The Paris Conference.

London, Jan. 9.

Advices from Candia by mail fully confirm the previous reports of the submission of the Cretans to the Turkish authority.

Paris, Jan. 10.

The conference for the settlement of the dispute between Greece and Turkey met in this city yesterday. This first session commenced at four o'clock p.m. The Greek and Turkish representatives both manifested a very conciliatory disposition, and a peaceful result to the deliberations of the conference is looked forward to with confidence. The next session will take place on Tuesday.

A FLORENTINE SENSATION.—A bold piece of gossip is current in Florence. It is alleged that a formidable Fenian conspiracy has been discovered, its object being the invasion of Scotland, and the elevation to the Scotch throne of one Robert Stuart—said to be a 'pretender,' which he certainly must be, as the royal line of Stuart terminated many years ago in Cardinal York. Lord Napier's visit to Florence is ascribed to a tender gratitude on the part of the British government for the welfare of Mr. Stuart. Irish Americans and Scotch gentlemen are said to be in constant and mysterious communication, subject, however, to the keen espionage of British detectives.

GOBE BANK.—Notice has been given, in the usual way, that application will be made to Parliament, at its next session, for an act to amend the charter of the Gore Bank, by reducing the shares of the capital stock (now fully paid up) from $40 to $24 each; and by increasing the number of shares requisite for the qualification of its directors, and by authorizing the issue of new shares to an amount, which, together with the amount of share capital now issued—when so reduced, will make the capital of the Bank amount to one million dollars; and by changing the time now fixed for holding the annual meeting of the shareholders.

THE REAL ABYSSINIA.—Dr. H. Blanc, a member of the English mission to King Theodore, stated recently before the Royal Geographical Society, London, that the Abyssinian military expedition was never in Abyssinia proper at all, and that it never met the real Abyssinians. He did not speak very highly of the true Abyssinians or their country, but was very enthusiastic in describing the tract of land known as Western Abyssinia. The whole of this tract of valleys, plains, and plateaus—is watered by countless streams; the soil is so rich and enjoys so many climatic advantages that three harvests are usually reaped in a year. Wheat, barley, and teff are grown in large quantities. Wine is abundant. Cotton covers the plains. Honey, fragrant with the perfumes of wild flowers, is found elsewhere.

AN EXTRAVAGANT GOVERNMENT.—One of our contemporaries has compiled the following interesting table for the purpose of contrasting the expenses imposed on the people of Quebec and Ontario by their respective Local Government. It is based on the latest estimates put forth by the Provincial Treasurers:—Lt. Governor's office, Quebec, $4,088, Ontario, $1,200; Office of Secretary & Registrar, Quebec, $19,580, Ontario, $9,465; Crown Lands, Quebec, $13,051, Ontario, $6,050; Treasurer's office, Quebec, $13,051, Ontario, $7,218; Surveys in Crown Lands Office, Quebec, $177,440, Ontario, $111,970; Public Works and Agriculture, Quebec, $17,189, Ontario, $9,865; Executive Council office, Quebec, $6,988, Ontario, $1,614; Contingencies of Public Offices, Quebec, $47,639, Ontario, $25,000; Elections, Quebec, $16,975, Ontario, $2,500; Printing and distributing statutes, Quebec, $13,700, Ontario, $7,500; Legislative Council for members, $11,500, Assembly, $31,500, contingencies and salaries, $19,527; Quebec total, $92,527. Ontario—for members, $39,000, contingencies, $16,825; total $46,325.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENT.—In a recent report a New York paper says: On the other hand, among the things peffectly done were the fine feats of strength and agility of Mr. and Miss Lenyah. Mr. Lenyah has the arm of the Farnese Hercules, and Miss Lenyah the figure of a Juno. Both were dressed in the tight-fitting garments usually worn by acrobats. The exercises they went through were with hand rings at the end of ropes, on which they swung through the air in a variety of finely executed performances. The most daring of all was one called in the programme 'the Transept Flight.' Mr. Lenyah hung by his feet, head down, from the top of the proscenium, just in front on the orchestra, holding firmly a trapeze. Miss Lenyah taking her position in the front of the upper circle, swung herself off over the heads of the audience, and catching the trapeze so held with her feet, let go her hold of the rings by which she had swung across the auditorium, and so hung in the air, head down. It was a feat of cool calculation, steady nerve, and quiet courage, such as we have never seen equalled by any of her sex. It is proper to add that her performance, in spite of the very unusual costume and attitudes for a woman that it compelled, was carried out with entire modesty and grace.

