A FAREWELL SERMON.

Rev. Joseph Young's Last Discourse to his People—Call to and Duty of the Minister—Meeting in Heaven.

Sunday evening the Rev. J. Young conducted service in the M. E. Church. The congregation filled every part of the spacious edifice, and the closest attention was given during the progress of the entire service. The text for the occasion was selected from Psalm cxxvi 6: "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him." In beginning the preacher made historical reference to the circumstances under which the words of the text were spoken. When the Jews went into captivity they went weeping, but when Cyrus issued the decree B.C. 536 for their return they came rejoicing. The language of the text was applied to the office and labours of the Christian ministry. Many names are applied to those who go forth to preach the word. They are sometimes called shepherds, overseers, watchmen, builders, laborers and fishers. There are good reasons for applying all of these appellations. But ministers are represented as sowers. They are so designated by Christ as witness the language employed in St. Matthew, xiii chapter, where Jesus speaks in parabolic words with regard to the sower going forth to sow the seed. The office of the minister is one of appointment. Men are not self-called, self-appointed, and self-sent. If they thus go forth they are sure to fail. Every true minister is a man of one book and one work. If we but glance at the Levitical, Prophetical and Christian ministry we will see that men were called and appointed to these high and holy offices. Many passages of Scripture were quoted by the preacher in proof of the position assumed. "No man taketh this honour to himself." Remember the dreadful fate of Korah and Hezziah when they invaded the priest's office and persevered in burning incense and God's judgments smote them. They were self-called and self-sent. Men must feel assured that

GOD HAS CALLED THEM,

and he will care for and shield all whom he has moved by the Spirit to go forth and preach the gospel. It requires skill, even great skill, to be successful in such a high and holy work. "Behold, I send you forth as sheep among wolves, be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves." Paul felt the need of wisdom and tact in dealing with men (1 Cor. ix, 20, 21, 22.) The position is also one of hard work and constant toil. Men may act the part of hirlings and not do the work, and yet draw the pay, but the faithful minister will lay all upon the altar and he goes forth possessed somewhat of the spirit of Wesley when he sang

"My body with my charge lay down
And cease at once to work and live."

Reference at this stage in the discourse was made to the seed, and its qualities pointed out. It was shown to be precious. It was heaven inspired and God-given. Behold its wonderful effects. "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." "Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth." Let us scatter this precious seed everywhere, sow it broadcast over the land, for it will cause the moral desert and solitary place to bud and blossom as the rose. The text says "He that goeth forth." The minister when fully equipped educationally and by his Church will not stand "idle" all the day waiting for a large salary and a wide sphere of usefulness, for he will enter any open door. He must go forth with zeal, perseverance, cheerfulness and in the name of his Lord and Master. The promise will not fail him, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." As they go no wonder they weep at times. And why weep? Because of their solemn vows and responsibilities. Because of the work in which they engage. They have to do not with house, lands, merchandise and stocks, but with the precious, immortal and blood-bought souls of men. Souls for whom the Saviour did heavenly bliss forego. It is not all joy and for there are times and causes for weeping. While there are successes there are also painful disappointments. Doubtless the sower was disappointed when the seed fell by the wayside, among thorns and on stony ground, but there is always some good ground and some seed brought to maturity. Pastors are but men, not angels, and frequently churches and congregations expect too much of them. No wonder the Apostle asked the prayers of the Thessalonian Church that he might be delivered from "unreasonable and wicked men." It is quite impossible to please some people, for if an angel from heaven or even God and Jesus Christ should come and stand in the pulpits of some churches and preach, fault would be found and criticisms passed. We can well understand why Paul exclaims, "Who is sufficient for these things!"

Reference was made to the success of the minister and his coming again. He must come to his closet, to his study, to his home and finally to his reward and rest forever. Then he will experience true and lasting joy. He has sowed in tears but he shall reap in joy. Not one shall come without bringing some sheaves. Some more and some less. The preacher must sow the seed. Some will seek in the house of God an intellectual treat and others desire the sensational and speculative. Others have no relish for spiritual things but they want and must have "a well performed and creditable solemnity." As to the pulpit their great desire is that the pulpit should behave itself. "Consequently many a service is faintly faultless, icily regular, splendidly null."

Let all ministers preach boldly against all sin and be instant in season and out of season in sowing the good seed, and they shall come with rejoicing bringing their sheaves with them. In closing the wish was expressed that the congregation and retiring pastor might meet in heaven when life's work is done.

