CALL FOR NOMINATIONS
5th Annual ATHENA Awards

Reaching with open and inclusive arms toward a new and better future, the Athena Sculpture, proudly represents the dynamics of the Athena Leadership Model.

The marble base provides the solid foundation for leadership upon which all other qualities of an Athena leader stand. The body of the sculpture represents power. The bronze texture portrays the harmony and depth that comes from listening to others and believing in them. The sculpture's arching and open arms summons all to embrace a fierce advocacy that engages the world in a quest for a better life and a more caring society. And within those welcoming arms, rests a crystal prism. The crystal reflects the challenges and changes in the world, stressing the need for openness, creativity and diversity.

The Athena leader gives voice, power and purpose to leadership. This sculpture symbolizes a new leadership style, a new future with an abiding commitment to a better life for all.

Help us find a good home for the 2001 sculpture. Nominate someone who has not only achieved professionally, but who continues to give back and makes a difference in the community and who has mentored women to achieve their full potential.

The ATHENA Award program celebrates the potential of all women as valued members and leaders of the community and recognizes those who support them. The ATHENA Award honours individuals who strive toward the highest levels of professional accomplishment... women and men who have demonstrated excellence in their profession, have devoted time and energy to their community in a meaningful way, and most especially, have generously assisted women in attaining their full potential.

THE CRITERIA
Athena recipients must meet each of the three specific criteria. They must:

- Mentor women in reaching their full leadership potential.
- Demonstrate excellence, creativity, and initiative in their business or profession.
- Provide valuable service by devoting time and energy to improve the quality of life for others in the community.

Nomination form will be posted on Oakville's Community Website at