NOVEL SALE.—A somewhat novel Sheriff's sale was advertised to take place at the Court House in Ottawa, on Saturday, being ten thousand dollars worth of Canadian five per cent. securities. The Etna Insurance Company of Dublin invested this amount. The Company has now ceased operations, and was sued for unsatisfied claims at Toronto and Goderich. Four executions having issued, in all amounting to the present date to about $4,530, they were placed in the hands of the Sheriff of the County for the purpose of seizing the securities held by the Minister of Finance. The bidders, however, were few, the Company's agent having sent a verbal intimation that he had lodged a written protest against the surrender of the securities with the Minister of Finance. The sale was consequently postponed until the 23rd inst., at the same hour, (noon,) when, if the executions are not previously satisfied, or proceedings stayed, the securities will be peremptorily sold to the highest bidder.

KU KLUX.—Augusta, Ga., Jan 10.—Anderson, Ulton, and three negroes were taken from the gaol at Appling, and hung yesterday for the murder of a man named Martin, and his two sisters.

FUNERAL IN MONTREAL.—The funeral of the late Patrick Doody, who had previously been confined in Ottawa gaol on suspicion of complicity in the Fenian troubles connected with the assassination of the late Hon. Mr. McGee, took place yesterday afternoon from his former residence, corner of Craig and George streets. Before the procession started, Craig street, in the direction of Victoria square, was lined, more or less, with spectators. The hearse was drawn by four led horses, and the procession which was of great length, passed through Craig, McGill, Wellington, Murray and Mountain streets towards the Catholic cemetery at the mountain. A few of these present had green emblems in their button holes, and some of them wore green ties, whilst a large proportion had crape on their hats. There were likewise strangers who attended the funeral, and the numbers that followed increased as the procession passed through the western part of the city, until at length it was swelled to several thousands.—Montreal Witness.

The Fire at Aylmer.

THE COUNTY JAIL AND COURT HOUSE BURNED.

The Ottawa Times says: A few minutes before six a.m., on Saturday last, a fire was discovered in the basement of the West Wing of the County Jail, in the town of Aylmer. Word was at once sent to Sheriff Courtlee, who made all haste to the scene. In the meantime, however, the rear doors of the jail were thrown open by the jailor, and all the prisoners were set at liberty for the time being; but they were subsequently secured, and, under a strong guard, were removed to a place of security. There were some fifteen prisoners confined in jail. The building was totally destroyed. The original cost of the building was £3,000, and was insured in the 'Royal' for £3,000. All the records and valuable papers, the property of the courts, were saved.

The jailor, Mr. John Murphy, lost nearly all his personal property, which was on the premises. It having transpired that the fire could not be subdued by the means at command, in Aylmer, a message was sent to the city of Ottawa, requesting that some fire engines be sent out. At ten minutes to ten, the chief of the Ottawa Fire Brigade, Mr. Langford, received word to proceed to Aylmer with the engines, and at once ordered the 'Ottawa' to the scene. So promptly were his orders obeyed, that the engine was at the scene of the fire, a distance of nine miles, at 11:10 o'clock. When they arrived, however, the building was in ruins, but had they received notice earlier in the morning, the east and south wings of the building would have been saved. The origin of the fire is involved in mystery, as there were neither stove-pipes nor hot air flues in the basement, where the fire originated. The firemen received every attention from the citizens of Aylmer on every side. None of the prisoners were injured, and they worked at the fire with great bravery.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN'Y 13, 1869

THE PRINTERS' FESTIVAL.—To-night the Festival of the Season comes off in the City Hall. The Printers being, as a cotemporary expresses itself, "the framework of Society," it follows that any thing they do will be something out of the ordinary way. As a body they feel that a great deal is expected from them, but should there be any short-comings in to-night's Festival, they must be forgotten, since this is the first Printers' Re-union held in Kingston, and the promoters of it have not the benefit of experience to guide them. But from present indications we should judge that it will be a gratifying success, as well in point of attendance, as in the fund of enjoyment. Among the many attractions, is that of having the Band of the R. C. Rifles play their delightful music for the dances which follow the Concert.

