

Mall opens doors in November '79

Tailoring Your Needs

A Trafalgar Village pioneer, Sooters has been with the mall from day one. Now, 20 years later, they are still offering a wide range of photography services. A few of these services would include 5x7 photofinishing, 8x10 enlargements, copy prints, albums and frames.

After 20 solid years serving the Oakville community, Sooters has earned a reputation for excellent products, and helpful service. Sooters also specializes in wedding photos, studio sittings, passports and I.D. photos.
