

Friends of the Library spring book sale opens to the public today

The Friends of the Oakville Public Library (FOL) is holding its Spring Book Sale this week.

Taking place at the library's Central Branch auditorium, 120 Navy St., the book sale by the library's fundraising arm features thousands of donated titles across many genres. Books are for sale at $1.50 per pound.

These sales have generated hundreds of thousands of dollars that have been used to enhance library programs and services like TD Summer Reading Club, teen writing contests and technology-help workshops, according to organizers.

Those who have or purchased Friends of the Library memberships get first pick at the sales, held each spring and fall.

The 'Friends Only' Sale was Wednesday.

Doors open to the general public today (Thursday) from noon to 9 p.m., and the sale continues tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday (April 11), 9:30 a.m.-5 p.m., and ends Sunday (April 12), 1-4 p.m.
