Office per Orkom Dunn.

THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 9, 1883.

We believe with the Globe that it is no use now for both parties in different ridings to say that they were unaware of the effect of the Ontario statute and start to set off one election petition against another. Either they should have never been prosecuted. This system of trading savours too much of compounding quasi-felony. It does not follow that because there is seemingly no political effect likely to be produced by the trial of these election petitions that the interests of public morality and elecpurity are to be forgotten.

RAT PORTAGE ROW.

Hon. Mr. Norquay says he still not allow Ontario to exercise jurisdiction in Rat Portage, that if the officials of the Provincial Government attempt to administer authority he will consider it a decided interference with the peace and have them arrested. The Ontario officials are not boasting of what they can and will do, but they may give the burly Premier of Manitoba a surprise when next he plays the rough and leads in a kidnapping scheme. They have just as much power to make a prisoner of him as he has to make prisoners of them. He says Manitoba has all to say at Rat Portage, that the Province has held Court in the disturbed municipality since 1881. He forgets that Ontario exercised jurisdiction from an earlier date, that 'as far back as 1878, four or five years before he became the willing instrument of Sir John, this Province gave liberal grants for educational purposes. Norquay never pretended that Manitoba law should rule in Rat Portage until the idea was put in his head by that wily politician at Ottawa who is continually prating of his love for fair play and scruples at nothing in order to help him in a party sense and annoy an opponent. A word as to the origination of the Rat Portage row. Mr. Norquay says that the Ontario officials are to blame for all the trouble that has taken place. As an offset to this untruth we cannot do better than give the statement of his Chief Constable, the man who helped, officially, to kidnap three or four men and carry them off to Winnipeg. Replying to a question as to the state of matters out there Mr. Constantine said:

"The whole thing amounts simply to a drunken spree, in which the intoxicated men raided the gaol and released the prisoners."

"Then you don't think the Ontario officials had anything to do with the matter?"

"No more than I had. Some men were on a big drunk, were excited, and determined to release their friends."

"Do you anticipate further trouble?"

"No, I don't think there will be any fighting. The men seem to have become quiet and got over their drunk, and I guess matters will be quiet enough now."

A NEGLECTED SHOW.

Our attention has been drawn to a matter which has a Provincial interest—the unpardonable neglect of some one or some Committee to have our Provincial Exhibition properly advertised. It was a notorious fact, discovered too late to be remedied, that last year the country was flooded with posters and hand bills announcing the attractions of "Canada's Great Fair," while many in the rural sections were in absolute ignorance of the date for the opening of the Provincial. Now if those managing and controlling the Provincial were live men, who profited by experience, they would not have spared the printers' ink this season, and yet what do we find? That although the exhibition occurs next month the Directors are still drowsy. They have done something, but they have not performed all the duty required of them. They have not imitated the Toronto showmen in placarding the highways and byways with announcements which he who runs may see and clearly read, and whereas in some twenty prize lists issued by different Agricultural American Associations, the fullest information is again imparted anent Canada's Greatest, in but one instance have we an intimation of what may be expected under Provincial auspices at Guelph. After contemplating such a circumstance we can have but one inference—that the days of the perambulating establishment are numbered. This is not a result over which we can rejoice. Kingston cannot hope to compete with Toronto and hold a "greater" exhibition than the so called "greatest," but it will probably be favored by the Provincial, as its turn comes, and so our citizens desire to see it encouraged and supported and made a success. We must say, however, that the directors should be censured for a lack of energy in the advertising line. The fair cannot receive too much publicity. Upon the manner in which it is "talked up" depends in a large measure its success in September—and indeed its life or death. The sooner this fact is realized the better.

ENCAMPMENT PARADE.

At eleven o'clock the Toronto and Kingston encampment paraded the principal streets in Ottawa, headed by the Prescott band, the band of the 43rd Battalion, Ottawa, and the St. Anne's Band, Ottawa. In the afternoon the members of the Order, and, in fact, a large number of citizens of Ottawa and the surrounding district, repaired to the Dominion Parc, late Exhibition Grounds, to partake in a grand demonstration. The event in the programme was the drill competition for which there were only two entries, Toronto and Kingston. The Kingston men were satisfied that Toronto was ahead of them and they did not desire to compete. The Toronto boys carried away the $200. The Kingstonians did not come home empty handed. They received $100 for attending. They had a pleasant outing.

