MANITOBA NOTES.

What Winnipeg Looked Like a Year Ago and What it Looks Like Now—Inflation Evidence.

Any one having visited Winnipeg a year ago would have noticed that great activity prevailed in every part of the city at that time. The streets were thronged with immigrants and strangers daily arriving, business was active, many fine buildings were in course of erection, and property was changing owners at extravagant high prices. Since then great changes have taken place. Very few sales of property are now being made, no one caring to purchase at the inflated prices hitherto obtained. Business is exceedingly depressed and many failures are taking place. There are but few buildings put up in the business part of the city, but on lots distant from the centre of the city are to be seen fine private residences, which are being built in the modern style of architecture and with all the latest improvements. The finest of these are on the property known as Armstrone's point, within the limits of the city, where the building lots have been laid out along the bank sloping to the Assiniaboine River. Some of the buildings are being erected at a cost of from $30,000 to $70,000 each. They are owned by gentlemen who have accumulated great wealth from the sale of lots during the boom of the past three or four years.

The city is well laid out and covers a great area of land. Evidently it has been expected to become a second New York or Chicago. Hence the inflated prices obtained without waiting for the time to arrive to warrant such a course, which no doubt in a great measure is the cause of the present depressed state of affairs in the new city. The inflation has had to exorbitant rents being charged, rents far beyond any business being able to bear. As soon as the value of property and rents are reduced to a proper value business will revive and again become active. Winnipeg is destined to become a large and important city.

Manitoba promises to be a great province for the growing of wheat and other grain for foreign markets, as well as for local consumption. The land, properly drained and cultivated, is exceedingly rich. Vegetation grows very rapidly. All the crops this year looks remarkably well and promising. The yield will be large if nothing occurs to injure the grain before harvesting.

Immigrants are flowing into the country in large numbers and pass on to the North West without spending their money in Winnipeg, where everything is expensive. It is just the country for industrious young men who desire to follow agricultural pursuits. They, however, would have to make up their minds to endure hardships and privations for a time as must be expected in any new country.

WICKED PARSONS.

Two cases are reported by the last English mail. The Rev. John Robinson, R.D., of St. John's, near Ryde, was charged, for the fourth time, at Ryde Police Court, with having been drunk and assaulting the police. After creating a disturbance outside his house up to midnight he assaulted a lady at whose house he lives. He was sentenced to seven days hard labour.

At Houghton le Spring Petty Sessions the Rev. John Dodd, vicar of Lumley, was charged with assaulting a churchwarden named Chapman, who also acted as assistant overseer and poor rate collector. Complainant, who is sixty-nine years of age, went to the vicar to collect the rate, when defendant seized him by the shoulder and dragged him about, saying he would have no rogues there. In cross-examination it appeared the vicar had gone to complainant's house previously, and was so abusive that complainant took up the poker to him. The bench fined the vicar 10s. and costs.

SILENCE AT THE LUNCH TABLE.

"I have made it a rule through life," he said at the lunch table the other day to the man at his left, "never to meddle with another man's business."

"That's right—perfectly right," was the reply.

"But I see you have a confidential clerk."

"Yes, sir, yes."

"He's a hard-looking case. I've seen him drunk a dozen times, and I wouldn't trust him out of my sight with a nickel. Took him out of charity, eh?"

"Well, not altogether, you know; he happens to be my oldest son."

Then there was a period of silence so painful that both wished some one would yell "fire!" to break it.—Wall Street News.

ROSS-HANLAN.

The Haliguian on the Forthcoming Race—The Betting in Favour of the Little Champion.

With a reporter of the Montreal Herald Ross, the oarsman, has had a talk, and the following is taken from the published report of it.

"Ross, who is training you for the coming race?"

"I have no trainer. My brother Edward is with me to assist me with the boats, etc., but I think I have had as much experience in training as any other man. Hanlan not excepted. There is no mystery about training. There are certain foods you must eat and certain things you must not eat. You are sick if eating food beef and mutton, vegetables, beans and peas, eggs, etc. I don't do a great deal of walking or running, but expect to row about ten miles a day. As for drinks, I take tea and coffee and occasionally ale, but no spirits."

"Well, will you tell us whether you are going to defeat Hanlan?"

"I wish I knew that myself. I would tell you with pleasure. Hanlan is a good one, and I will do my best to defeat him."

"You must be careful about over eating, Ross. They said you ate plum pudding in Halifax the day you rowed a race there, and lost the race in consequence. How was that?"

"Well, I can only say that if there was plum pudding at my boarding house in Halifax I never saw it."

"But the story is that you went to the Halifax Hotel, and had a great tuck out?"

"Oh, that is one of the stories they always tell after races to account for defeat. There is no truth in it. When I go to a hotel I guess I know what suits me and what to avoid."

"There is a suspicion, Ross, that you and Hanlan won't row, after all?"

