CITY AND VICINITY.

RICHMOND & BOYDEN advertise having received a large instalment of their "spring stock of carpets," better patterns and cheaper than ever.

PROBS.—High easterly to northerly winds, cloudy weather, with heavy snow at many places in the southern portion, and light snow in the northern, not much change in temperature.

LENTEN SERVICES.—There was a very large congregation at the Lenten service in St. Mary's Cathedral last evening. After the Rosary the Rev. Father Twohey delivered a short address.

BADLY INJURED.—Mr. Hunter, a workman employed by W. Irving, met with a serious injury a few days ago, having a large piece taken out of the fleshy part of his arm (below the elbow) by a gouger.

FIRE ON WILLIAM STREET.—An alarm of fire was rung out last evening. The fire occurred in a house on William street occupied by Mrs. Jones. It caught from a defective flue and was extinguished before any serious damage was done.

SALE OF PROPELLERS.—Of the once fine fleet of boats owned by the Northern Transit Company, only three—the propellers Champlain, Lawrence and Nashua—remain in their possession, ten having being sold to various parties during the present winter.

EXODUS FROM CANADA.—It may be only a straw, but a Watertown man notifies the Times that a great many poor boys and girls are coming to that section this spring from Canada to look for work, and he suggests that the people be prepared to do as well by them as possible.

MINING PROPERTY.—The interest of the Robinson estate, in the Robinson consolidated mine at Leadville has been sold to Wilson Waddingham of New York (formerly of Kingston) for $1,000,000. Thus if we have not a heavy millionaire in Kingston the city can claim one by birth right.

VOLUNTEER HURT.—By an accident, for which he was in no way to blame, an old volunteer in Belleville has been permanently injured. A commission, composed of Colonels Straubenzie, Villiers and Worsley, are now enquiring into the circumstances in consequence of the injured man's claim upon the Government for compensation.

N. & T. RR.—Replying yesterday to a deputation representing the N. & T. RR., Hon. Mr. Mowat said that if the road had made application before no doubt the proposition would have had a much better opportunity of receiving favourable consideration than it did at present, when there were difficulties in the way that could not be overlooked.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.—The amount of fees received by the Weights and Measures Department, of the Kingston District, during February, was $233.53. Mr. Hanley has been inspecting the scales, weights and measures of country stores. He found numerous wine measures which he destroyed. Next week he will continue his inspection in the rear of the county.

PARHAM ENTERTAINMENT.—On Tuesday evening an entertainment—vocal and instrumental music, dialogues, recitations (serio-comic,) speeches—was given by the younger members of the Parham Church of England congregation. The proceeds were devoted to the parsonage fund. Rev. Mr. Farrar presided. The attendance was large notwithstanding the snow storm which prevailed. Much praise is given to the Misses Farrar, who chiefly arranged the entertainment and successfully carried it out.

Census Commissioners.

Yesterday afternoon a meeting of the Census Commissioners for this part of Ontario was held at the British American Hotel. There were present: Mr. W. H. Sullivan, Kingston; Mr. D. J. Walker, Inverary; Mr. A. H. Roe, Napance; Mr. James Wood, Sydenham; and W. A. Webster, Lansdown. Dr. Beatty, of Cobourg, one of the three Dominion Commissioners, gave the different Commissioners their instructions. All the papers were gone over and the necessary information on all points given. The Commissioner for Kingston asked that seven enumerators be appointed for Kingston, one for each ward. The county enumerators will number from two to four for each township, according to size. The Government will have the power of appointing them. They will be named in a few days.

A Fine Imposed.

An amusing scene occurred at the coroner's inquest yesterday. Among the jurymen was Timothy Lavin, an old and eccentric person. When the evidence was about half through Timothy picked up his hat and without any excuse whatever made his exit from the room, the constable in attendance being temporarily absent. When the officer arrived he was detailed to look up Timothy, but the search was unsuccessful. A serious halt in the proceedings took place. Fortunately a young man was found who had heard the whole of the evidence, and thus was avoided the necessity of having not only to find a substitute for the runaway juryman but to re-commence proceedings. Timothy Lavin's little trick will cost him $10, the amount in which he was fined by the Coroner.

