

Forensic expert at Canadian Club March 28

A former forensic expert for the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) is the guest speaker at the next Canadian Club of Oakville dinner meeting, March 28.

Gerald Kupferschmidt, who once worked for the RCMP Forensic Laboratories, will speak about Information Protection.

Kupferschmidt also belongs to the Chemical Institute of Canada, the Canadian Society of Forensic Science, and the American Academy of Forensic Science.

Currently, Kupferschmidt provides consultation to industry, government, lawyers, insurance agencies and individuals on toxicology and general chemical, analytical and forensic programs.

He worked with the RCMP from 1971 to 1985 and boasts more than 28 years of experience as a forensic toxicology expert witness.

Kupferschmidt will speak on information protection and the political, moral and social ramifications.

Kupferschmidt has investigated several information-gathering systems and will address the implications of uncontrolled activity in this area.

The meeting is at the Ramada Inn on Oakville Drive.

There'll be a cash bar at 6 p.m. and a dinner at 7 p.m.

Cost for members is $27.50 and $37.50 for non-members.

For more information call 845-2862.

ATTENTION

Oakville students and parents!

Mayor's Special Committee Against Impaired Driving
hosts the annual essay contest in memory of Janet Dooley

Express your thoughts about the tragic realities of drinking while under the influence in the 2001 essay contest hosted by the Mayor's Special Committee Against Impaired Driving (SCAID). Open to all Oakville students, this year's topic is

"why no one should drink and drive."

Students up to 14 years of age will submit a 250-500 word essay (prize: bicycle courtesy of Co-operators Insurance), while students 15 years of age and older will submit a 350-700 word essay (prize: driver training courtesy of Sears Driver Training).

Essays must include a separate title page indicating the name, age and school of the author. Please submit all entries via mail, fax or e-mail (rich text only) by May 4, 2001 to:
