When King James the first wrote his "counterblast to tobacco "the royal pedant knew nothing of the "Myrtle Navy." If he had, instead of wasting his brains over his curious production, he would have filled his royal pipe with it, and would have taken a royal smoke, he would then have been prepared to admit that with regard to the injurious effects of tobacco, it all depends on what tobacco you smoked.

Athens Council.

The members elect of the municipal council of the village of Athens, consisting of W. G. Parish, reeve, and Jas. P. Lamb, Matthew B. Holmes, John Cawlew, and Wm. Karley, councillors, met for the dispatch of business at 11 a. m. yesterday (Monday), and made the usual declarations of office before B. Loverin, Village Clerk. A by-law to appoint certain village officers for 1892 was introduced and passed with the blanks filled with the names of B. Loverin, clerk, at a salary of $50; H. H. Arnold, treasurer, at a salary of $20; C. L. Lamb and J. L. Gallagher, auditors, at a salary of $3 each. The following bills were read and orders drawn on the treasurer for payment: I. C. Alguire, for holding election at P. S. D. No. 1, $7; G. W. Greene, do. No 2, $11; Reporter office, printing matter for elections, $14.25. Messrs. ODDFELLOWS' INSTALLATION.

A Large Gathering Spend a Very Pleasant Evening.

On Wednesday evening last, the regular night of lodge meeting, R. I. Stevens, D. D. G. M., attended Athens lodge for the purpose of installing the brethren elect in the different offices for the ensuing term. There were present several members of Delta and Mallorytown lodges, and John R. Reid, P. G. M., and H. Wilkinson, P. G., of Brockville, came out to assist at the performance of the ceremony. Following are the officers for this term:

N. G.—A. M. Chassells.
V. G.—L. A. Brown.
Rec. Sec.—G. F. Donnelley, P. G.
Per. Sec.—H. H. Arnold, P. G.
Treas.—W. M. Stevens, P. G.
War.—Geo. Judson.
Con.—E. Tennant, P. G.
R.S.N.G.—Jas. Ross, P. G.
L.S.N.G.—Chas. Wilson.
R.S.V.G.—D. Kilborn.
L.S.V.G.—A. Moulton.
R.S.S.—D. Fisher.
L.S.S.—W. H. Moulton.
I G.—A. Brown.
O. G.—F. Blanchard.
Chap.—Sala Blancher.

The efficiency displayed by the District Deputy in the discharge of his duties was very marked and highly creditable to Delta lodge.

Immediately upon the close of the installation ceremony, the members adjourned to the Armstrong House, where an excellent supper had been prepared for their refreshment, to which ample justice was done. On the covers being removed, A. M. Chassells, the newly-elected N. G., filling the position of chairman, introduced a toast list which was responded to as follows:

"The Queen" was coupled with the names of A. E. Donovan and J. R. Reid, and these gentlemen made neat speeches, brimful of loyalty and good sense.

The toast of "Our Order" was responded to by Messrs. Reid and Wilkinson, who from a long experience pronounced high encomiums upon it in respect to its fraternal, beneficiary, and moral qualities.

"Visiting Brethren" was responded to by James White, of Mallorytown, with a comic recitation in dialect.

District Deputy, R. I. Stevens, made a pleasing acknowledgement in replying to the toast, "Our Guest," and closed by inviting the members present to visit Delta lodge.

A. E. Donovan and Sala Blancher were named in connection with the toast to "The Ladies," and the result was two capital speeches, which dealt tersely, clearly, at times eloquently, and always respectfully, with their worthy subject.

"The Press" was responded to by G. F. Donnelley.

D. Fisher responded to the toast, "Education," and proved to be in a very happy mood, for his answer along this line was one of the best he ever delivered.

A visiting member proposed the toast, "Our Entertainers," and the members of the committee, Messrs. Chassells, Ross and W. M. Stevens, made short speeches in reply.

"Our Host and Hostess" was responded to by H. Johnson in a brief speech in which he made a suitable acknowledgement for the praise bestowed upon the character of the spread.

"Auld Lang Syne" was then sung in time-honored style, and the brethren dispersed.

NEWBORO.

Monday, Jan. 11.—William Pielow who has been sick since early in the fall is very little better. It is hoped we will not lose our old land mark yet awhile.

Geo. Bilton, our rink manager in days of yore, has returned to his old occupation and is now busy fitting up a sheet of ice opposite the canal warehouse, made famous by a series of assemblies held therin last fall, and raided by an individual looking for a job, who dispersed the gathering, forbidding them to reassemble in the village limits. Suffice it to say the raid has been a success. The above mentioned building will be utilized in connection with the rink.

On account of the very low water in Mud lake, the owners of cottages on the neighboring islands are having the stumps cut out of the bays and channels, which will add materially to the conveniences and appearance at this end of the lake.

