WINTER UNDERWEAR

We are at last commencing to have weather more like winter and to feel the need of heavier clothing. We are well prepared for the demand, and have the fullest stock of Men's and Women's Underwear in Brockville. We have two special lines—a line of German Underwear, the special characteristic of which is its extreme softness, soft as down, will not scratch, and almost unshrinkable. Another is a line of Canadian Underwear, better than any Scotch goods imported, all wool, yet almost impossible to shrink them. These are two lines that sell whenever shown. We have them in Men's, Women's and Children's. We keep Men's heavy Undershirts from 25c up, and Women's vests from 25c up.

ALL THE EVIDENCE IN.

McGreevy-Connolly Conspiracy Case Goes to the Jury To-day.

N. K. CONNOLLY'S TESTIMONY.

He is the Only Witness Called for the Defence—Lawyers for the Prosecution and the Defence Addressing the Jury To-day.

OTTAWA, Nov. 20.—The prosecution in the McGreevy-Connolly case concluded its testimony on Saturday, when John Gallagher was recalled to show that he had not put in a tender for the cross-wall, neither had he put up any deposit.

Mr. Blake, on behalf of his client, Nicholas Connolly, argued briefly that no act of Nicholas Connolly in the charge was shown to have taken place in Ontario within the jurisdiction of the court. He concluded that no case of conspiracy had been made out as against his client. Mr. Blake spoke only for two or three minutes.

Mr. Aylesworth contended that the second half of the indictment referring to the Quebec Harbor Commissioners was out of the jurisdiction and gave no evidence of agreement or conspiracy to defraud between Thomas and Nicholas. As to the memorandum of agreement said to have been in the handwriting of Michael Connolly it might have been picked from a spittoon, and it was not shown that it had been intended to use it, as was intimated in the charge of the information, which is alleged to have been given with regard to the tenders. There was no evidence that this was obtained before the opening of the tenders in due form. He continued to argue at some length that no case had been made out.

His Lordship said he thought a sufficient case had been made out to send to the jury, and asked if there was any defence.

Nicholas K. Connolly was called by Mr. Blake. He knew nothing of the books of Larkin, Connolly & Co.

What do you know of the payments of $25,000 and $22,000?

I know nothing at all about them. It was only at the audit he heard of them. R. McGreevy and Murphy speculated in Richelieu stock and witness had lent them money. Witness was not aware of any improper payment being made to the inspectors who were engaged by him on the suggestion of the engineer to watch the work during the winter. He was not satisfied with the manner in which Murphy dealt with the finances of the firm, and a change was made. After Robert and Thomas had the falling out he first heard of the rumor that Thomas had an interest in the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., personally he had no knowledge of it as a fact.

Connolly was the only witness examined for the defence. The case will be given to the jury to-day, and a verdict will probably be reached before the court rises.

A DARING ROBBERY.

Money and Stamps Secured by Burglars at Richmond.

RICHMOND, Que., Nov. 20.—One of the most daring burglaries ever perpetrated in the eastern townships was successfully accomplished Saturday morning.

The Richmond postoffice was broken into, the safe blown open, and about one thousand dollars in money was taken. The burglar effected an entrance by prying open the door with a crowbar.

The safe was drilled in several places and a heavy charge of dynamite inserted. The whole front was completely shattered and the window was blown out. Two bakers working within a hundred yards from the postoffice heard the report, but they thought that it was a freight train passing at the time. A dog in the office was chloroformed by the burglars. The job was done by experts. The postmaster, Mr. Campbell, says about $400 worth of stamps were stolen besides money belonging to Chalmers' church and the Foster estate.

Burglary at Chatham.

CHATHAM, Ont., 20.—A daring burglary was committed at the residence of Mrs. Beattie, a widow who lives with her daughter on Second street. The bedroom was entered from the verandah and a large jewel case containing a score or more of valuable rings, chains, brooches and other costly trinkets carried off. Besides the jewelry a receipt for $10,000 was taken. The police arrested a colored man named Alf. W. Brown on suspicion this morning. He is held for trial to-day. The goods were valued at $500.

