Two men have been arrested in connection with the incident. According to Halton

Regional Police, the incident occurred around 4:30 p.m. on Friday when the youth was standing outside Hopedale

Smoke and Gift in Hopedale Mall on Rebecca Street. He asked an adult male to buy him cigarettes and gave him money to make the purchase.

The adult bought the cigarettes then had the youth follow him to a vehicle in the parking lot, whereupon the driver got out

He was found by a female resident who called police.

The victim did not suffer any physical injuries.

A man identified as the driver was arrested Friday night.

Emre Jasvir Dhillon, 18, of Burlington, is charged with robbery, forcible confinement and using a weapon for the purpose of committing an offense.

A man believed to be the cigarette purchaser was arrested Monday. Kris Maleckas, 21, of Lakeshore Road West, Oakville, is charged with robbery, forcible confinement and weapons dangerous.
