Divers host Spring Invitational

The Gatquatic Divers hosted their annual 'Spring Break' invitational recently.

Here are the results for Oakville divers in the regional club which is based out of Burlington and Oakville.

Ten clubs competed.
ABBY SEXSMITH, competing in girls 12/13 years, level 3, finished 3rd on one-metre board.

KELLY GOOD, competing in girls 14/15 years, level 3, finished 2nd on one-metre board.

CHELSEA LEGGAT, competing in girls 12/13 years, level 2, finished 3rd on one-metre board.

ESTHER FRANCOEUR, competing in girls 16+, level 2, finished 1st on one metre board and 1st on three-metre board.

One step short of OMHA finals

A 4-1 loss at Brampton's Victoria Park Arena last week finally ended the season for the Oakville Rangers novice AA rep team in the semifinals of the Ontario Minor Hockey Association (OMHA) playdowns — just one step away from the finals.

Kelly Barchan notched the lone Ranger tally.

The players, coaches and parents left Victoria Arena disappointed. But, everyone walked tall with the pride afforded to them by the season's hard, honest effort that fueled their long trek that saw them make it through to the fourth round of the OMHA playdowns.

The team enjoyed ever-greater triumphs as each player developed and greatly improved throughout the year.

A ringing cheer is sung to the generous sponsors, coaching staff, parents, the associated players and community at large for all their support.

'Thanks' from the Rangers novice 'AA' 2000/01: Kelly Barchan, Andrew Bertrand, Josh Butler, Michael Chase, Eric Chaisson, Lucas Currah, Jeremy DeFazio, Matthew Feric, Curtis Gamble, Bradley Gillies, Jake Jagodkin, Taylor Kirton, Andrew McGuire, Lachlan Neal, Michael Pavan, Reid Stevens and Stefan Thompson.

Will 6-2 record be good enough?

The minor atom AA Rangers, sponsored by Kopriva Taylor and Lucent Technologies, have finished their round robin tri-county playoffs notching five wins and one loss in their last six games. Their 6-2 playdown record should be good enough to advance them to the tri-county finals.

OAKVILLE 4, Milton 2: scoring for Oakville were Connor McMonagle, Josh

Ruys, Josh Ceccarelli and Jason Prolas. Assists went to Sam Old (2), Tyler Schlonies (2), Michael McGillivray, Brian Urquhart and Jake Legein.

OAKVILLE 4, Caledon 2: turning on the lamp were Josh Ruys (2), Jason Prolas and Michael McGillivray. Assisting were Brian Urquhart (2), Connor McMonagle (2), Tyler Schlonies, Jake Legein, Josh Ceccarelli and David Provost.

OAKVILLE 5, Guelph 1: sinking the anchors this time were Tyler Schlonies, Sam Old, Josh Ceccarelli, Josh Ruys and Brian Urquhart. Assists were credited to Connor McMonagle, David Provost, Matt Fillman, Ruys and Urquhart.

Orangeville 3, OAKVILLE 2: scoring for host Oakville were Josh Ruys and Brian Urquhart. Assists went to Sam Old, Jason Prolas, Jake Legein and Ruys.

OAKVILLE 7, Brampton 1: hitting the twine were Jake Legein (3), David Provost (2), Josh Ruys and Josh Ceccarelli. Assisting on the goals were Brian Urquhart (3), Danny Opratko, Matt Fillman, Michael McGillivray, Ruys and Legein.

OAKVILLE 6, Flamborough 1: lighting the lamp were Josh Ruys (3), Jason Prolas, David Provost and Jake Legein. Assists went to Tyler Schlonies (2), Brian Urquhart (2), Connor McMonagle, Sam Old, Danny Opratko, Matt Fillman, Ruys and Provost.

A berth in the provincials

The Oakville Hornets midget BB rep team, sponsored by TD Waterhouse and M&G Steel, have advanced to the Ontario Womens Hockey Association (OWHA) championships scheduled for April.

The team qualified with a 2-2 tie against Burlington and a 3-1 win over Mississauga.

In the 3-1 win, Laura Grigor opened the scoring with just 19 seconds left in the second period.

With Mississauga pressing to tie it up Sandra Giustiniani increased Oakville's margin to 2-0, against the grain of the play, on a breakout with Sara White who earned the assist.

Mississauga finally got on board but Oakville responded just 17 seconds later with Laura Scarfone redirecting the puck to the top corner of the net.

Assists went to Chris Grimes (2), Jamie See and Sara White.

Jessica Sparling had an excellent performance between the pipes.

Burlington tourney victors

The Oakville Hornets atom BB rep team, sponsored by Meray Motors and Halton Signs, got their March Break off with a real blast, winning the Burlington Barracudas tournament.

Oakville posted an impressive 4-1 win in the championship game, and it was their second successive win over previously undefeated Windsor.

Oakville blasted out to a 3-0 lead before Windsor got on the board, but then Oakville put a stop to any possible come-back by quickly countering with their fourth and final goal.

Oakville goals were scored by Justine Bernier, Kaitlyn Wheeler, Melissa Kennedy and Taylor Metcalfe. Assists went to Laura Pendlebury, Stephanie Dvernechuk, Alyssa Molfetta, Justine Bernier, Megan Cordeiro and Melanie Johnson.

Determined to do something about their lack of a tournament medal this year, Oakville opened up the tournament with a solid 2-0 Friday night victory over Sarnia Starfires. Goals were scored by Kaitlyn Wheeler and Justine Bernier. Melissa Kennedy nabbed an assist. The game featured solid play by the defensive unit of Brittany Court, Meagan Cordeiro, Sarah Curry, Natalie Oreskovich and Stephanie Deverchuk and a strong shutout performance by goalie Jessica Toth.

Saturday morning matched the Hornets against the hometown Barracudas, the only team in the tournament that Oakville had seen before. Although Oakville outplayed Burlington, goals were hard to come by and the game ended in a 1-1 draw. Oakville's lone goal was scored by defenceman Brittany Court, unassisted.

In the final round robin game, Oakville hooked up for the first time with Windsor who were undefeated with a championship berth already guaranteed. Oakville still needed points to advance, and they took no prisoners, winning 6-0 with Jessica Toth recording her second shutout of the tourney.

Oakville's goals and assists went to Kaitlyn Wheeler (3g), Megan Cordeiro (1g, 1a), Caroline Davies (1g, 1a), Madeleine McCann (1g), Sarah Curry (2a), Taylor Metcalfe (1a), Natalie Oreskovich (1a) and Alyssa Molfetta (1a).
