

SWAG hosting series of financial events starting March 12

The Seniors Working Action Group (SWAG) is hosting a series of three financial events for seniors in collaboration with the Canadian Bankers Association and the Financial Consumer Agency of Canada.

The free events will be held on three successive Thursdays starting March 12.

The first session will tackle the topic of Cash Management for Seniors.

It will focus on understanding how needs change over time, dealing with debt and expecting the unexpected.

The events will be held at the Queen Elizabeth Park Recreations and Culture Centre, 2302 Bridge Rd., in the older adult room.

The second session, Seniors Financial Abuse, will be held March 19.

It focuses on what steps to take if you suspect someone is trying to take control of your money, property or personal information.

The final session, scheduled for March 26, is Seniors Fraud Protection.

It will teach participants how scammers target your money through bank accounts, credit cards or investment accounts, ways to prevent fraud and how to get help if you are a victim.

The events are an hour long each and begin at 11:30 a.m.

SWAG will provide tea, coffee, water and cookies, but participants are asked to bring their own lunch.

Seating is limited. Anyone interested in attending is asked to register by calling 905-845-6601, ext. 4673.

NOISY WORKPLACE?

If you have spent your working life in noisy areas, you may be eligible for full coverage. Even if you are now retired, you may apply for benefits if your hearing was damaged due to long term noise exposure in the workplace. We are authorized vendors for WSIB, DVA, ADP, ODSP and NIHB. We are experienced in the application process with a very high success rate. The first step to better hearing is a hearing test.

Custom ear protection (sleep molds, swim molds and musician's plugs) are available.

If you've forgotten what fair, professional service feels like, call us and prepare to be amazed!
SATISFACTION GUARANTEED!
