Most biographies make an error as to the age of the Pope. It is stated on his own authority, that he was born in 1790, and is accordingly seventy-eight years of age, instead of seventy-six, as is commonly believed.

It is remarked, says the Court Journal, that a royal prince leaves the young ladies he honors by dancing with in the middle of the room when the set is finished. One young lady, the daughter of a distinguished officer, was recently in a vast fright, fancying she had offended his royal highness. The explanation is that it is royal etiquette.

There are in England 1,000 co-operative societies, with a membership of 250,000, a cash working capital of 7½ millions of dollars, and an annual trade of 25 millions. The Rochdale societies, which commenced in 1844, with a capital of twenty-eight pounds, now have 6,266 members, and realize a profit of $160,000.

It costs Great Britain $1,500,000 a year to support Gibralter for military purposes. Admiral Grey, in a letter to the London Times, points out the utter uselessness of Gibralter, in a military, naval and political point of view, recommends that it be given to Spain in exchange for the harbor of Ceuta. If Gibralter be so utterly useless as this comes to, we should hardly think Spain would care to have it at any price; the fact that she does want it shows that it is of value.

According to Paris correspondents the hair is now usually dressed high, and a rich spray of flowers placed across the crown of the head, resting against the coil or plait of hair. Dark hair is now all the rage, therefore blondes are dyeing their golden tresses, and those brunettes who lately dyed their locks are restoring them to their early honors.

An extraordinary attempt to murder is reported from Kilmarnock. On New Year's day a man named James Drummond brought home half a pound of gunpowder. He told his wife he would give her three minutes in which to prepare for death, and at the expiration of that time he threw the gunpowder into the fire. The explosion threw Mrs. Drummond to the other side of the room and severely burnt her. The man escaped with only a slight scorching.

The first Protestant church on Spanish soil has lately been opened at Mahon, in the Island of Minorca. Stimulated by this good example, the municipality of Barcelona sent, of its own accord, a request to the Protestant inhabitants of the city, inviting them to petition for permission to found a church of their own. The Protestant community of Barcelona is not inconsiderable. Apart from the English residents there are some 700 German speaking people.

The demi monde of Paris recently had a grand ball. The invitations were printed on white satin, the envelopes were scented, and the letters were gilt. Noblemen and millionaries attended, and one of the nymphs wore $200,000 worth of jewels.

Pius IX had already determined to pardon the two men upon whom sentence of death had been passed for blowing up the Serriston barracks, in Rome, when Cardinal Antonelli, by dint of the most urgent representations, succeeded in inducing him to sign the death warrants. The final report of the Printing Committee of the House states that the total cost of printing and binding for the past year was $5,187. He said the system was such as to give the utmost satisfaction, and compared it with the cost of 1852, when the House consisted of only 82 members, it was found that $89,792 were paid. The Queen's Printer's office was a sink of iniquity, and must now be at an end. The report was concurred in.

The Governor-General in Montreal.—The Gazette says:—It being understood that the Corporation gave to Sir John Young and Lady Young an invitation to visit the commercial metropolis, there was a meeting held yesterday to consider the entertainments to be offered to their Excellencies. It was unanimously of opinion that the citizens should give a public dinner to Sir John, and afterwards a ball, at which Lady Young would be present. A committee was appointed to carry out the objects of the meeting.

The Brazilian papers just received in London know nothing at all about the magnificent victory which a Cable despatch reported the Allies to have won over the Paraguayans at Villeta. This would seem to indicate that the whole report of a Paraguayan victory is a hoax.

The Mikado has declared peace to reign throughout Yokohamo, China, on December 26. The city of Yeddo has been tranquil since the arrival of the Mikado. The political condition of the empire was still unsettled. The civil war has not entirely ceased, but fresh disputes have broken out among the princes in either party, and fights frequently take place in the interior.

"Loss — Dollars. No Insurance!"—How often do these suggestive words wind up the accounts of fires? They are suggestive, not only of the utter waste of so much property, and perhaps the ruin of its owner; but also of a certain want of ordinary precaution which experience has long ago taught us, ought to be used by every one having property exposed, however remotely, to the risk of destruction by fire. In a city like this, where to permit a fire to begin is almost equivalent to surrendering the whole establishment in which it originates to destruction, it is a serious folly to neglect insurance. What though the rates to be paid will swallow up more money than would pay a respectable tax for water works, and a reasonable fire risk beside? Is it not better than to read in the newspapers the morning after your property is destroyed—"no insurance!"—Ottawa Times.