THE DINNER TO THE MAYOR.—No man has entertained his Council oftener or better, during his three years Mayoralty, than John Breden, Esq. Now that he is retiring from office, would it not be a grateful task for his Council to entertain him, here he does retire? The City Council of Ottawa have paid that compliment to their Mayor.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY.—The Canada News tells us that the committee appointed at the meeting of shareholders of the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada, on the 24th Oct last, have induced Messrs Robert Gillespie, Graham Menzies, and G. Hodgkinson, M.P., to join the Board of Directors, and that vacancies will be made forthwith by the retirement of a corresponding number of the present members of the Board.

POLICE COURT, Tuesday—Two drunks were the only prisoners before the Court this morning. They were fined $2 each.

PERUVIAN SYRUP.

A PROTECTED SOLUTION OF THE PROTOXIDE OF IRON supplies the blood with its LIFE ELEMENT, IRON giving strength, vigor and new life to the whole system.

If the thousands who are suffering from Dyspepsia, Debility, Female Weaknesses &c., would but test the virtues of the Peruvian Syrup, the effect would not only astonish themselves but would please all their friends for instead of feeling cross, 'all gone' and miserable, they would be cheerful, vigorous and active.

A DISTINGUISHED JURIST WRITES TO A FRIEND AS FOLLOWS:

'I have tried the Peruvian Syrup, and the result fully sustains your prediction. It has made a new man of me, infused into my system new vigor and energy; I am no longer tremulous and debilitated, as when you last saw me, but stronger, heartier, and with larger capacity for labor, mental and physical, than at any time during the last five years.'

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

The genuine has 'Peruvian Syrup' blown in the glass.

LOOK TO CONSEQUENCES.—Remember that Dyspepsia is not only a terrible disease in itself, but the direct cause of a whole host of maladies. No human being is so susceptible to all unhealthy influences as the confirmed dyspeptic. Why, is the same reason, does any one continue to risk the consequences of Indigestion, when a course of Radway's Regulating Pills will effect a perfect cure in any case, however aggravated.

Price 25 cents per box, coated with sweet gum, free from taste. Sold by all Druggists.

Arsenic has been known for many years to have the power of imparting a wax-like complexion and a roundness to the features, and is said still to be used in some countries for that purpose; its employment however, is attended with considerable danger, because of the fatal effects of its discontinuance after its use becomes a habit, and the shortening of life if continued. The plumpness and disposition to take on flesh imparted by FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP, is due solely to its strengthening influence on the Nervous system. It creates a healthy action on all the organs of the body necessary to existence, assisting nature in building up and developing to the fullest extent, the human frame, and enabling the body to perform its functions with vigor. It is safe and reliable, and its use may be discontinued at any time without prejudice to the health or any unpleasant effect.

Sold by Apothecaries. Price $1,50 per bottle, or 6 for $7,50.

Polonius—To thine own self be true;
And it must follow, as the night the day,
Thou canst not then be false to any man.
Hamlet, Act I. Scene 3.

PUFFS are the known device of quacks and cheats,
RASCALS, striving by unscrupulous feats
OF turgid boasting, deftly to deceive
VICTIMS unwary who their tales believe.
I scorn their arts, and vaunt no spurious ware—
SOUNDNESS in quality's my constant care.
IN each transaction 'tis my anxious aim
OF MORRISON to keep the upright name.
NO customs sought where value's not returned.
SUCH is my scheme. Adulteration's spurned!
