HAUNTED HALLOWEEN HAPPENINGS

TINY TOTS PARADE

The Ninth Annual Tiny Tots on Parade takes place this Friday in downtown Oakville.

The annual costumed "trick or treat" parade through downtown Oakville is open to all toddlers and pre-school children. All children must be accompanied by an adult.

Parade festivities begin at 1 p.m. in the Towne Square where Daisy the Witch will welcome the tiny tots to downtown Oakville's Halloween celebration.

She will be joined by McGruff the Safety Dog from the Halton Regional Police and DOBI the downtown bear.

Upon arrival in Towne Square, children will receive a "trick or treat" route. Participating stores will have an orange pumpkin poster in the store window. For more information call 844-4520.

HAUNTED HAPPENINGS AT OAKVILLE MUSEUM

While the Oakville Museum at Erchless Estate may not be haunted (or is it!?!), there will be many "Haunted Happenings," Saturday and Sunday, from 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. at Erchless Estate, 8 Navy St.

On Saturday, boys and girls can enjoy the 'Creature Feature' with creepy creature crafts and the Little Boxes of Horror at the Old Post Office. Enjoy traditional games with a holiday twist, play "Pin the Ghost on the Haunted House."

On Sunday children are invited to dress up in their Halloween costumes and enjoy an early start to their Trick or Treat fun. Sunday activities include spooky games and fishing for apples; adventurous children can go on a ghost hunt or listen to spooky stories at the Old Post Office.

Admission is only $5 per ghoul (person) per day. For information, call the Oakville Museum at Erchless Estate at 905-338-4400.

HALLOWEEN ACTIVITIES AT OAKVILLE PLACE

Over the years, Oakville Place has offered kids an opportunity to experience Halloween at the shopping centre, by inviting children to wander from store to store, trick and treating.

This year, Oakville Place has a line-up of Halloween activities for pre-schoolers prior to Halloween.

In lieu of purchasing treats and candy as in the past, Oakville Place will be making a donation to the Oakville Parent Child Centre and the Lions Foundation of Canada.

The following children's activities will be offered from 10 a.m. to 12 noon: Thursday is Cookie Decorating Day. Children can join the staff at IGA for cookie decorating; Friday is Doggie Days and Join the Parade Day. Come and see the Dog Guides from the Lions Foundation of Canada. Wear your Halloween costume and join the parade through the mall; Saturday is Magic Day. Magician Owen Anderson will conduct a 45-minute show followed by 45 minutes of balloon sculpting for the children in Centre Court.

Pre-registration required at Centre Court. Limited capacity. Cost is $2 per child, per activity. Limited capacity per activity.

On Sunday, a retail merchants pumpkin carving contest is at 2 p.m. Small treats will be available for pre-schoolers.

HALLOWEEN CAPERS AT BRONTE CREEK PROVINCIAL PARK

Bronte Creek Provincial Park Presents Halloween Capers from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. this Halloween weekend.

Tour a haunted house or visit the farm animals in the spooky barn. They can also join the great pumpkin challenge or the spider hunt around the farm. Pumpkins from the pumpkin patch and bunches of corn stalks will be available for sale with proceeds to the United Way. The children's play barn and Natural Cafe will also be open.

Special activities include:

Free horse drawn wagon rides on Sundays only from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Family Games, Saturday, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.: Sack races, costume parade, pumpkin seed spitting and more. A different event each hour. Winners announced after each event.

Pumpkin Carving Contest, Sunday, 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.: Buy a pumpkin and carve it to win a prize in the annual pumpkin carving contest. Entries will be judged for the scariest, funniest and most unique pumpkin in age-group categories (7-10, 11-15, 15 and up, and family). Bring your own carving tools. Some carving sets will be available for purchase.
