SHOULD READ THIS

GENTLEMEN,—I again have to ask you to send us some more of your excellent Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It has proved such a valuable remedy in all cases of Pulmonary Complaint and for building up the Constitution of our little ones, many of whom come to us in a very weak and debilitated state. We have come to think that we cannot do without a supply of PUTTNER'S EMULSION in our home. We have no trouble in getting the children to take it, in fact they often ask and sometimes cry or it.

That Game of Checkers.

On Monday evening a challenge game of checkers was played by Mr. Burnham, of Cape Vincent, and Conductor Judd, of the K. & P. R. The latter was beaten badly. Twenty-six games were played; twenty-two were taken by Burnham, two by Judd, and two were drawn.

Intemperance on the Increase.

The police statistics, furnished by Chief Horsey, for the month of October, are as follows: Drunkenness, 57; larceny, 4; vagrancy, 3; fighting on the streets, 4; neglecting to appear on summonses, 2. The number of persons arrested for drunkenness for October is larger than for any month this year.

Good Manufacturing Facilities.

Z. Prevost, at the New York clothing store, has every facility for manufacturing ordered work. Having made additions to his staff of workmen he is prepared to manufacture a suit on ten hours' notice, a vest and pants in six hours, well made, and a good fit guaranteed. He is now showing all classes of desirable goods.

A Difference in Style.

The clergymen attending the synod of Ontario are not confined to the same style of robes. Most of the asthetic looking clerics come from about Ottawa. They wear robes touching their feet, buttoned down the front, and having about the waist a broad band or girdle. Both the gown and girdle are of rich material. The Kingston clergymen have robes, but they are not as tasty or as wrinkled with culture as those of their eastern brethern.

Poor Old England?

These are hard times, and the oracles of the newspapers teem with thrifty suggestions. The last advice to the hard-pressed agriculturists is to go in for cultivating mushrooms and blackberries. What a prospect for the country children! Fancy every mushroom-meadow tabooed, to the early rural rambler, and all the blackberries strictly "preserved," in the sense of partridges, not of plum-jam. And what a fate for the land of the oak, the apple-tree, the wheat and the bearded barley, to come down, like tramps and village-urchins, to fungi and bramble-fruits.—Punch.

Gorman's Minstrels.

All the old favorites who so long constituted Haverly's minstrels will appear at the opera house on Friday evening next under the new trade mark, "The Gorman Spectacular Minstrels." The programme promises to be superior to anything presented lately in the burnt-cork line. The costumes are very gorgeous, and special scenery is carried for the production of the novel features. The after part is the newest and brightest ever seen in minstrelsy, being replete with new music, funny situations, and witty dialogues. In this part a Kingston artist wins distinction.

The Anniversary Thursday Evening.

Judge Macdonald, of Brockville, is to be the second speaker at the Y. M. C. A. anniversary meeting to-morrow evening in the city hall. The programme is to begin at eight o'clock and in addition to the speeches by Messrs. Budge and Macdonald, there will be solos by Miss Fralick, Miss Meek, and others. This gathering is open to all, and its purpose is to show to our citizens the work of the organization in our midst. Mr. Budge will arrive from Montreal to-morrow afternoon and will meet the members and directors of the association at half-past four in the rooms.

A Pleasing Presentation.

A very pleasing incident took place at Mr. A. C. Mavety's residence, head of Loboro lake, a few evenings previous to his removal to the city to attend the medical college. A large number of the young people of the Sabbath school assembled and presented him with a gentleman's toilet set, accompanied by an address in which they said: "We cannot find words to express our thanks to you for your kind, watchful care over us during many years. Your motto for us has ever been 'onward and upward.' We trust that, although visibly we may not behold you, your influence for good may ever remain with us. Your empty pew at church and Sabbath school will only too sadly remind us of our loss. We trust that the lessons of christian duty, fellowship and love, that you have tried to impress on our minds, may bring forth the fruits of righteousness."

STARVATION IN LABRADOR.

The Shocking Life which Some People Lead—Hungry All the Time.

MONTREAL, Oct. 19.—Two families named Russell and Rumbolt have escaped the semi-starvation. Mrs. Russell, a young and intelligent woman, makes the following statement, to which the two men subscribe: "We are here because we could live there no longer. We were almost starving. The fishing has fallen away. The people can't live, and they can't get away because they never receive a shilling in their lives. We are paid for our fish in goods and clothes. We have to pay three prices for everything. The fishing lasts only three months, and we have to live the other nine months out of the profits of the three. The fishery has so fallen away that there is barley enough made to keep during the summer. The spring is the worst season, for then there is nothing at all. The government gives a little assistance, but what is a little flour, peas and molasses? We have not tased fresh meat in the last 25 years. Such a thing is never thought of. We have often ground peas and made a sort of tea out of them. There is not such a thing as meat or potatoes. The whole country is barren rock. We have salt meat, but not enough of that. When fishing was good we could manage to live, but instead of getting a hundred quintals, we can only get thirty five now, and on that we have to live nine months. There are now about a hundred families in Bethel Harbor. All who can get away are gone. It's a hard thing to see your family growing up around you and nothing for them to do and nothing for them to eat. We never would have gotten here but for my uncle, who gave us a little money."

CIVIC FRAUDS IN MONTREAL.

Witnesses Who Fail to Appear at the Committee and Will Now be Arrested.

MONTREAL, Oct. 19.—At the boodle investigation committee meeting ex-Alds. Roy and R. Drapeau, witnesses who had been summoned, failed to appear. Mayor Abbott sent for them and they refused to come. They will now be arrested. Jules Helbronner, editor of La Presse, charged that contracts which were illegal had been given out, and said he could prove this by the books of the corporation. A report is in circulation that three of the witnesses summoned by the committee were taken into a leading lawyer's office and guaranteed from any imprisonment or penalties if they refused to give evidence.

Not an Encouraging Demonstration.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Prince Albert Victor laid the memorial stone at the infirmary at Northampton yesterday. The streets were crowded with spectators, many of whom greeted the speakers with groans. A number of black flags were carried by those who had gathered about the building, and cries of "Hurrah for Bradlaugh" were heard during the ceremony.

The Money For a Statue.

PORT HOPE, Oct. 19.—The committee has about $5,000 on hand with which to raise a memorial of the late Col. Williams, of the Midland battalion. A bronze statue, life size, will be erected on a stone pedestal near Port Hope's public offices.

The mate and wheelsman of the prop. California who reside in Kingston have been summoned to Toronto to give evidence before the investigating committee.

Rev. Father Kierner, New York, buried in the ruins of the school house he was building, has died.

SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY.

Nearly all the litigation and resisted settlements in Life Assurance arise from clauses and conditions in the policies. They often read "Indisputable after two years from any cause whatever," "provided only," that the conditions are kept intact. The "SUN" is absolutely UNCONDITIONAL, and therefore absolutely indisputable after two years. We have no "provided only."
