

Douglas and Fyfe playing shutout hockey

The Bell Express Vu novice A Rangers treated themselves to a 6-0 win at Elora on Halloween Sunday (Oct. 31). The Rangers held period leads of 2-0 and 5-0. Goal scorers were Jonathan Brand (2), Patrick Irish, Hollis Milroy, Gabriel D'Rollo and Darren Quan. Defenceman Matthew Fillman recorded two assists. Grayson Douglas and Matthew Fyfe combined to earn the shutout.

The following night at home, Oakville earned a similar big win, 5-0 over visiting Erin Red Devils. Oakville slowly gained momentum after a scoreless first period and took a 1-0 lead into the third period. Douglas and Fyfe again shared the shutout. Jonathan Brand opened the scoring from Jordan Starr. Michael Baird fired a high bullet into the corner coming down through the slot on a pass from Darren Quan behind the net. Roles were reversed on the next goal with Quan scoring, from Baird. Patrick Irish then received a slick pass from Baird at the blue line and his high, hard shot was behind the goalie before he reached the top of the faceoff circle. Quan finished off the scoring.

It was Oakville's ninth win in a row in league action, outscoring opponents 55-9. Defence has also been stellar, comprised of Glenn MacDonald, Michael Salvatore, Matthew Lynett, Max Mihaichuk, Matthew Fillman and Jordan Starr with four minutes left. Sheridan stepped up the defence and that keyed a 12-4 run and the victory.

Shane Bascoe, the tournament MVP, led the Bruins with 20 points, five assists and five steals.

Brad Johnson and Chris Bennett each added 13 points.

"I thought Johnson and Chris Coote played solid for us and Elvis Dennis played great defence all weekend," said Bruins assistant coach Nick Davis. "Elvis was on the other team's better players and did a solid job."

Dennis was deservedly named a tourney all-star.

In early action, Sheridan was surprised 78-74 by Edward Monpetit.

The Bruins trailed 74-63 and went on a 10-0 gap to close to 74-73 but Monpetit held on.

Coote kept Sheridan in the game, scoring 19 points and grabbing 13 rebounds.

Dennis and Bascoe chipped in with 17 points each.

The Bruins came back to route Loyalist 81-51. This one was over early as the Bruins raced to an 18-6 lead and cruised from there.

Erue White scored 13 points, Kris Ceelen had nine, Bennet and Bascoe each scored eight and Johnson added seven. Every Bruin hit the scoresheet in this one.

Sheridan wrapped up the preliminary round beating Champlain 76-57. Bascoe scored 18 points, Hugh Bent had 13 and Coote chipped in with 10 points.

Donald Lamousnery of Edward Monpetit, Derrick Casselman of Loyalist and Andrew Jones and Michael Dixon of St. Lawrence were also named tournament all-stars.

The Bruins now get ready to take on some of the best Canadian and U.S. universities in the 32nd annual Naismith Tournament this weekend in Waterloo. Sheridan opens the country's most prestigious tournament this Friday at noon against Laurier.

Gilbert taking stock of his future racing career

Gilbert.

During his third year he raced to the points championship without ever having had a victory in a feature event, winning the championship on consistently high finishes. This past season, which wound up at the end of October, Gilbert and his crew cruised to five feature victories and the title once again.

It was a satisfying way to end the season, and possibly his career at Flamboro.

Despite his passion for the sport, Gilbert is taking an indefinite break from racing to spend more time with his family and work on restoring a '68 Camaro convertible.

"We may go out and run a few races at different tracks, just to keep our hands in it. I want to spend more time with my son (16-month-old Jake). There were weeks when I saw my family for a half hour in a whole week. But it's a great sport; it keeps you out of trouble. There's always something you can do — go faster, modify the car so it goes around corners better ..."

Gilbert may be new to the podium, but certainly not the sport. Cars, mechanics and speed have been in his blood for as long as he can remember. His dad Jack, an avid supporter, dabbled in stock car racing years ago and Gilbert followed suit 10 years ago, initially racing vintage cars of the 30's and 40's.

"I'd always been a fan of it, watching it on TV."

At the time, Gilbert, a mechanic by trade, was restoring Rolls Royce cars for a living.

Working night and day on cars not only drained him mentally, but financially. During a race one night, he hit the wall and blew an engine. Then came a falling out with his racing partner.

"I didn't go back to the track, never went back at all. Then I was working at a job with a good friend who was racing in the street stock class...I was on his crew and we moved him from 35th in the points to 12th."

Atom AAA regular league play

discipline by the Rangers let Brampton fight back.

They got on the board on a two-man advantage with just 25 seconds left in the second period and made it a real nailbiter with two more goals in the third period.

A 3-2 loss to Stoney Creek on Halloween was an exciting back and forth game, a tough one to lose but a character builder. Oakville started slow but Chris Wills held the fort and it wasn't until the second period that Stoney Creek opened the scoring on a shorthanded breakaway. Oakville then rang off two goals only to have Stoney Creek even it up later on in the middle frame and then win it in the last period.

Brandon DeFazio scored both Oakville goals. Assists went to Kris Bonnell, Michael Morrison, Scott Hamel and Chris Haltigin.