A CASUAL OPINION.

A Hamilton Correspondent Gives his Impression of Kingston—What he Saw and Knows.

A correspondent gives his impressions of Kingstonto the Hamilton Times: We sighted the domes and towers of the limestone city. As we neared it gradually the open lake seemed to close its banks upon us. The distant haze grew clearer and clearer; the broad outlines of the distant shore slowly resolved themselves into hills and fields and trees; and soon we were gliding past cosy farm houses and straggling country roads. All are on deck as we entered the Lake of the Thousand Islands, stretching away to the east before us, like a clear azure sky richly dappled with fretted clouds on a fair May morning. Garden Island, a species of outlying sentry, was soon passed. As far as could be judged from the deck it well deserves its name. Nearly opposite the smiling fields of this island rise the green turrets and stretch the long walls of the Provincial Penitentiary, and near at hand is the Asylum. It may fairly be said, I think, that as far as growth is concerned Kingston is one of the least progressive of the cities of Ontario. The country around will never make it, like Hamilton and London, an agricultural centre. Its manufactories obstinately refuse to grow. Even its shipping interests are declining. Its main hope, apparently, lies in the opening up of the mineral resources of Eastern Ontario and in the supply of splendid stone for building purposes. How far these may one day assist her time alone can tell; but under any circumstances Kingston can never be wanting in interest to the visitor. From a military point of view some contend this city is our first effective defence in the Western Province from an invasion of our neighbors. The old fort that frowns over the water with its long lines and mounted cannon remind us of this, as do also the round towers arising here and there in its immediate vicinity. Then Kingston is intimately associated with Count Frontenac and the early days of Canada. It will be remembered it was the erection of the fort at Cataraqui that was to awe the refractory tribes to submission to the fleur-de-lis of France. The Count was successful in this, but we can only wonder that one so far-sighted and able should not rather have sought to rectify the fatal error of Champlain in making enemies of the Iroquis by the Algonquin-Huron alliance. That blunder filled New France with terror and bloodshed for well nigh a hundred years; that blunder met only its just reward when Sir William Johnson, at the head of the dusky Six Nation braves, stormed Fort Niagara, drove the foe from its shattered battlements, and forged with the gallant Forbes, of the Ohio Valley, that impassable chain that shut Montcalm in the cage where he was soon overthrown by the arms of the victorious Wolfe.

The allusions to our position and prospects show how little some correspondents know what they are talking about. We have not been aware that there has been a decline in our shipping—that Kingston is more affected in a dull season than other ports—and that our hopes of greatness depend upon the use of limestone. But the Times correspondent, who was in the city perhaps 20 minutes or an hour and talked with some one who knew as much about certain things as he did himself, speaks authoratively, and of course the matter is settled.

POLICE COURT.

The Magistrate sentenced John F. Trayne, convicted of stealing a watch from John Strickhan, to one year in the Central Prison. Trayne's story was not believed.

Hugh Mannel, of Pittsburg, was fined $4 for drunkenness, and John McGuinnis, an old man, was dismissed for the same offence.

John Gaskin, Jas. Richardson, E. Chetterton and Stratford were charged with erecting wooden buildings contrary to by-law. All the cases were adjourned.

Thomas Flynn, a resident of Barrie Street, had one Margaret Spence, charged with assaulting his son. The case was a trivial one to the ordinary spectator, but an enormous affair in the estimation of the prosecutors. Adjourned. The row originated by the fighting of some little boys.

A GENERAL DISCUSSION.

Rev. F. McCuaig's letter to the papers last evening caused considerable discussion on the streets. Members of the Council assert that the Sabbath Reformation Society had no right to send the communication to them. One said, While we pay the police salaries we have no more control of them than Rev. Mr. McCuaig. A Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals prosecute people for offences and a Sabbath Society should do the same; the Council men in one group were applauded for the gallant way in which they went to the defence of the Salvation Army. Several persons particularly rejoiced over the remarks of Alds. Allen, Gildersleeve and McGuire.

EXTREMELY PICTURESQUE.