AFTER the culmination of manhood at forty, the prime of life begins to decline into old age. The activity of the digestive apparatus, which at first was sufficient not only to provide for the daily waste, but to add new material later on is only able to supply the daily waste, and at last is too imperfect to maintain the balance and sustain the frame in its existing entirety. At this period, when the expenditure is greater than the income, WHELER'S Phosphates and Calisaya, by augmenting nerve force and supplying ready-made tissue elements will have a tendency to prolong life.

IN the spring of the year almost every one requires a good blood purifier, more especially in the month of May. We would earnestly advise our readers to try Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters. A few doses will soon convince you that it is the best remedy known for affections of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys. In large bottles at 50 cents. H. Wade, Agent.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Mr. James Bethune, Q.C., is a possible Reform candidate for Stormont.

Ald. John Hallam has announced himself as a Reform candidate in East Toronto.

To-day is the anniversary of Sir Charles Tupper's entrance into political life.

Dr. Landerkin's candidature in South Grey is being enthusiastically endorsed by the electors.

Col. James Brown has been re-nominated the Reform candidate for West Hastings.

Mr. Bunting has fled from Welland, and will likely try one of the Toronto divisions.

Jas. Anderson, of Sutton, was nominated at Bradford to contest North York in the Conservative interest.

Mr. D. Crouter is the Liberal standard bearer in East Northumberland. He is certain of election.

Mr. Hugh McKay is the choice of the Liberal party for the west division of Montreal. But he has not consented to stand.

Rev. John May, of Ottawa, announces his intention of being an Independent candidate for the representation of Carleton.

Mr. J. H. Fairbank, banker in Petrolea, and a leading oil operator, is likely to be selected as the Reform candidate in East Lambton.

The Muskoka Reform convention at Rosseau, nominated Mr. J. C. Miller, M.P.P., of Parry Sound, as standard bearer. Mr. Miller will be elected.

Sir A. T. Galt, denies that he intends to enter political life in Canada, but is not certain as to whether he will return to London.

The New Brunswick Cabinet has been reconstructed. The local elections will take place on the 22nd of June, the nominations being held on the 15th of that month.

Sir Hector Langevin has definitely decided to run for Three Rivers against all comers. His opponent will probably be Mr. Turcotte, ex-Speaker of the Quebec Legislature, and a keen contest may be expected.

The Mail's Ottawa correspondence stated that the Ottawa Liberals had contemplated issuing a protectionist proclamation. The statement is without foundation. If there is one place in the Dominion where protection is unpopular that place is in the city of Ottawa.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry

The standard remedy for the cure of coughs, colds, influenza, bronchitis, asthma, hoarseness, whooping cough, sore throat, diphtheria, difficulty of breathing, quinsy, phthisic, pain in the side and breast, spitting of blood, liver complaint, bleeding of the lungs, and all diseases of the throat, lungs and chest, including even consumption. It seems hardly necessary to dilate at length upon the virtues of this favorite remedy. It was introduced to the public by Dr. Wistar nearly half a century since, and by the wonderful cures which it performed, gained an immediate and enviable reputation, which to this day it has fully sustained. From the gulf of the St. Lawrence to the shores of the Pacific, there are few villages or hamlets without "living testimonials" to the rapidity and certainty of its curative effects. The proprietors, mindful of their responsibility to the afflicted, exercise the utmost care in the selection and compounding of the various ingredients of which the BALSAM is composed; and the sick are assured that the high standard of excellence on which its popularity is based will always be maintained.

An Important Omission.

Sir L. Tilley in his return in reference to tall chimneys omitted to mention a very important industry, and one which has not only given employment to many hands, but has through the influence of the N. P. relieved thousands from physical suffering. We refer to that great remedy for corns, 'PUTNAM'S PAINLESS CORN EXTRACTOR'. Pure, safe, and painless. Sir Leonard may exclaim, "Canada for Canadians," but we most emphatically exclaim, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor for corns." Sold everywhere and by N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

WHY ARE WE BILIOUS?—Why do we have sick headache? Why do we feel weak and tired with little or no appetite? Why that coating of the tongue and that bad taste of the mouth? Your liver is out of order, and does not do its work as nature designs. MANZER MANDRAKE BITTERS act directly on the liver, stomach and bowels, and will relieve you at once. Imitators vs. Substitutors.

Good points are remembering, for the reason that they assist us in avoiding many discomforts, and protect us against the cupidity of over-reaching people. When you learn from friends that PUTNAM'S CORN EXTRACTOR is safe, prompt and effectual, don't allow druggists to palm off a worthless and perhaps poisonous substitutes. His object is quite patent. He wishes to make a few cents difference between a good article and a cheap imitation or substitute. Putnam's Corn Extractor. Sold everywhere and by N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.
