A SHORT SENTENCE.—To-day Orab Marshall appeared before Judge Price charged with the larceny of a seal skin cap from express messenger Shepard. The offence was proven and Orab will pick oakum in the county gaol for the next fifteen days.

A TEACHER ILL.—Mr. McArdle, Principal of the Model School, is confined to his house, suffering from bronchial affection. Inspector Kidd has been temporarily conducting his classes. This afternoon Miss Melloy relieved the Inspector.

THANKFUL DISAPPOINTMENT.—The chief engineer of the sunken steamer "St. Albans," Mr. R. Walsh, of Prescott, was granted leave of absence some weeks ago. He reached Milwaukee a few hours after the steamer had left on her unfortunate voyage.

A LUCKY FIND.—Louis Hansen made a lucky find this morning while cleaning a pike caught last night in the Bay of Quinte, viz., a $20 gold piece, well worn but not corroded. He intends to keep it as a talisman. Not very long ago a fisherman found a gold watch and chain within a pike.

PEREMPTORY ORDERS.—School Inspector Kidd this morning received peremptory orders to visit the factories and other places in the city, and having ascertained the number of children under school age employed therein to report to the Education Department. He has begun his work.

MR. CALVIN'S BILL.—Mr. Calvin's Bill provides that the words italicized shall be struck out of the section in the Assessment Act, exempting the unpaid purchase money on personalty, thus: "So much of the personal property of any person as is equal to the just debts owed by him on account of such property."

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. H. A. Fairbank, B.A., of Petrolia, has fatally shot himself. He was a brother of one of the graduates of the Royal Military College who left recently for England to take a commission in the army. Deceased was studying medicine at Ann Arbor College, Michigan. He was an ardent sportsman.

INCORPORATION BILL.—The Bill to amend the Act incorporating the Roman Catholic Bishops of Toronto and Kingston was the subject of a short discussion in the Legislature yesterday, but no exception was taken to it. It gives them power to mortgage lands and confirms existing mortgages. It was reported.

PECULIAR FEATURE.—The steady cold weather has had a great effect upon Lake Ontario. The prevailing north and northwest winds have driven large fields of floating ice to the south shore of the lake. As far out as the eye can reach the ice, says the Oswego Times, seems to be almost a solid mass, although undoubtedly there are large open spaces not discernable from the shore.

A NOTABLE EVENT.—Yesterday Dr. R. W. Bruce Smith, of Sparta, formerly of this city, was wedded to Miss McLachlan, daughter of the Registrar of the county of Elgin. Dr. Smith is a graduate of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons, and while in Kingston made many friends, who heartily congratulate him upon his position in this last eventful incident. That the future of our young friend may be happy is the wish of hosts.

"Nip and Tuck."

We need not refer to our impressions of the former appearance of the "Nip and Tuck" Combination, whose performance this evening in the Opera House is expected to be so successful. We may quote, however, the opinion of the Toronto World, which says the play is replete with dramatic situations and highly sensational scenes, and the hearer's interest is kept excited till the denouement is disclosed. The plot is more or less intricate, but it is interspersed with many humorous situation. Mr. Webber as a comedian does cleverly and takes well. The rest of the company are good throughout.

A Tramp Assaulted.

Last evening an Englishman applied for protection at the police station. He presented a very dilapalate appearance. One optic was entirely closed, the effect of a severe blow. The man was otherwise injured. He told a harrowing story. He said that on Tues lay he left Napanee afoot for Kingston. After a long tramp he found that his ears were frozen, and tired and footsore he sought protection from the farmers by the way. None would permit him to remain on their promises. Towards dark he sought lodgment in a farmer's root house. He stretched himself for the night, but his slumbers were disturbed by the owner who first bundled him out of his retreat and then proceeded to belabor him in a vigorous manner. The poor fellow reached Kingston last night. This morning he was removed to the hospital.

RAILWAY EXTENSION.

Result of the Deputation's Interview with the Ontario Government.

We have already announced that on Tuesday afternoon left here to interview the Ontario Government in favor of the further bonusing of the K. & P. RR. The deputation was composed of Mayor Pense, ex-Mayors Gildersleeve, Robinson and Carson, of Kingston; and of Warden Dawson and Messrs. Thomas Dawson, Joseph Watson, J. M. Fair, M.P., Robert Flynn, of Frontenac, M.P. of the Legislative Council, and several active municipal councillors of the county, so well to do. They were joined at Wright, of Renfrew, who joined not address at the Mayor's whose at Sharbott Lake will be remembered. They met the Premier by appointment at 2 p.m. in the Parliament Building yesterday Wednesday, being attended by Messrs. J. H. Metcalfe, city member, D. D. Calvin and H. M. Deroche, county members, and their fellow representatives Hawley of Lennox, Richardson of Leeds, Caldwell of Lanark, Bonfield and Murray of Renfrew. Hon. Messrs. Wood and Fraser also attended with Mr. Mowat.