Wm. Graham, who has been very low for some time with a fever, is slowly recovering.

The recent snow storms have made fine sleighing and everybody seems to be making the best use of it they know how.

Bolton's carriage shop is rapidly approaching completion and will when finished add considerably to Main St.

Geo. Whaley, our Main St. merchant, is fitting up the old Kilborn stand, opposite the M. E. Church, in first-class shape where he intends to open shop in a few weeks. This will put new life to the opposition in that quarter of the town.

The old dancing school has re organized and will enjoy themselves for a few weeks in the town hall. All who has a desire to dance are cordially invited to attend.

Rear Yonge & Escott Council.

The first meeting of the council for 1892 was held in the town hall, Athens, on Monday, January 18, at 11 o'clock, when the members elected for the current year made and subscribed the declarations of office and qualification, viz.: Jas. B. Saunders, reeve, John Mackie, Fred S. Hayes, Wm. H. Osborne, and T. C. Brown, councillors.

Blanks in by-law for appointment of certain township officers were filled with the names of R. E. Cornell, clerk, at a salary of $75; H. H. Arnold, treasurer, at a salary of $25; Fred Scovil and Geo. P. Wight, auditors.

Blanks in the board of health by-law were filled with the names of S. S. Cornell, M.D., and J. F. Harte, M.D., as medical health officers; Albert W. Johnson, Munsell Brown, and Frederick Scovil, members, and H. C. Phillips, sanitary inspector.

Blanks in by-law for appointment of high school trustees were filled with the names of Munsell Brown and W. H. Moulton.

Orders were given on the treasurer for the following:

R. D. Judson, chairs and table for town hall, $42; A. Morris, on salary as collector, $15; Geo. Pickett, repairs on town hall, $33.56; W G. Parish, lumber, etc., town hall, $25.46; Karley & Seymour, paint and hardware, town hall, $6.70; Pierce & Holbrook, repairs on town hall, $13.40; H. C. Phillips, wood and repairs, town hall, $6.35; Mrs. B. Livingston, support of Wm. Wiltse, $1 per week during pleasure of council; John Mackie, for support of Charlotte Palmer, $1 per week during pleasure of council.

Caretaker of town hall was instructed to purchase one dozen spittoons and necessary lamps for use in court room. S. A. Taplin was appointed treasurer at a salary of $22.50 in place of H. H. Arnold who does not wish to act. Tender of B. Loverin for printing for 1892 at $40 was accepted. H. C. Phillips was appointed care-taker of town hall at a salary of $15 per annum.

Council adjourned till Saturday, Feb. 13, at 10 o'clock.

R. E. Cornell, Clerk.

FROM MANITOBA.

A Former Resident of Leeds County Writes of the Prairie Province.

Snowflake, Man., Jan. 11, 1891

Editor Reporter:

Dear Sir,—Through your generosity I have been favored wtih a number of copies of your live paper, and, sir, I can assure you that I very much appreciate your kindness in enabling me to read through your columns of so many old land-marks and the people whom I associated with, now nearly twenty years ago, and no doubt if I was to stoop to drink at the old school house spring, I could say with the author of "Twenty Years Ago," that my face has changed. But then there is something irresistible in this life that carries us all along life's stream to our different situations, and how very important it is to have a steady hand at the helm to steer clear of the numerous shoals that present themselves, whether it be in Ontario or Manitoba.

Well, Mr. Editor, I will now, with your permission, address a few words to your readers that may have their thoughts turned towards Manitoba to settle here to better their condition.

I wish to say at the outset that I am not a government emigration agent, neither am I employed by any land company to boom their lands, but am simply a private citizen of Manitoba who firmly believes that this province is bound to take second place to none of her sister provinces of confederation; in fact, is destined to be the banner province of the Dominion. I fancy I hear a voice say, "What do you base such a broad assertion as that upon?"

When we look at the comparative youth of this province, you might say only a decade has passed since emigration started to come in noticeable numbers, and some four or five years since the C. P. R. was completed, giving us direct communication with the Eastern provinces, and, Sir, the correct estimate of the crop of 1891 is in the neighborhood of twenty-five million bushels of wheat, to say nothing of the millions of bushels of oats and barley. The wheat that this province will have to export will require a train of twenty cars every half-hour, day and night, for a period of four months. The wheat will average for the province nearly 30 bushels, oats nearly 60 bushels, barley 50, and grown upon land that to-day can be bought at from $3 to $7 per acre, and in close proximity to churches, schools and R. R. stations and within a short distance of the Souris coal fields, the output of which sells at from $3 to $4 per ton. This effectually settles two important matters, viz.: railway facilities and plenty of fuel at a reasonable cost. And this backed by as rich land as the sun shines on. Of course, I do not wish to convey the impression that there are no up grades in Manitoba farming. Those little grades and sharp curves only tend to bring to the surface the best mettle that all true Canadians are built of.

