SWEET.

I saw the first pale star rise into place
And in the deepening blue have set my sight
A shining pathway shed through the pathless space,
For the down-coming feet (angels of the night).

I heard, with singing through the night—
While all the pulses of my heart were still—
The silvery steps of sound down golden stairs.
The good night wind of some beloved bird

And when the star brought sun and silent bird,
And the dear dead lived on the paths of light
Across my face was blown a wine shining air
And on my lips I felt my love's first kiss.

METHODIST UNION.

Still Talking on the Basis—Lively Debates—The Vote to be Taken on Monday Night.

On Friday afternoon Prof. Shaw moved an amendment by the insertion of a notice in favor of a modification of the Basis. The notice having been ruled out of order the insertion of the full text of the motion was refused.

The debate on the general question was resumed. Rev. T. M. Campbell continued his address, strongly protesting against the efforts made by some in this movement to estrange the entire laity from the ministry, and deprecated the unwillingness to admit any modifications suggested by those who are opposed to the Basis. After criticising the proposed polity of the United Church he analyzed the several church funds, and showed how unfair are the adjustments of the various funds with a view to union.

Mr. Jno. Macdonald inquired when the vote was likely to be taken on the Basis.

The President left the question with the Conference, which indicated that many still wished to speak.

ADDRESS OF REV. MR. HOOKER.

Rev. LeRoy Hooker regretted that he appeared to oppose union, although he entertained no regret at standing opposed to the Basis and the manner in which it had been secured. Finance matters could be left to an actuary and divine Providence, so he had no fear on that score. He was prepared to endorse a movement for the unification of Protestant churches in Canada, but they should consider whether the proposed union of three Methodist Churches having Presbyterian forms with one having Episcopalian form, and in doing so take the Episcopal form of church government, was desirable, especially when it placed an insuperable barrier between the Methodists of this country and the Churches of the land which had a Presbyterian form of church government. While the union movement was weak the leaders were willing to follow the law, but now they declared they were in the midst of a revolution. It was a happy choice of words. (Hear, hear.) He felt that a strong hand was at the throat of the Methodist Church, and that revolutionary methods as well as revolutionary objects were being pursued. (Hear, hear.) This adjourned meeting was revolutionary, for Conference had not yet accepted the work of its Committee. That, indeed, was a mongrel Committee, composed as it was of members of the Churches beside their own, and when they asked the ministers and laymen to agree to union they were so anxious to secure the sugar plum that they could not wait for the General Conference of 1884, and, therefore sought to grasp it at once. The time would come when any fragmentary scalawag could make bitter trouble. (Laughter and applause.) Through grace he could manage to endure a fully grown bishop, although he would not like it, but the bishop proposed was such a little bishop hemipathic in proportion. (Laughter.) He could hardly put up with him. He was only so much of a bishop shaved down to such small proportions that would enable him to get the Church property of the Methodist Episcopal Church into the Union by the skin of his teeth. He would not like to be that bishop himself. (Renewed laughter.) Either bring him out as a full prelatic bishop, with some power to support the dignity of his position, or call him by the title of President of the General Conference. (Applause.) The speaker concluded by telling a story of a man gathering together birds and animals as a happy family. When the man had put the birds in the cage and was handing in the fox his wife stopped him; whereupon he said that the fox had promised when he got in to pull out his own teeth. That was the bargain their Church was making. If they adopted Union they were to pull out their own teeth when in the cage. (Laughter.) He did not allude to any person or persons as the fox, but to unrestricted power in legislation. His advice was to pull out the teeth of the fox before entering the cage. If they did not they would regret it. (Applause.)

THREE-FOURTHS MAJORITY NEEDED.

Rev. Dr. Burwash contends that in the ratification of the Basis three-fourths' majority would be required. He hoped that the Conference would accept the Basis, and if there were legal impediments to union let these block the movement, and not the vote of this Conference. He appealed to the Conference to make sacrifices for the sake of the Church and of union in view of the probability that before long tenfold returns would ensue in financial and spiritual increase.

Rev. J. Graham maintained that the Conference should be assured that the change is an improvement upon the present polity. He showed that in the matter of economy the proposed polity of the United Church would involve vastly greater expense than the present polity. He declared himself strongly opposed to the Basis.

FRIDAY EVENING'S SESSION.

Mr. H. W. Ryder declared himself, as a layman, strongly in favour of union, and protested against this Conference taking the responsibility of rejecting the Basis at the present state of the negotiations.

Rev. Dr. Ryckman hoped that those who had charged them with disloyalty would make their charges where they could defend themselves. He admitted that it was more in the interests of the other denominations than for themselves and concluded by defending the Basis.

Rev. W. S. Griffin expressed why the Basis was so distasteful to him and others. He complained of the way in which the laity had been appealed to. The address of Mr. Griffin created considerable excitement and caused some to complain that the statements were not in accordance with facts. He concluded with an earnest appeal on behalf of the widows and fatherless children many of whom would certainly be greatly injured if the Basis was carried.

Rev. Dr. Ryckman spoke at some length in defence of the Basis.

Rev. W. T. Griffin repudiated the insinuation that opponents of the Basis lacked pious sympathy with the cause of union. He protested against the destructive mania for change, so prevalent, and pleaded for the maintenance of some elements of the old Wesleyan Methodist polity in which he and his fathers had been trained.

SATURDAY MORNING'S SESSION.

The Conference opened at 9 o'clock a.m., on Saturday.

