

Shannon Robinson, Salvation Army Oakville community and family services co-ordinator, left, and Captain Mark Crabb kicked off the Salvation Army Oakville Kettle Campaign at the tree lighting in Towne Square downtown Oakville Friday. | photo by Eric Riehl - Oakville Beaver (Follow on Twitter @halton_photog)

The kettle drive is on for Salvation Army

by Herb Garbutt
Oakville Beaver Staff

For the next month, Salvation Army volunteers will be gathering donations at locations throughout Oakville.

And while the kettles are a staple of the holiday season and do help with initiatives such as the annual Christmas Fellowship Dinner, the money collected will continue to help for months to come.

"The kettle program is very important," said Shannon Robinson, the community and family services co-ordinator for the Salvation Army of Oakville. "It's focused around Christmas, but it

see Kettle on p.14

BETTER THAN BOX STORE
PRICING ON PREMIUM BRANDS

fasada
WINDOWS - DOORS - COVERINGS
Since 1999

2512 Old Bronte Rd.
SE c/o Bronte & Dundas, Oakville
905.827.3331

251 Speers Road
inside House of Concepts, Oakville
905.844.0331

*"we make you look good...
inside and out!"*

fasada.ca

OUR LOWEST PRICES OF THE YEAR!

GET READY FOR CANADIAN TIRE
BLACK FRIDAY

RED THURSDAY

THURSDAY & FRIDAY
OPEN 7 AM!

4 DAYS ONLY!

THURSDAY, NOV 27 TO SUNDAY, NOV 30, 2014

KERR ST & THE QEW
1100 KERR STREET • 905.844.0202

DUNDAS & TRAFALGAR ROAD
400 DUNDAS ST. E. • 905.257.TIRE