A prisoner created a panic in the Cincinnatti workhouse, a few days since, by walking out of his cell with his face dawny red and pitted all over, apparently with smallpox. NEWS OF THE DAY.

MONDAY MORNING, JAN'Y 25, 1869.

The Late Fire.—The persons routed out of their homes and places of business by the late fire are being settled again in different places. Mr. Ireland, engraver, having saved his press, and a small portion of his other materials, has opened an office in Wellington street, opposite Messrs McKelvey & Birch's store, where he will carry on his business in future. Mr. Meves, goldsmith, is now occupying the vacant shop on the corner of Brock and Bagot streets, having gathered together his stock, which was saved in anything but a perfect condition, during the excitement incident to the fire. Mr. Hewitt, grocer, and Mr. Cannon, tailor, will likely re-occupy their old places of business, which were not greatly damaged.

The unfortunate woman who received such dreadful burns by the explosion is still in a precarious condition, and undergoing intense suffering.

Sheriff's Fees.—The new bill of the Attorney-General, to regulate the fees payable to Sheriffs for services connected with criminal justice, came into force on the 1st inst. The new tariff is, with one exception, slightly higher than the one formerly in operation, and will give these functionaries a chance now of partially regaining what they have lost by the introduction of the new Insolvent Act.

St. Paul's Church.—The Annual Missionary Meeting of St. Paul's Church, Queen St., in aid of the Missions of the Diocese of Ontario, will be held on Tuesday evening, (to morrow) on which occasion the members of the Deputation, Rev. Messrs. Jones and Burke, will be assisted in carrying out the objects of the meeting by other clergymen and gentlemen of the city, who will make addresses.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP.

A peculiar characteristic of Fellows' Compound Syrup is its power of decomposing the food in the stomach, rendering digestion and assimilation more perfect. This partly accounts for the rapidity with which patients take on flesh while using the article.

Diseases such as Consumption, Bronchitis, Debility from Typhoid and other low Fevers, from excessive grief, study or close confinement, and prostration of the vital powers, yield to Fellows Compound Syrup sooner than any remedy ever before discovered.

The muscles of the stomach are strengthened, digestion becomes complete, the absorbant vessels take up nutrition, the blood becomes vitalized and pure—the nervous system vigorous, and the thin, pale or sallow complexioned become plump and healthy, and regain the ruddy tint of health.

Sold by Apothecaries. Price $1.50 per bottle, or 6 for $7.50.

The Perfection of Prepared Cocoa.

Maravilla Cocoa.

Sole Proprietors, - - - TAYLOR BROTHERS, LONDON.

THE COCOA (or Cacao) of Maravilla is the true Theobroma of Linnæus. Cocoa is indigenous to South America, of which Maravilla is a favoured portion. Taylor Brothers having secured the exclusive supply of this unrivalled Cocoa, have, by the skilful application of their soluble principle and elaborate machinery, produced what is so undeniably the perfection of prepared Cocoa, that it has not only secured the preference of homœpaths and cocoa-drinkers generally, but many who had hitherto not found any preparation to suit them, have, after one trial, adopted the Maravilla Cocoa as their constant beverage for breakfast, luncheon, &c.

"A Success Unprecedented."

(See following Extract from the Globe of May 4, 1868.)

"Various importers and manufacturers have attempted to attain a reputation for their prepared Cocoas, but we doubt whether any thorough success has been achieved until Messrs. Taylor Brothers discovered the extraordinary qualities of 'Maravilla' Cocoa. Adapting their perfect system of preparation to this finest of all species of the Theobroma, they have produced an article which far exceeds every other Cocoa in the market. Entire solubility, a delicate aroma, and a rare concentration of the purest elements of nutrition, distinguish the Maravilla Cocoa above all others. For Homœopaths and invalids we could not recommend a more agreeable or valuable beverage."

Sold in packets only by all Grocers, of whom also may be had Taylor Brothers' Original Homœopathic Cocoa and Soluble Chocolate.

Polonius.—To thine own self be true,
And it must follow, as the night the day
Thou canst not then be false to any man.
Hamlet, Act I. Scene 3

Puffs are the known device of quacks and cheats,
Rapacious, striving by unscrupulous feats
Outrageous boasting, deftly to deceive
Victims unwary who their tales believe.
Scorn their arts, and vaunt no spurious ware—
Soundness in quality's my constant care.
In each transaction 'tis my anxious aim
To MORRISON to keep the upright name
No cushion's sought where value's not returned.
Such is my scheme. Adulteration's spurned!

M. MORRISON.
