Harvest Festival

A little bit of country atmosphere came to the Oakville Christian School on Saturday for its annual Harvest Festival. There was everything from horse drawn wagon rides to pony rides, face painting and food. LEFT TO RIGHT: Gilly rides on dad Rob Bramwell's shoulders; Luke Whitehouse savours his hot dog; and Courtney Cloudt takes a ride on a pony - after she had her face painted. Despite threatening skies, the rain held off until after the Harvest Festival ended. In fact, the weather permitted the Re/Max balloon to raise above the event during the morning. The festival was held to celebrate Thanksgiving and some people brought food to be donated to the Fareshare Foodbank. About 400 people attended.
