MOVEMENTS IN ORANGE CIRCLES.

(Herald)

Last Friday evening the Orange delegates from Ontario to the Supreme Grand Lodge, a number of whom have been in the city for a day or two conferring with the Orange representatives here, set out last evening for the meeting, which begins on Tuesday next in St. John, N. B. As far as could be gathered from those the presence of Ontario Orangemen in this city on the 12th of July will depend upon the action of the authorities here. They state that they do not expect the Dominion Government to take measures to protect the Orangemen of Montreal after the Premier's recent declaration in Toronto, in which he stated that the responsibility of calling out the troops rested with the mayor of the city. If they receive a guarantee from the civic authorities that steps will be taken to protect the Orangemen in procession here, they will urge the Supreme Grand Lodge to advise Western Orangemen to remain at home; if not they will adopt other measures to have the procession unmolested. This will be the important question discussed. They expect that there will be a larger attendance at the Supreme Lodge this year than on any previous occasion.

It has been suggested on account of the difficulty the Orangemen have had in obtaining halls for their meetings that they raise a company to build a hall for their accommodation. A resident on Point St. Charles has offered a bonus of $100 a year towards the carrying out of this enterprise.