Denies the Statement.

Mr. Thomas Dawson denies the statement that land is depreciating on Wolfe Island. He contends that many of the holdings on the Island are small and that by the removal of some farmers to the United States those remaining are given a chance to secure more property for themselves or for their sons. The item published had, he held, done injury to men on the Island who wanted to obtain loans. He was prepared to produce the deed of land sold within a fortnight to shew that it had realized $50 per acre. Our information to the contrary was gleaned from a gentleman who had purchased land at the figures quoted, and who claimed that the decline was owing to the removal of farmers to the States.

Patent Right Swindlers.

We have received information which warrants us in putting the farmers of Eastern Ontario on their guard against patent right swindlers. These gentry pretend to sell a farmer a county right for a very useful looking piece of farm machinery, by his taking a large number of the articles. The farmer gives his note for the goods, amounting to about $200. The sellers then go to several other farmers, who buy the right over again, until there are about a dozen "sole" rights for each county and implements enough to stock fifty counties. The swindlers sell the notes at a tempting discount and "skip out." In a few days the farmer finds that he has been taught the lesson that the newspapers have failed for years to impress him with.

Appeal Sustained.

In the case of Ockley v. Masson, before the Court at Toronto, the appeal of the plaintiffs has been allowed with costs. It was an appeal by the plaintiffs from the judgment of the County Court, Frontenac, discharging a rule nisi obtained by them to set aside the verdict entered for defendants. The action was brought to recover damages sustained through defendants, who are a firm of grocers in Montreal, not delivering certain goods sold plaintiffs by their traveller. The defence was that as the markets were uncertain at the date of sale the goods were only sold conditionally, and that they therefore had a right to increase the price of the goods when the markets rose. Judgment was given in favor of defendants and from this plaintiff appealed.

A VERDICT RETURNED.

Coroner's Enquiry into the Case of Lane, Who Died in Gaol.

Yesterday afternoon the enquiry respecting the death of Gideon Lane was held in the Division Court room, Court House. Dr. Birker acted as Coroner. A jury of twelve was secured after some trouble and at three o'clock the proceedings opened. The County Attorney, Mr. A. S. Kirkpatrick, who was there at the request of the County Judge, conducted the questioning of the witnesses.

RECEPTION AT THE GAOL.

Mr. C. H. Corbett, Governor of the Gaol, was first examined. He gave evidence as to the arrival of Lane at the gaol, stating that deceased was first placed in the vestibule of the prison on a bed board with a stick of wood covered with his hat and muffler and a straw pillow under his head. During the whole time Lane was in the gaol he was insensible. He was in custody, pursuant to a warrant from the Police Magistrate, for insanity. The witness considered Lane's death natural. In answer to a juryman Mr. Corbett said this was the only instance in which he knew of a man being taken to the gaol in an insensible condition.

Mr. James Wooton, head turnkey of the gaol, testified that he received Lane from the custody of a policeman. Lane was in a stupor. The gaol surgeon was summoned. About three o'clock the deceased was undressed and removed to a cell. The bedding was all in the yard airing so that immediately on Lane's arrival a bed could not be procured. Lane remained insensible all the time he was in gaol.

THE DEATH SCENE.

Walter Waldron, a prisoner, who was with deceased at the time of his death, and also present when he was received at 11:45 o'clock on Tuesday, said deceased was insensible and vomiting. After six o'clock he was in Waldron's charge. He died at 9:38 p. m. He knew the time correctly because the turnkey had ordered witness to call him if he saw the man dying. When the turnkey arrived he took out his watch and told the time. The deceased had not spoken or opened his eyes.

LANE'S HOSPITAL TREATMENT.

