PROSPECTUS

FOR PUBLISHING A WEEKLY RELIGIOUS NEWSPAPER AT KINGSTON, UPPER CANADA, TO BE CALLLED

THE CANADIAN WATCHMAN.

THE present is a time when the moral condition of the world excites the inquiries and awakens the sympathies of the pious and benevolent of every country and of every name. It is marked as the commencement, or at least the dawn of the period when "many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased." Every opening for the increase and universal spread of Christianity claims attention. It is an age of exertion. Moral enterprises are continually bursting into existence. Some which appeared doubtful or hazardous at the outset, through the hand of God have proved eminently successful, and yielded benefits which time alone can never fully disclose.

Among the various means for the accomplishment of good, for diffusing useful and instructive intelligence, religious newspapers are conspicuous. They not only exhibit moral enterprises in themselves, but are instrumental in producing others. Their beneficial effects are acknowledged to be great. In proposing a new paper it is not designed to supplant or interfere with existing establishments. The members belonging to the Presbyterian church, and of others cherishing sentiments favorable to what may be distinctively termed calvinistic principles, render it desirable for them to possess more adequate means for obtaining information from the different parts of Canada and the contiguous Provinces, and from all parts of the world. Through a medium adapted to the situation of the people the friends of religion might be cheered and encouraged by accounts of what is doing elsewhere, incitements might be presented, and ways for action pointed out. Another prominent object is that of enlarging, perfecting and confirming the theoretical and practical views which are entertained of the doctrines and duties of the gospel; that professors of religion may become intelligent and be influenced to activity in the cause they have espoused. Nearly connected with this object is that of inculcating the duty of all to receive and obey the truth. The proposed journal is not, however, to bear a controversial character. There is much land to be possessed. These Provinces present a wide moral field. To operate directly and indirectly in favor of pure and undefiled religion is the controlling motive.

It is believed that whatever is necessary for the ordinary circumstances of families can be embraced in the projected paper, by appropriating a portion of its columns to a summary of general intelligence, foreign and domestic and a few literary and miscellaneous selections.

It is hoped all who wish well to vital religion will countenance the proposed publication; and that those whose wants is more especially intended to supply, will find inducements to give it their substantial support and to assist in giving it circulation.—Profit is not anticipated—at least in the commencement. Vigorous, persevering and united exertions on the part of its friends are necessary to prevent loss. Will they not be made? The question is asked with solicitude, but the desire of making the paper useful yields the hope that it will not be asked in vain.

CONDITIONS.

The Canadian Watchman will be printed on a super royal sheet of good quality with new type, and issued weekly at 12s. 6d. if paid within one month after receiving the first number; 15s. if paid within six months; and if not paid within six months 17s. 6d. per annum—exclusive of postage. The postage at four hillings a year, and must be paid by mail subscribers at the same time with their subscrstions.

Persons to whom subscription papers may be sent are requested to return their lists to the subcriber, at Kingston, by the first of August next, in the course of which month it is expected to commence.

ONTARIO HOUSE.

YORK, UPPER CANADA.

DAVID BOTSFORD, late of the Promenade Tavern, Niagara, has taken this Establishment, which he has fitted up in a superior style for the reception of Genteel Company. The proximity of this house to the Steam Boat Wharf and public buildings, and the extensive view from the Galleries which overlook the Town and Bay, renders it particularly delightful. He has taken care that every department is filled with active and faithful servants, and nothing shall be wanting on his part to render it a fashionalle place of resort.

PROSPECTUS

FOR PUBLISHING A WEEKLY RELIGIOUS NEWSPAPER AT KINGSTON, U. CANADA—TO BE EXCLUSIVELY DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF THE ESTABLISHED CHURCH OF ENGLAND, AND THE SUPPORT AND ILLUSTRATION OF HER PRIMITIVE AND APOSTOLIC DOCTRINE, MINISTRY AND WORSHIP—to be called

"THE WARDER."

WHILST other denominations of Christians are engaged in the laudable undertaking of circulating periodicals and other useful vehicles of Religious Instruction according to their respective views, in unlimited numbers, it has ever been a matter of regret that the Church of England should have slumbered upon the project we now (under the Divine Blessing) anticipate the success of, and which in a few words is expressed at the head of this Prospectus.—That this indifference has arisen from the conscious superiority of those principles which they cannot but love; principles sanctioned by antiquity and cherished by the word of God—forms no apology to the rising generation of Episcopalians in this infant Colony for the neglect in impressing their minds with a just view of the importance of their hereditary doctrines, and the necessity of a strict adherence to the pure principles of that venerable Institution of which they profess themselves members.

Where can this information be more easily and satisfactorily obtained than through the pages of a well regulated Newspaper devoted to whatever concerns the spiritual welfare of the people and the interests of the Church, important and useful not only as the means for conveying general information in relation to matters which more particularly concern us as Churchmen, but as tending to produce a correct religious impression upon the people, and best calculated to advance the great cause of Evangelical truth?

With these views we humbly and respectfully lay our project before our brethren of the Church, convinced that her interests will be advanced by the means we are pursuing, and her apostolic purity sustained through the present and succeeding generations.

The columns of THE WARDER shall never be stained with any polemical feeling, or any subject likely to excite religious controversy or party prejudice—They will be open to the communications of the Protestant Clergy and Laity, whose co-operation, with that of all our brethren, we most anxiously and fervently solicit. The Editorial department will be conducted by one or more of the Episcopal Clergy, and the mechanical part executed at the office of the Upper Canada Herald—and while we entreat all the Labourers in the Vineyard to aid and assist us, not only as correspondents, but as agents, in the encouragement of a fervent and rational piety, we would desire them to remember us in their prayers, that our humble efforts may be blessed of heaven in extending the knowledge of the Truth as it is in Jesus—in promoting the advancement of that primitive communion of which we are members, and in impressing the encouragement of those tempers and affections which should find a home in the hearts of those who would be found at last the disciples of the son of God.

Upon the most moderate calculation that has been made on the subject of the subscriptions for this undertaking, we find that the expense annually will not exceed 12 s. 6 d., exclusive of postage. THE WARDER will be published on Saturdays, upon an excellent sheet of Canadian manufacture, and it is expected that the clergy to whom we send our prospectus will act as agents, and transmit, on or before the 1st of July next, the names of the subscribers to John Macaulay, Esq. Kingston.
