Global 2001 for CNIB Halton-Peel in June

Players are needed for a glow-in-the-dark golf tournament to support the CNIB.

The Halton-Peel District of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind (CNIB) has a few openings left for golfers interested in participating in Global 2001 - the organization's third annual night-time fundraising golf tournament.

It will be held at Banty's Roost in Caledon on Friday June 15. Registration, pre-tournament events and dinner start at 6 p.m. Shotgun start is at 9 p.m.

Cost is $100 per person, or $400 per foursome.

All money raised from Global 2001 will help provide programs and services to more than 3,000 clients in Halton and Peel. For information or to register, call Jodi at CNIB at 905-275-5332 Ext. 53.

The CNIB works to improve services to blind, deafblind and visually impaired people and their families in Halton and Peel. Staff and volunteers work to help CNIB clients meet their greatest challenge - to thrive independently in a sighted world.