Louis Buttner gave evidence that the deceased was admitted to the hospital in November last. He was suffering from softening of the brain. He seldom saw Lane, but heard from him daily. He was not a fit subject for the hospital. He would strike and abuse the other patients. He considered deceased insane and dangerous. Witnes was not present when Lane was removed from the hospital. Neither did he see the warrant ordering his removal: Lane was dull and stupid when first received, and gradually grew worse, and made the other patients afraid of him.

MEDICAL TESTIMONY.

Dr. A. S. Oliver recounted the circumstances of his visit to the gaol. He had seen deceased several weeks ago in the hospital and considered him insane. The rattling in Lane's throat, improperly termed the "death rattle," was caused by the mucus moving up and down in his throat while breathing. Several hours of stupor frequently follow epileptic fits. He had not considered deceased's state necessarily fatal. He was positive no harm was caused by Lane being taken from the hospital to the gaol; on the other hand the effects, if any, attributable to his removal were in his estimation beneficial to him. The chances were that the man would have died in the hospital and as quickly. Lane died from epilepsy. Witness was on the way to the gaol yesterday morning to visit Lane when he heard of the latter's death.

LANE'S INSANITY.

Dr. Fife Fowler testified that he saw Lane in January for the first time in his capacity as hospital physician. He considered Lane insane. He grew worse as time progressed. Arrangements were made at one time for his removal, but he fell and hurt himself and consequence was kept at the hospital. On Saturday last he and the Police Magistrate visited deceased and found him insane. He next saw Lane in gaol lying on a board with his head upon a stick of wood; nothing else under it. He was insensible and breathing freely. He did not consider the case necessarily fatal. He did not know what the state of the man was on Tuesday, but on Saturday he was fit to be removed. Witness did not think that Lane's removal from the hospital accelerated death.

CIRCUMSTANCES OF REMOVAL.

David Wallace, hospital house surgeon, swore that deceased was received at the institution with which he is connected on November 26th. He was suffering from a brain affection. Some time ago he was adjudged unfit for the hospital. On Monday night he was taken with epileptic fits and on Tuesday when removed from the hospital was in a stupor, the result of the fits. The policeman produced a paper which he said authorized the removal of Gideon Lane to the gaol. He had no control over the hospital further than the medical department, and had the policeman taken all the patients away he could not have interfered. While he thought it would look bad in the eyes of the public he felt that the fresh air would do Lane good. Deceased had been carefully removed from the hospital to the sleigh. Lane took fits periodically and four or five of them in succession. On Sunday and Monday he was in a fit condition to be removed. After the fits left him he would remain in a stupor for some time. The removal did not accelerate his death.

CLOSE OF EVIDENCE—VERDICT.

This concluded the evidence. It was carefully read over to the jury by Mr. Kirkpatrick, who, also, at the request of the Coroner, addressed them as to the finding of a verdict.

The jury retired, and, after a few moments' deliberation, returned the following verdict:

"That the deceased, Gideon Lane, came to his death from natural causes; in the opinion of the jury the removal of the deceased from the hospital to the gaol, in his then condition (stupor), was imprudent."

The jury was then thanked and dismissed.

MARINE AND FISHERIES.

An Expensive but Efficient Arm of the Public Service—Suggestions.

Copies of the report of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries have been distributed somewhat late in the session. The publication is not so interesting as some of the blue books, and yet perusers of it will find stray paragraphs of more or less public and even local interest. We find that the total amount expended on the various branches of the public service administered by this department, including the salaries of the establishment staff, during the year ending 30th June last, was $809,492.29, while the total amount voted was $893,043.52, which last named amount includes the departmental salaries. The whole number of persons engaged in the outside service of the department, at the close of the calendar year, was 1,751. In the summary of

LIGHT HOUSE IMPROVEMENTS

we observe that the repairs to the breakwater at Nine Mile Point light station, near Kingston, have been carried out satisfactorily at a cost of $598.51, also those at the light station at the east end of Long Point, at a cost of $1,147.79. A contract has been let for the construction of the light house at South Bay Point, Prince Edward county, but the work has not yet been completed. According to this report 235 sailing vessels and 54 steamers are registered at Kingston, the gross tonnage of the steamers being 10,749, and the net tonnage 27,415.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST.