We would remind our readers of the steamer Hero's usual Saturday cheap excursion to the Camp Ground and sail through the Islands past Alexandria Bay. The route chosen is an excellent one, in fact it is one of the prettiest and cheapest yet offered the citizens of Kingston, and it will take this fast and elegant steamer six hours to complete the trip. One full hour will be given excursionists at the Thousand Island Park, returning to Kingston prompt at 8 p.m. Sammy will furnish an excellent tea at a moderate price. Tickets only 25c.

ACCIDENT AT MURDOCH SPRINGS.

On Tuesday George Compers, of Kingston, while engaged in Richardson's mill, Murdock Springs, St. Lawrence County, sustained a painful accident. One hand came in contact with a saw at which he was engaged. All the fingers were injured, the two middle ones being badly mutilated. Mr. Compers arrived here to-day and placed himself under the treatment of Dr. Lavell, who thinks he can save the little and index fingers and the thumb.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

Andrews was committed last night, in Toronto, for the murder of Mooney. A crowd threatened lynching.

ODDFELLOWSHIP.

Meeting of the Grand Encampment Independent Order—Grand Patriarch's Address.

Ottawa, Aug. 7.—The Grand Encampment of the Independent Order of Oddfellows began its session at 10 o'clock this morning in the City Hall. After the introduction of delegates the various reports and general business was taken up.

The Most Worshipful Grand Patriarch, W. D. Gordon, presented his report, which was complete and satisfactory. It showed that two new encampments had been added to the number since last year's meeting, viz.: Ontonabee Encampment, No. 33, Ottawa, last March, and Mizpah, No. 34, in Surrey, in June. The Sovereign Grand Lodge at its last session adopted a degree for Uniformed Patriarchs, and, following this, applications were received from Hamilton, London, Kingston and St. Thomas, which were instituted in the following order: Hamilton, on 14th February; London, on 21st February; St. Thomas, on 22nd February, and Kingston on 28th February. A number of Encampments applied for dispensations to enable them to confer more than one degree on the same brother at the same meeting, and believing that the convenience of the brethren and the good of the Order would be promoted in so doing, leave had been granted to all that had applied. The Auditors had been re-appointed. After acknowledging many courtesies and valuable aid extended the report continued: "It is gratifying to note that the patriarchal branch of the Order is in a very satisfactory condition. The increase in membership for the past year has been greater than in any former year; the various Encampments are in good financial condition and in perfect harmony with each other. I trust that this state of prosperity may be lasting, and that, like a vigorous shoot, the Order may go on from strength to strength until its roots are firmly fixed in the hearts of the people and vigorous branches are spread over the whole jurisdiction.

Grand Scribe and Treasurer M. D. Dawson presented his report, showing that while there were 2,826 members at the last annual meeting there were now 2,330. During the year 257 had been initiated, and 53 called away by death. The number of patriarchs relieved was 247, and the number of widows 5. The total amount paid for relief was $3,462.48, while the total revenue was $2,240.38. The receipts had been larger than during previous years.

The new officers elected are—M. Urquhart, Strathroy, G. P.; J. P. Oliver, Toronto, G.H.P.; John Welsh, Stratford, G.S.W.; M. D. Dawson, London, G.S., Frank Rabbit, G.J.W.; John Gibson, Stratford, G. Rep. Sovereign Grand Lodge, Frank Rabbit, London, G.J.W.

HAPPY AND CONFIDENT.

The telegraphers on strike in Kingston sent the following message to the Toronto branch of the Brotherhood yesterday:

"We left up again happy and confident. Everything solid, and greatly encouraged by gladdening reports received."

DUTIES OF THE OFFICERS.

One of the Health Officers says he does not know what his duties are, and that before he will, without pay, get into a suit with the citizens, he must have them defined. This paragraph is commended to the attention of the City Solicitor.

A FEARFUL RAILSPIKE.

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 8.—A half-eaten passed down the Minneapolis Valley on Tuesday night with great destruction to freight property. Near Gladbrook Mrs. Lawson was killed and other persons wounded by the wrecking of houses. The loss will probably exceed half a million.

STILL IN DISPUTE.

The Telegraphers' Strike Continues—Reports That the Wires Have Been Cut.