POSITION OF THE ROAD.

Mr. Gildersleeve clearly laid before the Premier the position of the road and the necessity existing for continued aid on the part of the Government. He bore witness to the earnestness of the present movement for a vigorous prosecution of the work of building, and undertook to say that if the Government gave a liberal grant for the unsubsidized part of the road it would be completed to the junction with the Canada Central road within two years and a half. He showed that even with a grant of $6,000 a mile for the fourteen miles the road would have to be bonded for $6,000 a mile throughout its length, whereas under the stimulus of ore freights it was now paying interest on but $2,000 a mile. He showed that the country now to be pierced was one offering many obstacles to track building, entailing a heavy obligation on the company, which reasonable public aid would much alleviate. The country to be entered was wild, and just as the road had in the past five years opened up parts of Frontenac which colonization roads had failed to bring to utility, so would the wild parts of Renfrew be secured first as a rich contributor to the timber revenues of the Government, and secondly to lumber industry, agriculture, and settlement.

ASSISTANCE OF THE CITY.

The Mayor followed, showing that the city of Kingston had at the birth of the K. & P. Railway project shown its earnestness by voting a bonus of $300,000, adding nearly 200 per cent. to its public debt. The annual interest at 6 per cent. was equal to one-fourth of the whole taxation. While the citizens felt that their future prosperity was closely linked with the completion of the line and connection with the north country they did not feel able, under the heavy assessments now borne, and the peculiar situation of Kingston in other respects, to share the burden of the present issue with the Company. But having put their own hands deeply into their pockets, and felt it, they could the more honorably approach the Government and ask that the public aid be extended as far as the duty of the Legislature to the common interest will permit.

WHAT THE COUNTY DID.

Mr. J. R. Dawson, County Warden, followed, and spoke of the sacrifice the county had made in doubling its debt to aid the railroad. Altogether the municipal bonuses so far had been double the amount of the Government aid. Frontenac looked to Parliament for justice in the premises. He, as a back township's reeve, bore testimony to the wealth of timber that alone could be reached by such an opening—timber that would only pay cutting near some such cheap line of transportation. The development of mines, now fast advancing, was due solely to the completion of the railway so far, and there was much wealth beyond. Frontenac had paid liberally in the past to the public exchequer, and hoped to be considered when benefits were to be derived.

CORDIAL ENDORSATION.

Mr. Wright stated that the village of Renfrew had taxed itself to the uncommon extent of four cents on the dollar in order to bonus one important connection of the road—the Canada Central extension. It could not do more; it would be criminal. But it wanted this new connection badly in the public interest. The C. C. RR. could not now move the freights fast enough, and further accommodation was positively demanded. He spoke also of the wealth of natural resources of the country to be opened, and was followed by

Mr. Murray, for Pembroke, in a similar strain. That town had bonused itself very heavily for the Canada Central.

Mr. Caldwell spoke from personal knowledge of the value of an extension in the interest of the lumber market and the Government dues.

Mr. Bonfield, M.P.P., presented the Renfrew petition for aid, and begged for earnest consideration. The Frontenac petition was also presented. The Kingston petition had preceded them.

FINAL APPEALS.

Ex-Mayor Robinson showed that the Government without doing any injustice to the other projects asking aid, might, in case further railway distribution was not deemed expedient, grant to the K. & P. RR. Company the arrears of interest since the passage of the grant three years ago, about $43,000.

Hon. H. M. Deroche, who with Mr. Metcalfe was most attentive to the deputation, also spoke, and Hon. Mr. Fraser took occasion to say that it was thought the Canada Central interest was strongly opposed to the K. & P. R. Company. He knew on the contrary that the managers of the former road were convinced that the K. & P. Line was almost an accomplished fact, and would not interfere. He heard no one in Brockville say one word in opposition to the Kingston line. If jealousy existed, it was outside of his constituency.

Mr. Mowat promised his best consideration and withdrew.

McLEAN'S PLATE MAKERS.

An Enterprising American's Numerous Implements of Warfare.