The following was the outlay in connection with lighthouses in which we are most interested: Gananoque Narrows, $424.79; Nine Mile Point, $1,028.59; Pigeon Island, $871.84; Point Pleasant, $375.75; Salmon Point, $616.94; Spectacle Shoal, $639.07; Wellers Bay, $979.28; Wolfe Island, $253.60. Among the items of general expenditure we find the following: Late Darius Smith, $700; P. Harty, one month's salary as Inspector of Lighthouses, $833.33; W. McRossie, lumber and shingles, $22.70; R. M. Horsey, lime, $33.75; City Corporation, share of gas and twelve months' attendance, $388.13; W. McRossie, making and placing buoys in harbor, $65. The list of officials includes the following: P. Kiel, overseer of Wolfe Island and the southern part of the county, comprising the townships of Storrington, Pittsburg and Kingston, $200; John A. Cameron, Westport, overseer of that part of Frontenac north of Loughboro Lake, $100; A. D. Sills, Napanee, overseer of the lake shore and inland waters, counties of Lennox and Addington, including Amherst Island, $150.

OBSERVATORY REMOVAL.

Dr. Williamson, Director of the Kingston Observatory, submits the following:

"In my last report I stated that in consequence of the great inconvenience connected with the former site of the Observatory, on low ground and in a public park in the midst of the city with trees rapidly growing up all around, it was proposed to apply to the City Council and subscribers to remove the instruments to another observatory building in a higher and otherwise more suitable position. The necessary consent having been obtained, the erection of a small edifice for the reception of equatorial and transits, with a room for the observer, was contracted for. The amount of the tenders is $680, and the whole expense connected with the removal will be about $700. The building is now nearly completed, wanting only the revolving dome, and the plastering and painting. The whole will be finished and in working order early in the spring."

ASYLUM CONCERT.

Entertainment Furnished by the Choir of St. Paul's Church.

Last evening the choir of St. Paul's Church, accompanied by Mr. Keeley and others, on the invitation of Dr. Metcalfe, Medical Superintendent, paid a visit to Rockwood Asylum. The audience was awaiting the arrival of the party, by whom the following programme was rendered

Piano Solo	Miss Chamberlain
Anthem	Choir of St. Paul's Church
Song	Miss Beel
Reading	Mr. Phippen
Song	Miss E McDonald
Song	Sergt. Billman, "B" Battery
Song	Mrs. Rudston
Song	Mr. Keeley
Instrumental Selection	Mr. R. W. Shannon
Anthem—Choir—a solo being taken by Miss McDonald, a duett by Miss McDonald and Mrs Martin, and a chorus by the choir.
Song	Miss Beel
Recitation	Mr. Crumley
Song	Mr. Phippen
Instrumental Selection	Mr. R. W. Shannon
Dialogue—Lord Dundreary's Visit—Miss Martin, Miss Roach, Messrs Keeley and Roach.
Song	Sergt. Billman
Song	Mr Keeley
God Save the Queen.

The accompaniments were well executed by Misses Chamberlain, Macdonald, Mr. Gregor and Mr. R. W. Shannon.

It is needless to state that when all did their best the audience should be very well pleased. In the dialogue the young ladies acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner, and we hope to have the pleasure of seeing them again of course. Mr. Keeley was the "Lord Dundreary," and—well it was Keely. At the conclusion of the concert the company, preceded by the genial steward, Mr. Maclean, proceeded to the supper room where a bountiful repast was spread and enjoyed by all. One young lady seemed fond of sandwitches, at least one would judge so by her attention to Old ham. Another complained of the buns because they were not Crumley. A vote of thanks was given to the officers of the institution for their kind attention during the evening. Homeward bound was the order, and it was amusing to see the gents in assisting the ladies on with their wraps, trying to come the "Artful Dodger." All ready! A general scramble for the sleigh, which was soon filled, and a start for the city, which was reached at 11 p. m.

