's goods over to another believing in the motto that at low prices are better and cheaper than old goods at any price, we can therefore only show you New Goods. Of these goods we make a specialty, and we can safely say that we have the LARGEST, CHEAPEST AND PRETTIEST STOCK IN KINGSTON.

A visit to our store will convince any lady of this fact. In French Dress Goods we are showing all the Novelties, both as to color and material, prominent among them being the Langtry Sheoddah, Albatross, Panjah, &c. Novel shades, both in shape and color within, in the following New Colors: The Terra Cotta, Tiger Opal and Bear Brown Roses, Elephant, Cardinal Ruby and Cadet Blues, three shades; Brown and Brown Green, new shades, New Magenta, Wine and Crushed Strawberry, Prunes, Prunes, Mere and Sea Green, Brown, four shades, some beautiful New Light Colorings in tones of Fawns, Drabs, Browns and Greys, and many other New Colorings, the prices ranging for these All Wool Goods from 10c to 35c. We also show entire value in all the fashionable shades of Colored Cashmeres.

A special drive age and one which no doubt every lady will appreciate, is that in buying her dress goods from us she can get all the

to match. Among the many Novelties showing this Spring we might mention the New Ottoman Goods in Stripes, Brocades and Polka Dots, both in Silk and Satin Colors, prices being from 60c to $1.00. We are also showing New Colors in Brocaded Satins and Fancy Goods. In Black Dress Goods our stock is replete with all the Newest Materials, including the NEW PIQUE LOUISE, also Henriettes and Lambs Wools.

In spite of the makers and sellers of Dress Goods we regret that our space will only admit of our mentioning but a few of the many novelties and values we have in our stock.
