Weekly Globe.

The success that has attended the publication of THE WEEKLY GLOBE in the new and improved form on its enlargement still that of any other year since the establishment of the paper. Notwithstanding the competition, the increase in the circulation, extending all over the American continent, the circulation has been a marked one throughout the year at an average, however, each week, of 1,000 copies—being more than double the average of any previous year. Its circulation is now more widely diffused than ever, and its beautiful and copious illustrations, of the varied and interesting nature of matter contained weekly for the instruction and information and entertainment of its readers, and of the unprecedented low price at which it is supplied annually to the public.

The Biographical Notices of Public Men and the Sketches of Canadian Towns, Buildings, and Natural Scenery which have been seen in the pages of the weekly contents of the paper—will be continued with much energy under the care of able artists and experienced writers.

Agriculture, as the foremost industry of the Dominion, and the firm basis of our National prosperity, will receive, as heretofore, earnest and constant attention.

Ecclesiastical Intelligence, Science Notes, and Educational Affairs will each have a place in each number.

The Answers to Correspondents, on every variety of subjects, which have proved so valuable and interesting to thousands of readers, will be kept up with increased vigour.

The Literary and Ladies' Department, under the care of special contributors, will be fresh and fitty.

News from all parts of the world up to the latest moment of publication—Parliamentary Debates, Federal and Provincial—Market and Financial Reports at home and abroad—and Letters of Special Correspondents from all points of interest—will be gathered with all the care and energy that has led THE GLOBE to the front rank of Canadian journals for comprehensiveness and

The mind description to THE WEEKLY GLOBE will remain as heretofore, only TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM, and FREE of POSTAGE to all parts of Canada and the United States, payable in advance.

AGENTS WANTED. SEND FOR TERMS.

THE WEEKLY GLOBE will be sent free of postage to any Post-office in Great Britain for $2.20—or nine shillings sterling.

Remittances may be sent by P. O. money order, bank draft, registered letter, or by express, at our risk.
