A Hoax Sell.

The Ottawa Herald says that the "Grand Cheap Excursion" from Ottawa to Rochester and return is over and some 140 people have been caught in the trap. The whole thing was a "fraud, a delusion and a snare," and those who were snared feel very irate. The thing was a bad sell in. The manager announced that the "Admiral" was the fastest steamer on fresh water; that it was fitted up with all modern improvements, elegant, commodious, etc., whereas, in reality, it is an old Revenue Cutter, in no wise fitted for the carrying of passengers, though with coal she might be made to run at an Arab. There was no cabin, only seven state rooms, no dining table, no carpet and nothing at fast to afford any show of comfort to the excursionists. She afforded very little shelter from the rain, and consequently the passengers suffered terribly. A table was made by the putting together of old boxes, and shoe-blacks appeared as waiters, whilst articles of food were wanting and the pleasure-seekers had to turn to at times and cook dishes for themselves. This sort of thing was not very agreeable to people, especially ladies who had paid their money to enjoy a "grand excursion." From Kingston, the "Admiral" remained out on the lake all night until 5 o'clock in the morning, the excursionists finding no place to sleep or rest themselves, the engineer stating that he was beating time in obedience to the officials. This was a villainous fraud. The passengers were dejected and disgusted.

A Letter from a Clergyman

Vermonville, Sept. 8th, 1876.

Messrs. Milburn, Bentley & Pearson.

GENTLEMEN,—Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has cured the worst case of summer Complaint I ever knew. Our little child was, for one month, not expected to recover. We got medicine from our family physician, but, like everything else, it failed, until we tried Dr. Fowler's Great Cure, Extract of Wild Strawberry, which acted like a charm, and perfectly cured the infant in less than three days.

Yours faithfully,
Rev. S. R. KEARNS.
