

Halton Women's Civitan Club holds number of events

Although the Halton Women's Civitan Club was only chartered this past July 9th, the group has not wasted any time getting involved in the community.

On Oct. 16th, the 25-member club meet in the kitchen at Community Living Oakville and cooked meals for Ian Anderson House. By the end of the day, 108 single serving meals were prepared, including soups, salsa, pasta, pasta sauce, and applesauce, using ingredients picked fresh from members' gardens.

Adding to the success of the day was that all of the women gained a stronger sense of camaraderie despite some members' lack of talent in the kitchen. The event was organized by Raffella Bramante, C. J. Martin and Jane Cushnie.

This Saturday, the club is holding a Halloween BBQ at Maple Grove Village, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.; hosts a craft table at the Community Living Oakville Christmas Bazaar on Nov. 6th, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.; and holds its first annual Book Sale on Nov. 13th, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., at Community Living Oakville.

If interested in the Halton Women's Civitan Club, and are 18 or older, call Christie Langevin at 844-8070.

IN OUR COMMUNITY

RED CROSS MARKS 60 YEARS: About 100 former and present volunteers attended last week's 60th anniversary celebration for the Oakville branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society at Town Hall. Shown from right are George Couto, owner of Season's Restaurant; Susan Lynch, manager of field operations, East Halton; and Iroquois Ridge High School students Connolly Aziz and Tyson White, who were Couto's volunteer assistants. Couto catered the evening, serving a variety of hors d'oeuvres. The anniversary cake was provided by White Oaks Secondary School, North Campus. Special guest Henri Dunant, Red Cross founder, was portrayed by local Red Cross volunteer Denis Rowledge (not shown).