I have had many letters of enquiry from different parts of Ontario, and a question frequently asked is, "How is society out there? To that I answer, about the same as Ontario, as the largest portion of the people are from Ontario.

I know many of my acquaintances in old Leeds who should come to the point and say, "Good-bye, dear old Leeds, at least for a time."

I could tell you a good deal more if I possessed the eloquence of my friend Wm. Webster, the efficient Dominion Emigration Agent, but suffice it to say that I would be pleased to meet a large number of Leeds friends in the near future, and trust that if any should decide to try Manitoba that with judicious management coupled with industry I am sure to hear of their success.

Kindly allow me, Mr. Editor, to extend to yourself and my numerous relatives and friends in Leeds, a happy and prosperous new year.

W. Barber, P. M.

DULSEMAIN.

Saturday, Jan. 9.—Who was the young man that had his buggy wheels changed last Sunday night.

The last of the pioneers of this neighborhood passed away Dec. 30th, in the person of Mr. Samuel Heaslip. For over forty years he has resided here and in that time has accumulated a fine property. He leaves two daughters and one son to mourn his loss, his wife and one son having preceded him to the better land. The funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Fairlie, Presbyterian minister of Lansdowne, on New Year's Day. The remains were then placed in the vault there.

Miss Minnie Moles of Athens was this week the guest of Miss Chattie Sliter.

Miss Ida Boyd of Almonte returned to Brockville on Friday, having spent a couple of weeks with her cousin Miss C. Sliter.

Miss Sarah Rath of Malakoff was the guest of Mrs. James Patience this week

The Xmas tree entertainment in connection with the Sunday school here on Xmas night was quite a success, in spite of the bad condition of the roads and the unfavorable weather. The audience were delighted with the Misses Richardson, from near Gananoque, who so kindly consented to favor us with their talent, one as an elocutionist and the other as a singer. A pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment was a presentation by the members of her class of an address and a beautiful plush album to Miss C. Sliter. Mr. Cowan, the superintendent, read the address and made the presentation in behalf of the class. Miss Sliter replied.

FRANKVILLE.

Friday, Jan. 15.—The Kitley Agricultural Society held their annual meeting at Frankville on the 14th of January, with a good attendance of members. The treasurer's report showed a balance on hand of $112.13 (with no outstanding debts), an increase of $71.13 over last year, which seemed to please the members well. After receiving the reports of secretary and treasurer, the following officers were elected for the present year:—President, David Dowsley; vice-president, William Ennis; directors, Robert Barlow, Vincent Judson, Wm. Lee, Samuel Hanton, Hiram Cross, A. H. Parker, P. Stewart, Wm. Mitchell, O. L. Munroe.

Immediately after the meeting the new Board met and appointed W. D. Livingstone secretary and Wm. Eaton, treasuser.

The following committee's were appointed:—Robert Barlow, Wm. Mitchell, Wm. Lee, and D. Dowsley to solicit special prizes.

Wm. Ennis and A. H. Parker, with the assistance of two ladies were appointed to revise the ladies' department of the prize list.

It was decided to hold the exhibition on Wednesday and Thursday, 8th and 29th of September.

The Division Court met on the 15th with a large attendance.

Rev. A. A. Badley is assisting Rev. J. B. Saunders in special services at Brockville this week.

LYN.

Monday, Jan. 11.—A deputation from Lyn Lodge A. O. U. W. waited on Mrs. A. W. Stewart on Saturday evening and presented her with a cheque for $2,000, amount of insurance policy held by her late husband, and the following letter of condolence:

To Mrs. Alex. W. Stewart.

Dear Madam,—By appointment of Leeds Lodge No. 179 A.O.U.W., we beg to tender you on behalf of the members of our lodge their heartfelt sympathy in the recent sudden death of our beloved brother and your devoted husband. We would deplore our mutual loss, in our case a worthy brother, faithful in all his duties, and as we know a husband and father who was untiring in seeking the welfare of his loved ones.

Human sympathy can do but little, but as a band of brothers whose duty it is to care for the widow and orphan, we extend our aid, first, by presenting you with the enclosed check for two thousand dollars, and, next, by offering at all times to give you such assistance and counsel as may be in our power and which you are free to command. Above all, we commend you to the care of the Divine Father who has promised to be a husband to the widow and a stay to the fatherless.

With warmest wishes for your future welfare, we remain in the bonds of Charity, Hope and Protection.

(Sgd.) James Cumming, P. F. Clow, A. H. McLean, } Com.

Mrs. Stewart in reply stated that she was unable to express her gratitude fully just then, but would do so later through the press.

The Lyn lodge A.O.U.W. has since its institution paid in beneficiaries to widows and orphans over twelve thousand dollars.
