THE REPORTER'S CIRCULATION

The number of Reporters Circulated last week was 816.

THE REPORTER

ATHENS, ONT., DEC. 17, 1889.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pencil.—Local Announcements Boiled Right Down.

Phil. Wiltse & Co. have just put in a full line of fresh groceries, which will be sold cheap. Call and see for yourself.

An indian medicine woman has located in the vicinity of Athens and is manufacturing and selling a variety of sure-cures.

The Christmas announcement of T. G. Stevens & Bro. in this issue contains a valuable pointer for the general public.

A large attendance of members of the local lodge of I. O. O. F. is requested for Wednesday evening session. Special business.

Large stock Christmas candies, fresh pea-nuts, walnuts, filberts, almonds, as cheap as the cheapest. Call and see.—SIDNEY MOORE.

The Mallorytown stage, having on board a load of modelites, broke down last week. Too much intellectuality is the cause assigned.

Mr. E. R. Witherell is home for vacation. Regarding his success in teaching Morrisburg school we will have something to say next week.

By petition the high school students secured the closing of the school on Friday last. This is a pointer for the youths in the back townships.

For reasons stated elsewhere in this issue, Mr Gibson has withdrawn from the purchase of the Cornell farm, which leaves this very desirable property still in the market.

In the near future residents of Escott are to be treated to a representation of Ten Nights in a Bar Room by amateur artists. This favorite moral drama never fails to draw.

We will give the party that took the buckskin mittens last week one week to return them or $1.75 by mail. If this is not attended to at once, we will bring the party up and expose them.—PHIL WILTSE & Co.

We understand that M. K. Everts, of Easton's Corners, and John Crawley, of Athens, have purchased the Pine Hill cheese factory in Lansdown rear. They have engaged A. Moulton, one of our most promising young cheese makers, to run the factory for the next season.

Messrs. Nash and Kilborn would like to learn the names of the boys who, on Monday evening, tore several pickets off their fences. Such a wanton spirit of mischief as such an act indicates should be promptly checked.

The revival services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Horner in the Methodist church have aroused a very general interest and the meetings are largely attended. Many have been converted and a large number have sought and experienced a deeper work of grace in their hearts.

The Baptist Sabbath school will hold an entertainment on Friday evening next. An excellent program has been prepared consisting of singing, recitations, and the rendering of the Cantata entitled "Santa Claus' Mistake, or the Bundle of Sticks," by scholars. See dodgers.

A Pink Social will be held in connection with the Presbyterian Sabbath school on Thursday evening, Dec. 19th. Refreshments served. A program consisting of sacred songs, solos and recitations will be given to enliven the evening. Admission, to children of school, free; adults, 15; children, 10.

In reply to anxious inquirer we are pleased to relieve his mind by stating that the letters "M. U." on the badges worn by the Modelites of '89 do not stand for Matrimonial Union. We admit that there were not wanting indications justifying a contrary assumption, but "you can't always generally sometimes tell."

No notices for gatherings, the object of which is to make money, will be inserted free, unless accompanied by an order for printing. Parties sending local notices of any such gatherings, except accompanied by an order for printing, will have such notices charged to their personal account, and a bill will be rendered for the same.

Mr. Henry Hillis and wife were serenaded by the village band on Thursday evening during the progress of the reception held by them. A large number of guests were assembled, and the band were invited to join in the festivities of the evening. They accepted the invitation with alacrity and were soon seated before a table laden with an abundance of good things, to which, of course, they did ample justice. Several members of the old "Maple Leaf Club" were present and the pleasures of the evening were prolonged until an early hour.

We notice that in several municipalities it is sought to avoid the expense of holding an election by having a public meeting called at which representatives are to be chosen and, if possible, a resolution passed to secure their election by acclamation. It would be well for our villagers to adopt some such course at once if we are to secure the services of good capable men without an election contest. Undoubtedly, the first reeve and council of the village of Athens will have a lot of work to perform and while we believe the village contains plenty of men well qualified for the positions, we question whether they would be willing to do the canvassing necessary to secure their return at the polls.

John E. Davis, an old and respected resident of Easton's Corners, died at his residence on Sunday last. In 1858 he married Miss Jane Robinson, whose father lived for many years on the farm now owned by Wm. Sherman, Plum Hollow. Mr. Davis was in the 78th year of his age. Three children survive him. The eldest, Mrs. Jas. H. Fulford, resides in Brockville, and Dr. Ransom M. Davis and Mrs. W. Wyatt reside at Easton's Corners.

