Assaulted clerk in mall, man still sought

Halton Police investigators are still looking for the man who sexually assaulted a store clerk at the Oakville Place Mall in August. The clerk was preparing to open a shop in the mall on the Sunday morning of August 29th when the suspect was seen peering through the doors. When spoken to, the man insisted on reading the victim's palm while working his way inside the store. He then touched several areas of the victim's body before being pushed from the premise.

Crime Stoppers would like to hear from anyone who thinks the suspect's description is familiar. He appears to be Oriental, 27 to 32 years of age, speaks heavily accented and broken English, stands 5'1" tall and has straight black hair that is longer on top than on the sides. He was wearing a white short sleeve dress shirt and blue jeans.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other case, you may be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1,000. You need not give your name and your information will be treated with complete anonymity. Crime Stoppers does not subscribe to call display. Please call 1-800-668-5151 or 825-tips.

Auto club holds safety seminar for women

Due to popular demand, the Hamilton Automobile Club will once again be holding a Women's Safety Seminar on Mon. Nov. 1st at HAC's Oakville Office (Town Centre Two, 230 North Service Rd. W.) from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Every day women find themselves alone in less than desirable situations like that unlit parking garage, the office after-hours, jogging after work, hotels, taxis, buses or even stranded on the road with a flat tire.

All members of the community are invited. If you are interested in participating in this free seminar, contact Jodie (905) 525-1520 ext. 2238.
