Carousel of multicultural delights

Oakville was alive with the sounds, food and costumes of the Carousel of Nations for the United Way. Shown Shown CLOCKWISE FROM RIGHT, are: Dance Caribe at the Caribbean pavilion at the Glen Abbey Recreation Centre; Sarah Galtner of Korea, Peter Tam as Chinese Emperor and Mie Tadin of Japan in kimono, at Pacific Rim pavilion, St. Luke's School; Fiesta Filipina dancing at The Philippine pavilion, St. Bernadette's School; and Falafel and couscous from Tarboosh at the Arabic Nations pavilion at Our Lady of Peace School as shown off by Maya Elaridi and Sharan Khalili who were in the fashion show and performed middle east dances.
