THE CHURCH SCANDAL.

That Terrible Fight in a Baptistry Turns Out to be a Hoax—The Circumstances.

On Monday evening the Hartford, Conn., Times by a blunder of types and proof-reading, announced that the Rev. Dr. Parker had on Sunday baptized a number of children in the South Baptist Church. Of course it meant to say "Congregational" instead of "Baptist," and the error caused some amusement in church circles. The editor was probably called upon to explain the unique occurrence, and, thinking the joke worth cultivating, the Times on Tuesday evening contained an imaginative description of the manner in which Dr. Parker and the members of the South Church had captured the South Baptist Church by surprise, for baptismal purposes. It even went so far as to depict a personal struggle between the two pastors, during which they tumbled into the tank and were rescued with difficulty. There were elements of humor in the narrative, and had it been sent to the Monday noon ministers' meeting it would doubtless have created much amusement. Unfortunately, the Times neglected to send around a special messenger with its issue to explain that the story was a joke, and not a few persons really imagined that some of the events recorded had actually taken place. To make it worse, a stupid "special correspondent" in this city, evidently swallowing the story at one gulp, telegraphed it with heavy embellishments to daily papers in New York, Chicago, and probably elsewhere. A New York morning paper came out with the startling head lines "Death-Lock in a Font—Desperate Hartford Clergymen Fight Until Nearly Drowned in a Church—Congregations Engaged in Battle—Little Children's Lives Supposed to Have Been Lost—The Rescue and Reconciliation." Telegrams began to arrive asking for the facts in the case, and wondering why such a startling piece of news had not been sent by Associated Press. It is much easier to set such a ball in motion than to stop it, and for some time the newspapers of the south and west will contain the remarkable story, with moralizing comments upon the condition of society in Connecticut. Probably the editors of the Times were more surprised than any one else at the result of their little attempts at facetiousness, and will sincerely regret that any annoyance should be caused by it.

A JEWISH TRAGEDY.

A Father's Anger and How it was Satisfied—Abducted and Horribly Killed.

In the winter of 1875-6 a young Russian, a member of the Orthodox Church, and a young Jewess, named Umjausky, desired to marry. She must be baptized before a legal marriage could be contracted, and her father was furious at the bare suggestion of her becoming a Christian. At last the young people ran away to Kieff, where the girl was formally received in the Christian Church. A day was fixed for the marriage, and the bridegroom went into the city from the village where they had taken up their abode in order to make the last purchases. On his return the bride had disappeared. After a vain search, the distracted lover applied to the police, but they could not discover the least trace of her. He became reserved, moody, and at last hanged himself. When the ice melted, the waters of the Dnieper bore to the bank a heavy sack, in which were fragments of a dismembered female body, which with some difficulty was identified as that of the missing Jewess. One of the chief police officers at Kieff set himself to unravel the mystery, and, after years of patient inquiry and toil, he has lately succeeded in doing so. Her father had traced the fugitive to Kieff, and, discovering that she had become a Christian, resolved that he should die. He secured the assistance of six men, who, during the fatal absence of her lover, carried her off, killed her, chopped the body into pieces, and, having put them in a sack, tumbled them into the Dnieper. The winter's ice secreted them from discovery for months at least. Five of the murderers have been found, and, with the father, tried and condemned to death. Search is still being made for the missing sixth man.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS will be found the best friend to persons afflicted with ulcerations, bad legs, sores, abscesses, fistulas, and other painful and complicated complaints. Printed and very plain directions for the application of the Ointment are wrapped round each pot. Holloway's alterative Pills should be taken throughout the progress of the cure, to maintain the blood in a state of perfect purity, and prevent the health of the whole body being jeopardised by the local ailments; bad legs, old age's great grievances, are thus readily cured, without confining the patient to bed or withdrawing from him or her the nutritious diet and generous support so imperatively demanded when weakening diseases attack advanced years or constitutions vitiated by premature decrepitude.

The Algoma Election.

This election is now on the tapis. It may perhaps be a useful hint to intimate that an absolute lead at the polls may be obtained by the judicious distribution to the electors of Putnam's Corn Extractor, the great remedy for corns. Every sufferer would be made happy, and would certainly vote for the person affording him relief. Safe, sure, painless. Beware of dangerous substitutes. They are now being offered as "just as good." Use only Putnam's. For sale at N. C. Polson's drug store.