The motion for the ratification of the Basis being laid upon the table, Rev. Dr. Sutherland moved that if this Church enter the proposed union it do so with the distinct assumption, that the restrictive rules shall be embodied in the discipline of the new Church. One of these rules prohibits any change in the standard of doctrine. The resolution was carried almost unanimously.

Notice of motion was given by Rev. T. G. Williams, proposing such an amendment to the Basis that the General Superintendent shall be present, preside only at the opening of an annual Conference up to the election of the annual President, and he shall sign all ordination diplomas.

Rev. Prof. Shaw enquired of the President wherein the notice given on Friday is more out of order than the notice just given.

The President replied: "I did not rule your notice out of order."

The debate on the Basis being resumed Rev. J. Lathem, of Nova Scotia Conference, spoke for the Basis as a compact, now almost completely formed, which, if now modified, would be entirely set aside. He alluded to the many opportunities for the growth of Canadian Methodism, and appealed for union on the ground of increased spiritual efficiency, especially in the missionary operations of the great North West.

Rev. A. Langford, of the London Conference, spoke against the Basis and claimed from facts given that the judgment of the laity, though favourable to union, was strongly adverse to the provisions of the basis. He advised delay in view of the legal difficulties involved. Just before adjournment it was resolved that the vote shall be taken on the Basis on Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

CURRED TO DEATH.

Murder by a New York Policeman—the Guilty Scoundrel and his Victim Arrested.

A terrible case of police brutality occurred in New York on Tuesday. John Smith, a sick hand on the schooner Elton Hardwick, was clubbed to death by Officer McNamara, of the Mulberry police station. Smith had been visiting Patrick O'Donnell, second mate of the same vessel. When they parted Smith was the worse for liquor, but started for his home. He had not gone far when he entered the doorway and fell asleep. Mrs. Hughes, who resides in the house, called Officer McNamara to get the man out. The officer entered the hallway and at once commenced to club Smith. Smith got up and proceeded up Mulberry street, followed by the officer, who kept clubbing him about the back and arms. Smith remonstrated with the officer, who became greatly excited, and on reaching Canal street he struck the unfortunate sailor two blows, one on the neck and the other on the chest. Smith fell dead on the sidewalk. A stretcher was sent for, and the dead sailor removed to the station house, where the officer reported him sick, and as in all such cases, he was treated with indifference. The excitement in the neighborhood became so great and such demonstration was made that the body was finally examined, and then it was learned that he had been badly bruised and his neck broken. Several respectable citizens called at the station house and left their names as witnesses. McNamara was arrested, and held to await the result of the coroner's inquest. This is the second time he has been charged with a similar offence.

Testimonial from Capt. Joshua Sturgeon.
SACKVILLE, N. B., Feb. 13, 1877.
J. H. Rosebrook, Esq., St. John, N. B.
Dear Sir, Early in October last I took a severe cold which settled on my lungs. After having a bad cough for about six weeks I had a very severe attack of bleeding from the lungs while on a passage from Queenstown to Dover. I had daily spells of bleeding for some days until I had about two gallons of blood, and was so weak as to be scarcely able to stand. I put back to Queenstown, where I received such medical assistance as enabled me to get home.
I saw an advertisement of your Compound Cod Liver Oil Emulsion in a paper. I immediately went and got half a dozen bottles, after taking which I feel myself a well man again. My weight, which was reduced to 130 pounds, is now up to my standard of 152 pounds. Seeing what it has done for me I can confidently recommend it to others afflicted with lung diseases.
Yours very truly,
(Signed) JOSHUA STURGEON,
of the barque "Mary L. Crosman."

Holloway's Pills.—Wear of Life.—Derangement of the liver is one of the most efficient causes of dangerous diseases, and the most prolific source of those melancholy forebodings which are worse than death itself. A few doses of these noted Pills act magically in dispelling low spirits, and repelling the covert attacks made on the nerves by excessive heat, impure atmospheres, over-indulgence, or exhausting excitement. The most shattered constitution may derive benefit from Holloway's Pills, which will regulate disordered action, brace the nerves, increase the energy of the intellectual faculties, and revive the failing memory. By attentively studying the instructions for taking these Pills and unfailingly putting them in practice, the most despairing will soon feel confident of a perfect recovery.

FOR THE KIDNEYS, LIVER AND URINARY ORGANS
THE BEST BLOOD PURIFIER.
There is only one way by which any disease can be cured, and that is by removing the cause—whatever it may be. The great medical authorities of the day believe that nearly every disease is caused by deranged kidneys or liver. To restore these therefore is the one way to whom health can be secured. Here is where DARKEN'S SAFE CURE has achieved its great reputation. It acts directly upon the foul parts and by purging them is a healthy condition drives disease and pain from the system. For all Kidney, Liver and Urinary troubles, for the distressing disorders of women, for Malaria and physical inability or prostrating, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of impostors. Substitutes and counterfeits said to be just as good.
For Diabetes and for DARKEN'S CAFE TEA BITTERS CURE.

IMPORTANT TO STEAM USERS
AND ENGINEERS
How to Keep Boilers Clean.
FISHER'S PATENT AUTOMATIC BOILER CLEANER, when properly applied to a steam boiler, never fails to remove all
Muddy Deposits and Sediments from water before they become baked into scale. The Cleaner is automatic and certain in its action, and will outwear a new boiler. A boiler kept clean saves a saving in fuel and repairs, as well as a reduced liability to explosions.
Having the agency for this invention of the inventor, we are prepared to fit them up and guarantee them to be all the patentee claims for them.