"Well, it won't be my fault if we don't row. I have come up to row, and I guess the race will come off all right."

"But Hanlan is off to Boston and elsewhere. How is that?"

"Well, he keeps in practice all the time. It pays him to go around. He makes a great deal of money by going from place to place, and it is not the same as if he got out of condition and was neglecting his practice."

"What about the betting, Ross?"

"Before I left St. John the betting men were offering 100 to 2 on Hanlan. I dare say he will be a hot favourite at 5 to 1. There is always a lot of sporting men with plenty of money following Hanlan; no such men follow me."

"Well, 5 to 1 seems to be rather big odds to give on any man."

"It is, but then Hanlan has a great reputation."

"It is five years since your last match race with Hanlan, is it not?"

"Yes, it is, this summer. I have met him since then in regattas."

"What was the matter with the boat that capsized with you at that time on the Kennebecassis."

"She was too small for me, the boat that had been ordered for me from England had not arrived, and at the last moment I had to go over to Halifax and get a boat which Warren Smith had, but which he had discarded."

This is about all that Wallace Ross had to say about boat racing, he being very far removed from a boaster, but he has evidently plenty of confidence in himself.

Painless and Prompt.

PUTNAM'S PAINLESS CORN EXTRACTOR, the great remedy for corns, is absolutely safe and painless, does its work promptly, without the least interfering with the comfort of patients, and is absolutely alone as a safe, pain less remedy for corns. Do not be imposed upon by dangerous counterfeits. Use only Putnam's Corn Extractor. Beware of base substitutes. Sold everywhere by druggists and dealers in medicine. Take only Putnam's Painless Extractor. N. C. Polson & Co., props., Kingston.

The Boundary Line

Between comfort and discomfort is often very slight. Have you rheumatism or neuralgia? or are you a sufferer from obscure nervous pains? Why suffer longer? You can purchase for 10 cents a bottle of that king of pain, Polson's Nervoline, or you can get a large bottle for 25c. It cures promptly. It is sure, pleasant to take, and never fails to cure all kinds of pain. Don't wait an hour, but send to Polson's or King's drug stores and get a trial bottle. Nervoline, the pain cure.

Why Be Downcast?

True, you may be in a miserable condition—you may be weak, pale, and nervous. You cannot sleep at night, nor enjoy your waking hours; yet, why lose heart? Get a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters. It will restore you to health and peace of mind.

An Excellent Report.

Hon. Jos. G. Goodridge, of Brooklyn, N.Y., writes: "I cannot express myself in sufficiently praiseworthy terms of Burdock Blood Bitters which I have used for the past two years with great benefit."

Take Your Choice.

You can be weak, nervous, debilitated and despondent, disqualified for work of head or hand, or you can enjoy a fair share of health and peace of mind. Burdock Blood Bitters will alleviate your misery and do you a world of good if you will persevere in their use a few weeks.

First Rate Evidence.

"Often unable to attend business, being subject to serious disorder of the kidneys. After a long siege of sickness, tried Burdock Blood Bitters and was relieved by half a bottle." Mr. B. Turner, of Rochester, N.Y., takes the pains to write.

Mr. Thos. Elliott, carpenter, St. Thomas, says my wife has long been troubled with Constipation. She has used a great many so-called cures, but without doing her any lasting good. Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters cured her and she thinks it the best medicine ever made. For sale by all druggists everywhere, in large bottles at 50c.

Be Advised in time, and do not allow what may appear to you as a simple back ache now, to run into a disease of the kidneys, which invariably proves fatal in the end. Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure will at once ease your pain and positively prevent these unfortunate results. Take it at once. Any druggist will have it.

THE Most frightful scourge of humanity is Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. Commencing with a little pain in the back, it hurries the sufferer to a premature grave. Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure is the only known remedy that prevents the fatal result. Take it in time.

SUTHERLAND JOHNSTON, a Sarnia druggist, has sold an enormous quantity of Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters. He says they give splendid satisfaction. They act promptly in relieving all disorders of the Stomach, Liver or Kidneys and are the "Best Blood Purifier." For sale by all druggists at 50c a bottle.

SAMSON lost his strength with his hair. Thousands of men and women lose their beauty with theirs, and very large numbers restore the ravages of time by using the famous Cingalese Hair Restorer. Sold at 50 cents per bottle by all druggists.

The well known strengthening properties of iron, combined with other tonics and a most perfect nervine, are found in Carter's Iron Pills, which strengthen the nerves and body, and improve the blood and complexion.

Edison's Electric Light is a wonderful discovery, but not as wonderful as Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sold by all druggists.

It destroys the microscopic whose presence alone is the cause of these disorders, and always produces a clear healthy natural condition of the skin. Sulpholine Lotion is sold by all druggists, a bottle, 3s. 6d., made by J. TETTER & CO. London, Eng.