A Tug Destroyed.

PENETANGUISHENE, Nov. 20.—Captain Charles Martin, of Port Severn, with the tug Minnie Martin, left Waubaushene yesterday with a scow in tow, on which he had five horses, a cow, pigs and fowls, hay and oats and household furniture, sleighs and complete shanty outfit stored, caught fire from the smoke of the tug as they were passing the reformatory grounds. The contents will be a total loss. The scow was saved by the tugs Osprey and Bruce. The loss will be in the neighborhood of $7,000.

His Light Sentence.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Nov. 20.—Walter Sangster, the man who ran through Chinatown while drunk, shooting at random, wounding several Chinamen and killing an Indian named Tom, was sentenced to twelve years in the penitentiary by Justice Drake. The plea of Sangster's relatives that he was rendered crazy by the use of opium was in the prisoner's favor, hence the light sentence.

Druggist Webb Dead.

MONTREAL, Nov. 20.—R. W. Webb, the Montreal druggist, who was an important witness in the Cooper murder trial, having sold prussic acid to Cooper, the alleged wife poisoner, died suddenly in Montreal on Saturday. He was only 30 years of age.

Conservative Candidates in Peel.

BRAMPTON, Ont., Nov. 20.—At the convention of Peel Conservatives R. Blain, warden, was nominated for the Dominion House, and J. Graydon, Reeve of Streetsville, for the Local House.

Weather Probabilities.

OBSERVATORY, TORONTO, Nov. 19, 11 p.m.—The pressure is lowest over the Ottawa valley and Northwest Territories, and highest over the Southwest States. Snow has fallen to-day along the shores of the Georgian Bay, elsewhere the weather has been fair.

Probabilities—Westerly to southwesterly winds; fair, stationary or a little higher temperature.

A Terribly Fatal Boiler Explosion in Austria.

VIENNA, Nov. 20.—A boiler in a silk mill at Czernowitz, capital of Bukowina, exploded, killing 11 persons and injuring 26 others. The mill was badly damaged. A panic among the operatives followed the explosion and a number of them were hurt in the rush that was made for open air. Some of the bodies that have been taken out from the wreckage are horribly mangled.

A SHIP ON FIRE.

The Canadian Cattle Steamer Dominion Swept by Flames.

HALIFAX, N.S., Nov. 20.—The German steamer Markomannia, which arrived last night from Hamburg, reports that on the 14th instant, in lat. 48 north, long. 41 west, she fell in with the steamer Dominion of the Dominion line, on fire. She lay by until the 15th, when the fire was considered to be under control.

The Markomannia sent a boat to the Dominion and it was learned that the latter was on a voyage from Montreal to Avonmouth, England, with cattle. The fire broke out at noon that day on the after part of the main deck. It was thought to have been accidentally set by cattlemen smoking. Before the flames were got under control all the after part of the main deck saloon and everything but a small part of the after upper deck, all the main deck cargo, probably 180 head of cattle, were burned and the remains thrown overboard.

It was only by the hard work of everybody on board that the ship was saved from destruction. Capt. Cross, of the Dominion, had his right arm dislocated while fighting the fire. He stated that he intended making a "well deck" ship of his steamer and then proceeding for his destination.

When the Markomannia parted company with the Dominion the latter had a bad list to port, caused by the large quantity of water poured into her hold in extinguishing the fire, and her mizzen mast was gone.

SPANISH TACTICS.

Convicts Used as Decoys at Melilla—Moors Defeated.

MADRID, Nov. 20.—The United Press reporter in Melilla sends this despatch, dated Friday evening:—While the band was playing in the public square last Thursday evening a party of Moors silently approached the walls and fired several volleys. The bullets passed over the heads of the crowd and did no harm. The Moors escaped.