William David

is now in business again keeping a boot and shoe store in the place formerly occupied by Mr. Dennis, next to Robinson's carriage shop. Wm. David has on hand a large assortment of household goods. All he wants is the people to come in; he is sure to sell. He has a lot of new clothing, Navy, blue and diagonal pants $1.80. 200 doz. watch crystals at 10 cts each.

Palpitation of the Heart is quicked more by one of Norman's Electric Belts than can be done by any other remedy. Ask for Norman's; take no other. Every one guaranteed genuine. Sold at the Pharmacy, 165 Princess Street, by W. J. Wilson.

Why Be Incurable?

Impaired vigor of mind and body, in both male or female, old or young, cured by the timely use of Dr. E. C. West's Nerve and Brain Treatment. Sold by W. J. Wilson.

There is no one article in the line of medicine that gives so large a return for the money as a good person strengthening plaster, such as Carter's Smart Weed and Belladonna Backache plasters.

Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters remove constipation, relieve dizziness, depress sick headaches, abolish biliousness, and regulate the stomach, liver and bowels.

ADVERTISING CHEATS!!!

"It has become so common to write the beginning of an article in an elegant, interesting manner.

"Then run it into some advertisement that we avoid all such.

"And simply call attention to the merits of Hop Bitters in as plain, honest terms as possible.

"To induce people

"To give them one trial, which so proves their value that they will never do anything else."

"Ten Barnum so favorably noticed in all the papers.

"Religious and secular, is "Having a large sale, and is supplanting all other medicines.

"There is no limiting the virtues of the Hop plant, and the proprietors of Hop Bitters have shown great shrewdness.

"And ability

"In compounding a medicine whose virtues are so palpable to every one's observation.

Did She Die?

"No.

"She lingered and suffered along, paying away all the time for years."

"The doctors doing her no good."

"And at last was cured by this Hop Bitters the papers say so much about."

"Indeed! Indeed?"

"How thankful we should be for that medicine."

A Daughter's Misery.

"Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery.

"From a combination of kidney, liver, rheumatic trouble and nervous debility.

"Under the care of the best physicians.

"Who gave her disease various names.

"But no relief.

"And now she is restored to us in good health by as simple a medicine as Hop Bitters, that we had shunned for years before using it."—THE PARENTS.

Father is Getting Well.

"My daughters say:

"How much better father is since he used Hop Bitters."

"He is getting well after his long suffering from a disease declared incurable."

"And we are so glad that he used your Bitters."—A LADY OF UTICA, N.Y.

Street Talk.

"How much better you look, Mr. S."

"Yes, I have gained 32 pounds on Hall's Catarrh Cure. Have not felt so well in 20 years. It has made a complete cure and is worth $50 a bottle to any one that has the Catarrh."

An Excellent Report.

Hon. Jos. G. Goodridge, of Brooklyn, N.Y., writes: "I cannot say too much of such a sufficiently praiseworthy remedy as Burdock Blood Bitters which I have used for the past two years with great benefit."

BE ASTUTE in time, and do not allow what may appear to you as a simple backache now, to run into a disease of the kidneys, which invariably proves fatal in the end. Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure will at once ease your pain and positively prevent these unfortunate results. Take it at once. Any druggist will have it.

THE MOST frightful scourge of humanity is Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. Commencing with a little pain in the back, it hurries the sufferer to a premature grave. Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure is the only known remedy that prevents the fatal result. Take it in time.

SAMSON lost his strength with his hair. Thousands of men and women lose their beauty with theirs, and our large numbers restore the ravages of time by using the famous Cingalese Hair Restorer. Sold at 50 cents per bottle by all druggists.

DYSPEPSIA.—The name strikes a chill to a mother's heart as she realizes what a dangerous malady it is. With a bottle of Pain-Killer in the house she feels that she has a still more powerful cure, and half the terror is destroyed.

CUTICURA.—A name well known in connection with the Hair Renewer, which restores grey hair to its natural color by a few weeks use. Sold at 50 cents a bottle by all druggists.

Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters tone the system of the poisonous humours that develope into Kidney and Urinary diseases, giving tone and vigor to the Stomach and purify the blood.

Johnson's Electric Light is a wonderful discovery, but not as wonderful as Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sold by all druggists.

A CARD

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE.