We are much indebted to Dr. J. H. McLean, of St. Louis, Mo., for a copy of his recent expensive and elaborate work, descriptive of his many inventions and projects calculated to bring about peace of the world. Dr. McLean was born in the Isle of Scotland, but at 13 years of age he emigrated to Canada, where he did not long remain in this colony. At 15 years of age he moved westward and in time became a physician and a manufacturer of proprietary medicines, amassing in a short time great wealth. He conceived the idea that important improvements could be made, amounting to an entire revolution, in life destroying mechanisms, under the conviction that this only would secure universal peace. He claims to have succeeded in developing the most terrible destructive weapons of war, from a flintlock pistol and 128 shot rifle (self loading) up to cannons of all grades; battery guns capable of firing as many as 2,000 shots a minute and sweeping a distance of six miles; infantry and rifle protection forms; floating and permanent absolutely impregnable fortresses; swift sailing vessels which cannot be sunk by perforation; and, to complete the circle, a hydrophone, capable of warning the ships and forts of the approach of hostile vessels or icebergs, or nearness to rocky coasts, in foggy weather. The book is a beautiful specimen of printing and lithographing. It contains splendid cuts of Dr. McLean and Myron Coldney, his inventor and patentee, and excellent illustrations of those things which are the product of remarkable genius. Military men will find in the volume much to interest them.

Remains Found.

To-day, in taking away some lumber from the rear of G. M. Weber & Co's. old factory, Wellington Street, some workmen found a small coffin. The men who made the discovery were somewhat startled but must red courage to convey the little box into the old shop. All refused to uncover the coffin. Seriously they discussed the matter, and were of opinion that a coroner should be informed. When a reporter reached the room in which the coffin lay several persons were still standing about the box. Desiring to investigate the mystery the press man took up a stick of wood and proceeded to knock the cover off. In time the lid was raised and there, buried in shavings, lay the remains of a poor little thing. Tenderly the cover was replaced and the box removed, it being undesirable to summon a coroner to hold an inquest upon the dust of a dog. Thus was a good live sensation nipped in the bud.

Curling Matches.

The first match between the Kingston and Belleville Curling Clubs will take place to-morrow at 10 o'clock. Two Belleville teams will arrive here to-day to play teams of which Messrs. C. Hamilton and J. Carruthers are the respective skips.

This afternoon Messrs. J. B. Walkem (skip), W. C. Carruthers, James Stewart and W. H. Fuller comprising one team; and Messrs. W. Irving (skip), James Allan, W. Sutherland and R. Henry, composing another, left for Belleville where they play to-morrow. We hope Kingston will be creditably represented in these matches.

Remedy For Hard Times.

Stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food, and style. Buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing, get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of running after expensive and quack doctors, or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, and makes the proprietors rich, but put your trust in the greatest of all simple, pure remedies, Hop Bitters, that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see better times and good health. Try it once. Read of it in another column.

A GREAT CHICAGO ENTERPRISE.—The laboratory for the manufacture of Electric Bitters is one of Chicago's greatest enterprises, giving employment to a large number of hands. The extensive sale already attained for this wonderful remedy is astonishing. Wherever once introduced and becomes known, it is almost impossible to supply the demand, because of their true merit—curing where all others fail, and at a reasonable price (fifty cents).—Exch.

A cable despatch says the Thames is free from ice, and that Wallace Ross and Hanlan have resumed practice.

PROPELLER'S LOSS.

Rescue of the Crew and Passengers—A Rough Time of It.

The propeller "St. Albans," which went ashore 22 miles north east of Milwaukee, was laden with 2,800 barrels of flour. Her crew of twenty-two men and five passengers escaped to the boats well provided with blankets and provisions. The first intimation of the disaster at Milwaukee was when four small boats were seen in the ice off North Point, about a mile from shore. The boats had kept well together. At half past one that morning snow had set in and the shores cause great suffering among the shipwrecked ones. The boats was drawn on land and way out on the icy means of the ice and ropes. The police and fire departments then turned out and

RESCUED THE SECOND BOAT LOAD.

Five policemen and two citizens shoved a flat boat out on the ice a mile, leaving a drag rope in the rear, in case of emergency, and the firemen bridged out on the ice with their ladders. Part of the time the occupants of the boat were hidden from view by the swell of the lake. The third boat was hauled in south of the harbor piers. In this, among others, were two women, so benumbed that the firemen were obliged to place them on short ladders and carry them to the life saving station. Thus all were saved. The

that they were almost helpless when the citizens reached them. The propeller "Nashua" steamed out to pick up the boats, but, owing to the whirling, blinding snowstorm, was unable to reach any of them. Tugs were out of service, and so was the life saving crew, so all depended upon the bravery of the citizens.

The rescued were made as comfortable as possible. One of them, a wheelsman, was badly frozen in the nether limbs, and others were more or less frost bitten. All will recover.

PAST RECORD.

The "St. Albans" was a boat of 430 tons capacity, was built in Cleveland fifteen years ago, and rebuilt at Port Huron last year. Philo Chamberlain, the owner, states the boat was staunch, and that her load consisted of 1,000 barrels of flour and a quantity in sacks, equal to 1,800 barrels. The cargo was insured for $14,000 in the Orient Mutual Insurance Company. The boat was worth about $18,000, and as far as could be ascertained, was insured for $12,000.