Entrance examinations will commence in the Athens high school on Wednesday next at 9 o'clock.

To Advertisers.

Copy for changes, must reach this office by noon on Friday, to appear in the following issue of the REPORTER. Attention to this rule will save our patrons annoyance.

Those whose duty it is to attend to the registration of a birth marriage or death are hereby warned that unless such registration is made with B. Loverin, clerk of the municipality of Rear Yonge and division register, before the last day of Dec. the that they are liable to a penalty of $20.00 and costs.

The printing and binding of the constitution and by-laws of the Anglers' Association of Charleston Lake were completed at the REPORTER office this week and the books are now ready for distribution. The title page is illustrated with a view of the lake as seen through a vista in the trees at No-go Cove.

The Equity, a paper published at Shawville, near to which the notorious Dagg fraud has been perpetrated, devotes considerable space in its issue of the 7th inst. to denouncing the whole business. A reporter of that place visited the scene, evidently with no intention of publishing a book, and his investigations led him to the conclusion that the whole affair was managed by the Dagg family in collusion with the girl Dinah. He states that the more important of Woodcock's statements regarding occurrences said to have taken place there are flatly contradicted by neighbors who were present at the time of Woodcock's visit. It is quite plain from the Equity's account of the affair that the voice of Woodcock's angel was the voice of Dinah, and that nothing of a supernatural character occurred excepting in the mind of the aforesaid Woodcock. We are not particularly anxious to injure the sale of the Recorder-Woodcock pamphlet to be published shortly on this subject, but as, through the kindness of a friend, we were put in possession of the facts as above stated, we felt it to be our duty to let the public know how the matter is regarded in the Dagg neighborhood.

On Sunday last the remains of Margaret Slack, relict of the late Joseph Slack, were brought from the residence of her son-in-law, Ithamer Knapp, Plum Hollow, to Athens for interment. Mrs. Slack's knowledge of these counties dates back to their earliest settlement. Joseph Slack, originally from the vicinity of Albany, N. Y., came to Canada with an ox team with which he transported his wife and six children to Montreal, the journey occupying six weeks. As a United Empire Loyalist he drew lot No. 10 in the 9th concession of Yonge; at that time no road had been cut from Brockville to Farmersville. He put up a shanty on the spot now occupied by the barn on the farm of the late Philip Wing. Mr. Slack killed upon the farm, known as the Flint farm, one mile east of Farmersville, 192 deer, 34 bears and 46 wolves; in fact, he was in early days the Nimrod of the Township. Joseph Slack built the mill now owned by Messrs. Saunders. He also engaged in the manufacture of bull ploughs and ox carts; he bought half of lot No. 9 for a cart and plough; the farm was sold for $14,000

In honor of Mr. L. J. Cornwell, a teameeting was held in the Baptist church on Saturday evening last, at which there was a large attendance of members of the church and of Sabbath school pupils. The evening was spent very pleasantly, an enjoyable program being rendered, and all uniting in happy social intercourse. During the evening an address was read and presented to Mr. Cornwell. It was printed on ecro satin and framed with a broad band of plush, making a truly handsome memorial. It read as follows:—

ATHENS, Dec. 14, 1889.

MR. L. J. CORNWELL, B. A.

DEAR SIR,—While we, the members and adherents of Athens Baptist Church, congratulate you upon your elevation in your profession, we cannot but express the deep feelings of grief which rend our hearts at the severance of your useful connection with us which this elevation necessitates.

During the two years in which we have enjoyed the inestimable pleasure of your presence and labors among us as Choir Leader, Sabbath School Superintendent, and Church Clerk, we have marked with gratitude to God your unremitting efforts and indefatigable zeal in propagating and consolidating the cause of Christ among young and old and the pleasing results which have accrued therefrom.

By your gentlemanly bearing, your unassuming manner, your affectionate attentions, you have endeared yourself to us all, so that when you are separated from us we shall still cherish the fondest memories regarding you.

These feelings of regard which we express for you we also extend to your estimable helpmeet, Miss. CORNWELL, whose presence and usefulness in our midst we shall miss very much. We sincerely hope that both you and your wife will find many friends in Ingersoll and that the Church of God in that place will find in you a pillar of strength and usefulness, as we have found you here.

That God may bless, prosper and keep you is the sincere prayer of our hearts.

Signed on behalf of Choir, Sabbath School and Church

REV. D. D. MUNRO, PASTOR
G. K. BRENNAN, } DEACONS
J. KILBORN, }

Mr. Cornwell made a neat speech in reply, returning thanks for the handsome testimonial presented to him.