A band of thirty convicts, commanded by Ariza, made a sortie yesterday from the camp, protected by artillery and a hidden party of Mauser riflemen. The convicts surprised and attacked the Moorish outposts. The Moors fired hotly upon the convicts. The latter, sheltered by the rocks, maintained the combat for three hours. When their position became endangered the convicts feigned flight. The Moors swarmed after them and thus exposed themselves to a deadly fusilade from the artillery and the Mausers. Many Moors were killed, while the convicts did not lose a man.

The Moors have abandoned their outposts and trenches, but they continue to fire upon the Spanish camp. Prince Antonio, husband of the Infanta Eulalia, is here.

The smuggling of arms continues. Three arrests were made yesterday and five more will be made shortly at Malaga.

Muley Hassan Admits Liability.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The Times correspondent in Madrid reports that a second note received from Sultan Muley Hassan endorses his former note. The Sultan fully admits his liability for indemnity under his treaty obligations to Spain.

This, says the correspondent, ought to set at rest all Spain's doubts as to compensation.

CUBA'S CIVIL WAR.

Outrages by Spanish Authorities Hastened the Revolution.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—One of the Cuban delegates sent to Cuba in disguise by the Cuban societies in this city and Brooklyn, makes the following statement:

"It is a well-known fact that the Spanish Government controls both the telegraph and cable lines, and it is its policy in this present trouble to withhold all authentic news from the outside world. It is a fact that there has been fighting going on for the past few weeks between the insurgents and the Spanish troops. Many lives have been lost on both sides. The insurgents are headed by three honorable and brave soldiers. The leader is Higinio Esquerra, a veteran of the war of 1868. A number of arrests have been made by the Spanish Government, but from last reports Esquerra is still at the head of the insurgents.

"Never since the beginning of the Cuban insurrection has so much ammunition been shipped into Cuba, right under the noses of the custom house authorities in different disguises, as during the past twelve months.

"On Tuesday last an expedition started for Cuba with men, money and ammunition. It went away quietly, and only the Cuban societies knew of the departure of the vessel. The recent outrages by the Spanish Government have hastened the revolution and the societies are only waiting for news from their friends in Cuba to send out a much larger expedition than was sent on Tuesday last."

THE BANK OF ENGLAND.

May's Dealings Graver Than a Fault of Judgement.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The Economist says in an article concerning rumors of irregularities in the Bank of England: The resignation of Mr. May, chief cashier, was brought about owing to the character of certain transactions in securities with one or more trust companies which he sanctioned.

In regard to these transactions we understand than something graver than mere fault of judgement was committed. Mr. May, it would appear, not only exceeded his authority, but also acted in a manner which he must have known was contrary to the regulations by which the bank is governed. For that offence he suffered. It would be ungenerous to dwell upon the matter, and, after all, the question is whether the bank knowingly lent support to the companies whose financial methods proved to be of such a dubious nature. That is the gravamen of the imperfectly formulated charges which one hears. It is satisfactory, therefore, to be able to say that so far as we can ascertain, such charges are unfounded.

In regard to the responsibility of the directors we believe that no greater attaches to the individual than to the whole board. Therefore, we may set aside the rumors of impending resignations.

Netro on the Run.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—A special from the City of Mexico says:—Gen. Netro, the revolutionist, is fleeing to Costa Rica, on the Pacific coast, with fourteen men. Troops are in close pursuit. Netro's capture is imminent, unless he manages to cross the mountains in Oaxaca and Chiapas over the trails.

Severe Earthquake in Chili.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—It is reported here a great earthquake has occurred at Valparaiso, Chili, causing much damage.

Shells Puts to Sea.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says after Admiral Melin issued his proclamation declaring the monarchy restored he proceeded to sea with his squadron, the object of intercepting the Huilkayey or other vessels purchased abroad by the Brazilian Government for use against his fleet.
