Obituaries

LANDREVILLE, Donald Douglas
Of Oakville.
Passed away peacefully Monday, November 13, 2017 at Oakville Memorial Hospital. Don was born March 28, 1932 in Ottawa, Ontario to Douglas and Aileen (Finless). He was the oldest of two children. Brother to Brian Landreville (Pauline) of Rockland, Ontario. Don and Ruby (Woods) were happily married for 54 years. Loving father of Heather Landreville, Linda Tribble (Mark), Steven Landreville, Susan Essue, Christopher Landreville, and Cindy Rayner (Jeff). Don and Ruby had thirteen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Don was a pilot with the Royal Canadian Air Force and his greatest joy was to fly planes. He served with several fighter squadrons in Europe and also distinguished himself as a test pilot. Donald put high speed jets through their loops as a test pilot in West Germany in 1960. Ruby and Don enjoyed many happy years living and travelling in Europe. Returning to Canada, Donald made a name for himself with National Trust Company of Toronto, Montreal Trust and The Canada Pension Plan.

Obituaries

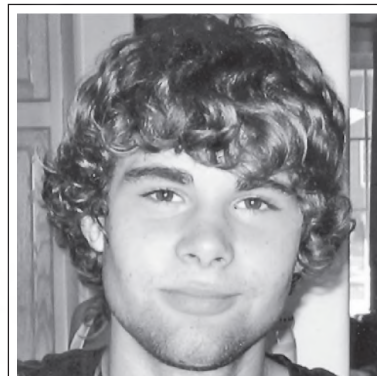

WYLIE, Geoffrey
After a wonderful life, full of laughter and adventure, Geoff passed away peacefully on November 14, 2017. Loving husband to Colette for 49 years, and proud father of Graham, Claire and Heather (Trevor Lee). He was an adoring grandfather to his three beautiful granddaughters Alyssa, Avery and Isla.

A mass will be held at St. Dominic Parish, 2415 Rebecca St., Oakville at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, November 22, 2017 followed by a Celebration of Life at Harbour Banquet Centre, 2340 Ontario Street, Oakville. In lieu of flowers, remembrances to the Alzheimer Society or Acclaim Health would be appreciated. The family is forever grateful for the compassionate care given to Geoff and his family at Oakville Hospital and the Acclaim Health adult day program.

He will be forever in our hearts.
