St. Paul's United Church at 454 Rebecca St. hosted its annual Holiday Jingle Bazaar Nov. 3. In addition to baking, crafts, knitting, sewing, jewellery, deli, and silent auction tables, there was musical entertainment and children's activities. Clockwise from left, Joel Woods playing for patrons at the bazaar, which drew a full house. Marjorie Boyce, one of the vendors at the bazaar. Lexie Chamberlain sings for the holiday shoppers. There was a wide assortment of holiday-related goods for sale and of course, Santa's Café, where Jean Couban enjoyed lunch during the event.
