

Hospital extends Ultrasound testing hours

In response to customer demand, the Oakville-Trafalgar Memorial Hospital Diagnostic Imaging Department will be extending the out-patient hours for ultrasound tests.

Effective Nov. 1st, additional bookings will now be available Monday to Thursday from 4:00 to 8:00 p.m. and Saturday mornings from 8 a.m. to 12 noon. Limited bookings will be accepted on Sundays, depending on space.

"The move to increase our service hours is in direct response to the increased demand we're receiving for quality imaging of the new Color Doppler machine," said Dennis Baranoski, Director of Diagnostic Services.

The Color Doppler machine was recently purchased with donated funds received from the OTHM Auxiliary as part of a recently announced $3.5 million capital equipment campaign.

The Diagnostic Imaging Department has been performing mammographies in the evenings and Saturday mornings for the past year with great success.

"The response from our out-patients was so favorable that we have now responded to the need for extended hours for Ultrasound testing," continued Baranoski.

The addition of the extra service hours will assist those patients who are not readily able to make day-time appointments and will result in a reduced waiting list.

The OTMH Diagnostic Imaging Department recently underwent a Ministry of Health audit and received high commendation on the "low dose of radiation the Hospital uses for its radiology examinations."

Patients booking appointments during the new extended hours will have a portion of their parking costs refunded.

Ultrasound and mammography examinations can be booked, with a physician referral, directly with Diagnostic Imaging Booking, 338-4604.

Nov. 20th

Santa Claus parade will be entertaining

Entertainment is the theme of the 45th Annual Santa Claus Parade on Saturday, Nov. 20th.

This year's Parade Marshal is none other than "Barney the Dinosaur. Parade watchers will be entertained by a wide array of clowns, bands, floats and, of course, Santa Claus.

Following the same route as last year, the parade will depart from Kerr Street at Stewart Street at 9 a.m. It is expected to reach downtown at about 9:45 a.m.

Thirty minutes prior to the parade, the Oakville Kinsmen and Kinette Club will be collecting food donations for the less fortunate.

Major sponsors of this year's parade are Moen Inc., Longo's Fruit Markets, Monenco Agra, SmithKline Beecham and Manulife Canada.
