Chris Pronger pays Oakville team a visit

The Oakville CANRON Rangers minor novice AAA squad headed into the holiday break having won two of their last three — all on the road — bringing their record for the season to a respectable 14-8-5.

One of the hi-lites of the season so far, was the appearance of St. Louis Blues' defenceman Chris Pronger who accompanied the Rangers to Brampton in November.

The players and coaches were thrilled to have one of the NHL's premiere players attend their game.

Pronger, who has business ties with one of the player's families, met and talked to all of the players in the dressing room prior to the game, then watched as the Rangers cruised to a 4-1 win over Halton Hills.

After the game, Pronger returned to the Oakville dressing room where he made himself available for photos, and presented each player with a personalized, auto-graphed picture.

The team would like to thank Chris for his time and assure him that his efforts will provide the Rangers and their families with a lasting memory.

The Rangers travelled to St. Catharines to take on the STA division leaders and turned in one of their most dominating performances of the season. Back-stopped by netminder Joseph Lepera, the Rangers out-hustled the Royals en route to a convincing 5-1 victory. Scoring the goals for Oakville were Michael DeRenzis (2); Matthew McKeown, Bryce MacRae and Bradley Morris. Assists went to Joel Selinger (2), Morris, Matthew Prapavessis and Daniel Purcell.

In Welland, Oakville gave up the opening goal but then regrouped and fought back for a 2-1 win.

Selinger tied the game in the second period, taking a break-away pass from Morris at the Tiger blue line and putting a low wrist-shot through the pads of the Tiger goalie. Eric Chiasson, who started the play in the Ranger zone, also assisted. Team captain, Michael DeRenzis, then scored the winner on a fine individual effort, splitting the defenders and making a good move on the goalie. The Ranger defencemen, led on the night by Elliot Cowburn, made life easy for Oakville goalie Jim Whelpdale, who shut the door the rest of the way to preserve the 2-1 victory.

The Rangers fell 5-1 to the CTA division, and league-leading Brampton Battalion. The Rangers, who were minus two of three right wingers for the night, thought they would also be without the services of defenceman Mike Mirabelli. Mirabelli had to leave the ice during the pre-game warm-up with the flu, but returned for the start of the game and turned in a strong performance. Chiasson scored Oakville's lone goal, assisted by DeRenzis and Brad Morris.

On the Run

Bring in the millennium on the right foot at the Oakville Y2K Fun Run. There is no fee, timing or awards. Run for the pure joy of it. Walk or run the route once, twice or as many times as you wish. A donation of non-perishable food will be collected and donated to the Oakville Food Bank. The run kicks off Saturday, January 1, at noon at the Town Square in downtown Oakville. Start and finish under the new Millennium clock. A reception will follow at 12:30 p.m. at the Second Cup at Lakeshore and Navy. For inquiries, call Steven McKinnon at 847-3491 or Todd Milligan at 842-2749.