New York, Aug. 8.—Last night it was reported that 20 wires of the Western Union were cut on one poles and 14 on another between Passaic and Elizabethport. There were wires to points in the Southern Division. Twenty of the Mutual Union wires were cut between the Bridge and Scarsdale. At Tarrytown 22 Hudson River wires are down, and 28 wires in the Eastern circuits are destroyed between Port Chester and Greenwich. The cross-arms were sawed off in the last instance, and the wires cut besides. These wires interfered with others across which they fell. The greatest confusion was created. It is estimated that when the wreck began this morning half the wires to Philadelphia and a quarter of those to the West were down. One-third of the Eastern circuits could not be used. The total number of wires cut was 88. Nearly 300 were rendered useless. A telegram from Fort Washington says that a gang of men interfered with the linemen repairing wires there, and police protection is asked in case the interference is repeated. The Western Union employed detectives to ferret out the perpetrators. The Brotherhood of Telegraphers emphatically deny the cutting being done by striking linemen.

PRESS DISPATCH THIS MORNING.

The Brotherhood of Telegraphers still claim that the railroad operators have generally struck, while the railroad officials as persistently deny the reports. The Herald predicts that the reckless linemen will become desperate soon and cut the Western Union wires. It says a few of them could isolate New York city and paralyze business. The penalty for interfering with the wires is imprisonment for not more than two years. The Herald says an operator named Sheldon asserts that the strikers enticed him into a saloon on Saturday night and drugged him and the police arrested him for intoxication. He charges that the police sympathize with the strikers. The Western Union assert that the receipts of the Company last week showed a falling off of 15 per cent. from the weekly receipts just preceding the strike.

NEWS FROM THE BROTHERHOOD.

Buffalo, N.Y.—Another good operator is taken from the Western Union last night. The Company is trying hard to break us up, but without success. We are more determined than ever.

Toledo, Ohio.—23 went out, 23 are still out and will remain out till Campbell blows his horn. Very encouraging reports from all quarters.

Chicago.—The morning mail brings us a bushel of letters from every point, Ogden, Cheyenne, San Francisco and everything west, east, north and south, solid as can be. The situation here has not changed materially. No accession from our ranks, but we have captured a few from the enemy. Saturday one of the so-called operators was sending business to New York. When the wire gave out he informed the chief operator of the fact an I was told to send all business to Buffalo. He immediately changed the addresses of all the business addressed to different points in the East to "Buffalo." The error was not discovered until the office messages began coming back calling for better addresses. This is a sample of the talent now employed by the Company and of how business is being handled, notwithstanding the fact that the Company persist in saying that everything is going smoothly and no delay in handling business.

The Knights of Labour gave a pic-nic for the benefit of the telegraphers. The proceeds were over $1,000. At a meeting of delegates from 22 Trades Union the following resolution was passed: "Resolved, that in the present strike the patriotic men and women of the country are in honor bound to extend their sympathy and material support to the operators."

Toronto.—The Telegraph Company paid a lady operator, discharged from the Dominion Telegraph office for incompetency, $48 for ten days' work. They have got all the floating talent to be found, and these new out are stayers for ever and determined to win.

Hamilton.—Remains unchanged and the boys confident.

MECHANICS ON STRIKE.

New York, Aug. 9.—The Executive Committee of the Building Trade gave link a notice to all the bosses to employ none but union men. At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Allied Building Trades Union, last night, a strike of 200 mechanics, working on the new opera house, was ordered because the Superintendent refused permission to the Union Committee to go through the building to ascertain if non-union men were employed. A strike of over 100 workmen on the new Produce Exchange building was also ordered because non-union plumbers were being employed. There is also a strike of 30 men on the new buildings where non-unionist cutters are employed. It is expected that many other strikes will follow.

TERRIBLE DROWNING ACCIDENT.

Sorel, Que., Aug. 8.—A sad accident occurred at Tamanda this morning. A fishing party, composed of Mrs. Ladieur and her three children, and Chief Paradis' two sons, were on their way down the river in two small boats, which were hitched on to the steamer Sorel. One of the boats next to the steamer became unmanageable, causing the other next to come upon. Both capsized, precipitating the occupants into the water. Mrs. Ladieur clung to one of the boats and grasped two of her children; the other, with Chief Paradis' two sons, were drowned. The two young men were the only sons of Mr. Paradis and were aged 18 and 20. They were students at the Montreal College, where they distinguished themselves at the last examination.