Vennor's Bulletin.

The following is Mr. Vennor's bulletin for the ensuing month:

"This March will come in like a lion. The beginning of the month will be characterized by storms of wind, which will culminate during the second week in heavy gales throughout the United States. On the 2nd there will be heavy snow storms in Quebec and Montreal. About the 7th and 8th storms of wind and snow may be expected, followed by rain and slush. This condition of things will terminate in a cold dip about the 12th and 14th, with a snow fall. On the 13th cold weather may be expected in Toronto, Sarnia and other points west."

DERYAW CASE.

Rumored Withdrawal of the Criminal Action Not Correct.

Mr. John Breden, of Kingston, paid his respects a few days ago to the publisher of the Carleton Place Central Canadian, a neighbor of his in Kingston over twenty years ago. As a result our contemporary states that "the young man Deryaw, who influenced Breden's revolver to spring to its owner's rescue, is moving about almost as well as usual, and with his returning strength is abandoning his claims against Mr. Breden. The criminal action has been withdrawn—and a civil one substituted, though the prospects are very dim in favor of a man's being asked to pay heavily for the privilege of putting in motion a means of self defence." With this information in our possession the legal gentlemen who have the case in hand were interviewed. Mr. T. H. McGuire, counsel for Deryaw, stated that the criminal action had not been withdrawn. There might be some private arrangement, but he was not aware of it. Mr. B. M. Britton said that there was a sub stratum of truth in the report, although he did not think that either the criminal charge had been withdrawn or a civil action entered. Deryaw has been asking for some compensation for the loss he had sustained on account of the fracas.

PRISON LABOUR.

The Subject Discussed in the House—Lock-Making Criticised.

On the item $126,804, Kingston Penitentiary, read when the House was in Committee of Supply on Tuesday, Hon. Mr. Macdonald (Picton) in reference to the question of prison labor, said the subject was far too sacred to enter upon in detail. The manufacture of locks was in progress when he took charge of the Department.

Hon. Mr. Mackenzie asked whether the system of prison labor was to be continued. He expressed surprise that the Minister of Militia had taken office in a Government which pursued a policy so much at variance with his individual views.

Hon. Mr. Caron said the hon. gentleman was unfortunate in selecting the lock trade as the basis for criticising the Government's policy. The manufactory in the Kingston Penitentiary was the only one in the Dominion.

Hon. Mr. Auglin denied this, saying that there is a lock factory at Moncton, N.B.

Sir John Macdonald said the factory referred to by the last speaker had only been started within the past year. If the factory at the Penitentiary interfered with it the Government would consider what was best to be done under the circumstances.

In reply to Hon. Mr. Mills,

Sir John Macdonald said he did not consider it the duty of the Government to reward crime by giving thieves and rogues a mechanical education, nor was that the object of the penitentiaries.

The item passed.

Mr. Gilmore Unseated.

We referred a few days ago to the proceedings which were taken to unseat Mr. Gilmore, Reeve of Trenton, (not Napanee.) The following is the judgment:

Sumons made absolute to unseat defendant, his Lordship holding that the by-law constituted a contract, and he was therefore disqualified for the position of Reeve; relator to have his costs. In support of the summons it was contended that defendant had entered into a contract with the corporation, by the terms of which his mill was to be exempted from taxation for ten years, and sec. 74 of the Municipal Act provides that anyone who derives any interest from the corporation is disqualified to act as a member of it. His Lordship held this a good objection, and therefore made the order unseating defendant.

HOW TO GET RICH.—The great secret to obtaining riches, is first to practice economy, and as good old "Deacon Snyder" says, "It used to worry the life out of me to pay enormous doctor's bills, but now I have 'struck it rich.'" Health and happiness reign supreme in our little household, and all simply because we use no other medicine but Electric Bitters and it only costs fifty cents a bottle." Sold by all druggists.