The Modelites Dined.

Friday evening, 13th inst., being the close of the Model School term, the members of the W. C. T. U. gave a tea to the teachers and students in training at Mr. Sharman's residence, where a very enjoyable and profitable hour was spent. After tea, the President of the Union addressed the students on the importance of teachers teaching temperance. This was followed by a lengthy address from Mrs. Parish in which she especially impressed on the students that their influence should be on the side of temperance, as the children are the hope of this important movement. Mr. Kennedy made some remarks in which he gave excellent advice, showing the necessity of having the courage to say "No" when occassion requires it. Mr. Cornwell also spoke of the importance of teachers taking the side of right and weaving in the principles of temperance. Miss Stone then gave some questions and answers prepared by Mr. Ross which all teachers would do well to read. Mr. Sharman said he had always felt it his duty to teach temperance in his school, and had done so. He not only advocated the use of the Temperance text-book, but said that many instances came under his notice from which Temperance lessons could be right. The students took this opportunity of presenting Mr. Sharman with a gold pencil, also a gold pen, accompanied with an appropriate address. Mr. Sharman responded at length and with much feeling.

REAR YONGE AND ESCOTT COUNCIL

The municipal council of Rear of Yonge and Escott met, pursuant to law, on Monday, 16th inst., to finish up the business of the year. All the members of the council were in their places. Minutes of previous meeting read and adopted.

The clerk read a draft of a by-law changing the number of polling subdivisions from four to three, which was read the required number of times and finally passed. The bounds of the different polling sub-divisions to be as follows:—

No. 1 shall comprise and consist of lot A and lots 1 to 12 inclusive in the 6th, 7th, and 8th concessions, save and except that part of lot 12 in the 8th con. included in the incorporated village of Athens; also the front half of lot A and lots 1 to 11 in the 9th con. of Yonge.

No. 2 shall comprise and consist of lots 13 to 26 inclusive in the 6th, 7th and 8th concessions of Yonge, save and except that part of lots 13 and 14 in the 8th concession included in the incorporated village of Athens; also the 8th, 9th and 10th concessions of the Township of Escott.

No. 3 shall consist of the rear half of letter A and lots 1 to 11 and all that part of lots 12, 13 and 14 in the 9th concession of Yonge not included in the incorporated village of Athens, and the whole of lots 15 to 26 in the 9th concession and the whole of the 10th and 11th concessions of Yonge.

A by-law was also passed fixing the places for holding the municipal elections and nominations for reeve and councillors as follows:—

No. 1—Elbe Mills school house, R. E. Cornell to be returning officer.
No. 2—At Fortune's school house, Albert Morriss, returning officer
No. 3—At Hard Island school house, J. W. Wiltse returning officer.

The place for holding the nominations for reeve and four councillors to be the town hall in the village of Athens.

On motion R. D. Judson was given an order for $5, balance on coffin furnished in 1888 for Miss Wiltse, an indigent.

The clerk was given an order for $2.35 for registering deed of land from H. Cameron and for fare of poor boy to Brockville.

Orders were given to reeve, clerk, and assessor for $3 each for selection of jurors.

Henry Hawkins was granted $4 for the support of Mrs. Denny, an indigent person.

The collector was ordered to strike off $1.58 taxes charged against the building occupied as post office.

$6 were granted the village road commissioner towards repairing roads in the village.

On motion the taxes of Mrs. Clarissa Moles were ordered to be struck off the collector's roll

An order was given the clerk for $10 for registering births, marriages and deaths and supplies and postage.

A. W. Kelly's bill of $8, for serving notices for court of revision and getting legal advice relating to collection of taxes, was ordered to be paid.

On motion of Messrs. Wight and Moulton, the resolution of the council granting $1 per week to certain indigent persons is hereby cancelled, on and after the 1st day of January next, and the clerk was ordered to notify the Treasurer to that effect.

Messrs. Wight and Wiltse moved that the council refund to E. Duffield the sum of $10 of the license fee paid by him to this municipality. Messrs. Moulton and Hayes moved in amendment that no refund be granted to any of the hotels in this municipality of money paid as licenses. The ayes and nays being called for on the amendment, Messrs Moulton and Hayes voted aye and Messrs. Wight and Wiltse nay. The reeve voted aye and the amendment was declared carried.

A number of orders on the treasurer were given for salaries of officers and members of the council for 1889, after which the council adjourned sine die.
